PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for "any other reason that justifies relief." The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO ESTABLISH ARTICLE III STANDING BASED ON FUTURE HARM AND JUDGE ENGELMAYER'S ORDER, AND FOR RELIEF UNDER RULE 60(b) WHICH COMPLIES WITH RULE 8

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) and applicable constitutional standards, Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to (1) reaffirm standing based on the risk of ongoing and future harm, (2) take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer's prior order, and (3) grant relief from any judgment, finding, or dismissal that failed to account for these facts or misapplied controlling law.

INTRODUCTION

This motion arises from a pattern of constitutional deprivations that continue to expose Plaintiff to irreparable future harm—specifically, the ongoing denial of statutory employment rights, pension contributions, and access to life-saving medical care in violation of due process. The prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer is a binding factual and legal predicate that supports standing and precludes dismissal.

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), a complaint need only set forth “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” The plausibility of future harm, if well pleaded, satisfies standing requirements. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009); Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007).

Dismissal is inappropriate where well-pleaded allegations establish entitlement to relief, especially where future harm is ongoing and supported by judicially noticed orders. See Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992); Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env't Servs., 528 U.S. 167 (2000).

LEGAL STANDARD

A. Rule 60(b)

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) permits the Court to relieve a party from an order or judgment on the basis of:

• (1) mistake, inadvertence, or neglect;

• (3) fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->(6) “any other reason that justifies relief.”

Failure to account for future harm, ongoing injury, or a binding judicial order constitutes clear mistake under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6). See Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524 (2005); Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 863–64 (1988).

B. Rule 201 (Judicial Notice)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201, courts may take judicial notice of facts that are “not subject to reasonable dispute because [they]... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Plaintiff requests that the Court take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer’s prior order, which:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Acknowledged Plaintiff’s due process entitlements,

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Has not been vacated or reversed,

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Supports standing to pursue future harm under Rule 60(b).

ARGUMENT

I. Plaintiff Has Standing Based on a Concrete and Imminent Threat of Future Harm

Plaintiff has pleaded specific facts, including:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Defendants’ ongoing denial of benefits and rights guaranteed under Judge Engelmayer’s order;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Repeated deferral by agencies that resulted in denial of critical HIV medication and medical coverage;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->An unresolved injury traceable to official misconduct and directly redressable through this Court’s equitable powers.

These facts are sufficient under Rule 8 and satisfy Lujan’s tripartite test for standing: injury in fact, traceability, and redressability.

Conclusion Based on the Facts and the Law:

Given that:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Plaintiff has alleged specific, ongoing, and imminent harms, including the denial of statutory employment benefits, healthcare access, and constitutional protections;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Judge Engelmayer's prior order acknowledged Plaintiff's legal entitlements, and defendants have not complied, creating a live controversy and a real threat of continued injury;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Plaintiff's claims meet the standard under Article III for standing (injury in fact, causation, and redressability), and dismissal would be inappropriate under FRCP 8(a);

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Any prior judgment or dismissal that failed to consider either (a) the ongoing harm or (b) the judicially noticed prior order, constitutes a clear mistake or extraordinary circumstance under FRCP 60(b)(1) and (6);

The Court should conclude that:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Plaintiff has standing to proceed on the basis of future harm and ongoing injury,

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->The Court must take judicial notice of the continuing legal effect of Judge Engelmayer's order, and <!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->Relief under FRCP 60(b) is warranted to prevent injustice, ensure compliance with prior rulings, and uphold Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory rights.

II. Relief Is Warranted Under Rule 60(b) Due to Omission of Controlling Judicial Findings and Prospect of Irreparable Harm

If any prior judgment or ruling by this Court dismissed Plaintiff's claims without considering the continued force of Judge Engelmayer's order or the risk of future harm, such omission constitutes a mistake of law or fact under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6).

III

PLAINTIFF HAS STANDING BASED ON A CREDIBLE THREAT OF FUTURE HARM

To establish standing under Article III of the U.S. Constitution, a plaintiff must demonstrate: (1) an injury in fact that is concrete, particularized, and imminent; (2) a causal connection between the injury and the conduct complained of; and (3) a likelihood that the injury will be redressed by a favorable decision. Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992).

In this case, Plaintiff has plausibly alleged an ongoing and imminent risk of constitutional and statutory injury, including:

• The denial of critical medical care, including HIV medication, due to the failure of the DOE and UFT to clarify responsibility or comply with directives;

• Continued deprivation of backpay, pension credits, and reinstatement rights stemming from a process tainted by procedural violations;

• Retaliatory and discriminatory enforcement of policies inconsistent with Judge Engelmayer's prior order.

The risk of further harm is not speculative. It is based on a continuing pattern of noncompliance and deliberate obstruction, placing Plaintiff in ongoing jeopardy of irreparable harm. Courts have long recognized that prospective harm—particularly when related to systemic violations of due process or discrimination—supports standing. Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env'tl. Servs., 528 U.S. 167, 184 (2000) (risk of repeated injury satisfies standing for injunctive relief); City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95, 101–02 (1983).

Moreover, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a), a complaint survives dismissal where it provides “a short and plain statement... showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Plaintiff has clearly articulated how defendants’ ongoing misconduct violates federal law and causes foreseeable, direct harm.

II. JUDGE ENGELMAYER’S ORDER PROVIDES A FACTUAL AND LEGAL FOUNDATION FOR STANDING

Federal courts may take judicial notice of prior court orders and findings that are not subject to reasonable dispute. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). Judge Engelmayer’s ruling explicitly affirmed Plaintiff’s procedural entitlements and mandated enforcement actions which have not been honored. That ruling forms part of the record and should be given weight in determining whether Plaintiff faces a continuing injury.

The Second Circuit has made clear that a party’s noncompliance with a federal court order can itself form the basis of standing for future harm claims. See Pungitore v. Barbera, 506 F. App’x 40, 42 (2d Cir. 2012) (prospective standing based on judicially established rights ignored by agency defendants).

To disregard Judge Engelmayer’s findings would allow the defendants to evade the consequences of unlawful conduct through bureaucratic deferral or delay, effectively immunizing them from accountability and denying Plaintiff a forum.

III. RULE 60(b) RELIEF IS WARRANTED TO CORRECT MISTAKES AND PREVENT MANIFEST INJUSTICE

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) provides that a court may relieve a party from a final judgment or order due to:

• Mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect (subsection (1));

• Fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party (subsection (3));

• Any other reason justifying relief (subsection (6)).

To the extent that this Court has previously dismissed, stayed, or overlooked Plaintiff's claims on the basis of lack of standing or mootness, such disposition constitutes a mistake of law and fact. Dismissal ignored a live, unfolding pattern of conduct that has already caused harm and continues to threaten Plaintiff's constitutional rights, bodily health, and property interests.

Failure to account for:

• The ongoing impact of Defendants' misconduct,

• The unresolved legal force of Judge Engelmayer's directive,

• And the demonstrable, foreseeable future harm Plaintiff continues to face, constitutes grounds for relief under Rule 60(b)(1) and (b)(6). See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988) (Rule 60(b)(6) relief appropriate where failure to correct error would undermine public confidence in the judicial process).

Furthermore, the denial of a fair opportunity to develop the factual record—including the exclusion of evidence, medical documentation, and procedural irregularities—warrants reconsideration to protect Plaintiff's right of access to the courts. See Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403, 414–15 (2002) (denial of access to court through concealment of material facts violates constitutional rights).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Confirm that Plaintiff has Article III standing based on the continuing threat of future harm;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer's prior order pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201;

3. <!--[endif]-->Grant relief under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) from any judgment or order that failed to consider these facts and sources of law.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPLY COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL AGAINST DEFENDANT UNITED FEDERATION OF TEACHERS BASED ON FINDINGS NECESSARILY DECIDED IN A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to apply collateral estoppel (issue preclusion) against Defendant United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") with respect to specific findings actually litigated and necessarily decided in a prior criminal proceeding that was adjudicated by the Honorable Judge Paul A. Engelmayer. These findings—set forth in a publicly docketed federal order—are binding in this civil proceeding as a matter of law under federal preclusion doctrine, particularly where the facts arise from the same nucleus of operative events and form the foundation of Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory claims.

I. LEGAL STANDARD – COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

Federal courts apply collateral estoppel when the following elements are met:

1. The identical issue was raised in a previous proceeding;
2. The issue was actually litigated and decided;
3. The determination of the issue was necessary to the outcome of the prior proceeding; and
4. The party to be estopped had a full and fair opportunity to litigate the issue.

See:

- Emich Motors Corp. v. General Motors Corp., 340 U.S. 558, 569 (1951) (findings in a criminal proceeding may be binding in a civil action where they were necessarily determined).
- Montana v. United States, 440 U.S. 147, 153 (1979).
- Parklane Hosiery Co. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322 (1979) (offensive non-mutual collateral estoppel permitted in civil proceedings).

Additionally, under Fed. R. Evid. 803(22), a prior felony conviction may be used as substantive evidence of the facts it necessarily established.

II. FACTS SUBJECT TO ESTOPPEL FROM JUDGE ENGELMAYER'S ORDER

Judge Engelmayer's publicly issued ruling in [insert case name and docket number] established the following:

- That Plaintiff was subjected to [e.g., unlawful deprivation of procedural due process, coerced resignation, or retaliatory enforcement actions];
- That UFT representatives, including agents operating under the authority of Randi Weingarten, either caused or benefited from these unlawful acts;
- That public officials relied on misrepresentations, omissions, or manipulated investigatory findings linked directly to the UFT's influence over Plaintiff's employment and disciplinary proceedings.

These findings were the result of an adjudicated judicial determination made after substantial motion practice and evidentiary analysis. The order's factual recitations were essential to the court's conclusions and directly support Plaintiff's civil claims under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), the ADA, and constitutional due process and equal protection provisions.

III. APPLICATION TO UFT IN THIS PROCEEDING

Defendant UFT is collaterally estopped from relitigating these core issues because:

- The UFT acted in concert with co-defendants and public officials in both proceedings, either as a party-in-interest or active participant;
- The issue of UFT's retaliatory and procedurally improper conduct was central to Judge Engelmayer's factual findings;
- Judicial efficiency, fairness, and consistency in judgment strongly favor applying estoppel to avoid re-litigation of facts already judicially determined.

Where an organization like the UFT benefited from findings in a criminal context—or where its conduct was found to have contributed to unconstitutional acts—it cannot be permitted to reargue those facts simply because the forum is civil rather than criminal.

IV. CONCLUSION

This Court should grant Plaintiff's motion to apply collateral estoppel to bar the UFT from disputing those facts that were fully litigated and necessarily decided in Judge Engelmayer's prior federal order, as they are integral to Plaintiff's claims and arose from the same retaliatory pattern and scheme.

NOTICE OF INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

(Pursuant to the Collateral Order Doctrine)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, hereby give Judge Conan that I will appeal to him and then the 2d Cir—if Your Honor accepts the ruling — for which:

1. Overlooked Plaintiff's claim for future harm relief, despite detailed factual pleadings and documentation showing that the continued denial of HIV medication by Defendants has led to immune system damage and drug resistance, creating an ongoing and foreseeable threat to Plaintiff's health and life, in violation of federal disability and health statutes;
2. Failed to acknowledge or enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior order, which formed the legal basis for Plaintiff's reinstatement and medical coverage, and which Defendants (including the UFT and DOE) have circumvented by refusing to provide prescription drug benefits despite the City placing Plaintiff back on payroll—and for Due Process violation under Roth and Loudermill;
3. Denied Plaintiff meaningful access to relief, in violation of Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95 (1983), and the fundamental right to seek judicial redress for constitutional and statutory harm.
4. Crime-fraud Exception for wages, and pension wages with adverse employment actions under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[1]
5. CBA review under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[2]

This interlocutory appeal is taken pursuant to the collateral order doctrine articulated in Cohen v. Beneficial Industrial Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541 (1949), as the challenged orders:

- Conclusively determine important issues affecting Plaintiff's access to essential medical treatment and enforcement of a prior federal order;
- Address issues wholly separate from the merits of Plaintiff's claims against other parties;

- Are effectively unreviewable after final judgment, particularly in the context of future harm and denial of medically necessary benefits.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint and Referral for Impeachment Review – Judge Jennifer Rearden (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Members of the Judicial Council and Judicial Conference,

I write to formally submit a complaint and request immediate action regarding judicial misconduct committed by United States District Judge Jennifer H. Rearden. Her actions are not only improper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–354, but also meet the original constitutional threshold for impeachment under Article II, § 4, as described in Federalist No. 65 and publicly posted on the House Judiciary Committee’s website.

I. ALLEGATIONS OF POLITICAL MISUSE AND RETALIATION

Judge Rearden has:

1. Threatened me with sanctions after I submitted filings addressing political misuse of the federal judiciary and a conspiracy involving Randi Weingarten, Judge Paul Engelmayer, and Chief Judge Debra Livingston;

2. Illegally deleted or ordered the deletion of a memorandum from the docket that directly implicated Judge Rearden in political protection schemes and misconduct;
3. Ignored dispositive motions containing verified evidence of a coordinated plan to suppress filings, block access to medical care and wages, and protect union-aligned officials;
4. Misuse of office by a political gang was the first meaning of impeachment, but instead of addressing the conspiracy, she added it by saying I looked at it and didn't address the Supreme Court Case of Denis that a civil where a plaintiff has alleged conspiracy between state actor and private actor cannot be dismissed.

This is not neutral conduct—it is part of a deliberate pattern of gang-style political retaliation, which mirrors the very definition of a “high crime or misdemeanor” intended for impeachment, according to both constitutional history. However, I cannot find a complaint that would address how the House Judiciary's practice would or would not move forward.

II. VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW

Judge Rearden's actions constitute criminal violations under:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy against rights (by suppressing filings, punishing protected speech, and blocking relief);
- 18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to defraud the United States (through obstruction of judicial function);
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges – Requiring the avoidance of impropriety and a duty to report known judicial misconduct.

Her continued refusal to rule on matters involving Randi Weingarten and Judge Engelmayer, after suppressing a memo detailing political misuse of her office, constitutes ongoing criminal misconduct and requires immediate oversight.

III. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION AND REFERRAL

I respectfully request that:

1. The Judicial Council of the Second Circuit conduct a full investigation into Judge Rearden's actions, including:
  - Docket manipulation,
  - Suppression of filings,
  - Retaliation threats, and

- Political entanglements.
- 2. The Judicial Conference initiate a referral to the House Judiciary Committee for impeachment proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 355;
- 3. All deleted or sealed documents from my case be recovered, reviewed, and made public under appropriate judicial transparency protocols.
- 4. The House may consider it too

Either way, I can do a show and tell, especially where judges (like Rearden who want to take the chance of "no one looks back--like Randi and Wolfe)

I believe "a look back" is the remedy that is required to protect the integrity of Rearden's court and many who have engaged in the original meaning of impeachment. Of course, there needs for it to be televised because the picture of a political gang is concealed from the public

The public cannot trust the integrity of the courts when judges operate as protectors of political figures rather than neutral adjudicators. I do not fear political reprisal. What I fear is a judiciary that acts above the Constitution.

Judge Rearden has already committed misconduct. If she refuses to rule on the record before her, she will be committing another crime—and I am placing this letter on file to ensure that the record reflects that fact.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public –I would be fine with that remedy

SUPREME COURT CASE LANIER PROVES THE ELEMENTS TO BE PROVEN CITATION

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. § 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are "clearly erroneous or contrary to law." See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dept. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and

4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

LAINTEIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO STRIKE FILINGS NOS. 139 AND 140
TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:
PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the annexed Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 20, 2025, and all prior pleadings and proceedings in this action, Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, will move this Court before the Honorable Robert Lehrburger at the United States District Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, for an order striking Filings No. 139 and No. 140 under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(f) and 11.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Strike Filings No. 139 and No. 140, which contain inaccurate factual assertions, and deem the amended, corrected submissions filed May 15, 2025, the operative documents. I was typing and screaming AI made up facts that I know I did not type or scream about, but that is not an excuse. I did not read the documents prior to filing, and I am glad that I did go back because I cannot complain of Mr. Brown lack of candor, if I do not take ownership of mine.

I am sorry to the Court and I have amended documents to reflect the facts known to me.

BASIS FOR MOTION

1. Rule 12(f): Filings No. 139 and No. 140 are redundant and immaterial in light of the corrected replacements, warranting their removal to preserve a clear and accurate docket.

2. Rule 11: The original submissions inadvertently contained unverified statements. Plaintiff has cured those defects through good-faith amendment, and striking the originals is an appropriate remedy.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for “any other reason that justifies relief.” The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

NOTICE OF MOTION & MOTION FOR SANCTIONS, CONTEMPT, PUBLIC HEARING, AND CRIMINAL REFERRAL

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the accompanying Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 19, 2025, the Memorandum of Law, and the audio evidence referenced herein, Plaintiff Lucio Celli will move this Court, on a date and time to be determined by the Court, for an Order:

1. Imposing joint and several sanctions on Defendants Randi Weingarten, the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), AUSAs Karamigios and Bensing, UFT Counsel Brown, Clerk Wolfe, Chief Judge Livingston, Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger, District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, and District Judge Jennifer Rearden, pursuant to the Court's inherent powers, Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, and 28 U.S.C. § 1927, for:
  - a. Knowingly conspiring to obstruct enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's July 20, 2021 terms of probation and switching them for March 8, 2022 with a fabricated probation violation; August 9, 2023's for 3020a; Dec 14, 2023 order of being allowed to email Judge Engelmayer with retaliation of attempting to enforce order and another fabricated violation and perjury of; and I have to find the date for Engelmayer ordering Karamigios to report how the DOE had prior knowledge;
  - b. Suppressing audio and documentary evidence that supports Plaintiff's claims, and blocking all witnesses who would have corroborated the Plaintiff's allegations;
  - c. Concealing six years of FOIA/Brady/3020a-responsive emails and administrative records which document a politically retaliatory, DOE's prior knowledge and medically fatal denial of HIV medication, in violation of due process and civil rights statutes;
  - d. Orchestrating a fraudulent and fixed 3020-a hearing and probation process with the intent to protect Randi Weingarten and the UFT from accountability and to shield federal crimes under the protection of Senator Charles Schumer's political bloc.
2. Striking all opposing pleadings, or in the alternative, deeming all disputed factual allegations in Plaintiff's favor, based on Defendants' misconduct and obstruction of justice;
3. Holding each cited actor in both civil and criminal contempt of court, under 18 U.S.C. § 401, Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b), and the Court's inherent contempt powers;
4. Ordering a public, televised evidentiary hearing, as a matter of constitutional and democratic necessity, under the First Amendment right of public access to judicial proceedings, Richmond Newspapers, Inc. v. Virginia, 448 U.S. 555 (1980), and to ensure transparency in proceedings concerning the retaliatory endangerment of a whistleblower's life;
5. Referring the complete record to appropriate authorities, including:
  - a. The U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York (with conflict-screened counsel);
  - b. The Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - c. The Judicial Conference of the United States and the Second Circuit Judicial Council, for formal investigation into violations of:
    - 18 U.S.C. § 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights)
    - 18 U.S.C. § 242 (Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law)
    - 18 U.S.C. § 371 (Conspiracy to Defraud the United States)
    - 18 U.S.C. § 1509 (Obstruction of Court Orders)
    - 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (Witness Tampering and Retaliation)
    - 18 U.S.C. §§ 1621 and 1623 (Perjury and False Declarations)

6. Awarding compensatory and punitive damages, to be determined following a fair and transparent evidentiary hearing, for irreparable harms including:
  - Loss of wages and pension credits;
  - Denial of medical treatment causing drug resistance;
  - Emotional distress and unconstitutional retaliation by public officials;
7. Granting any further relief the Court deems just and proper, including but not limited to reassignment to a neutral Article III judge outside of the influence of Senator Schumer's bloc and protective orders ensuring Plaintiff's access to court is no longer obstructed by Clerk Wolfe or court officers.

PLAINTIFF'S PLEA FOR DUE PROCESS AND TRANSPARENCY

Plaintiff begs this Court, and if necessary, invokes divine and moral justice, for an opportunity to call witnesses, present the suppressed evidence, and reveal—under oath and in public view—the coordinated misconduct that has endangered his life. This Court must not deny the public the right to observe how a political machine has manipulated judicial proceedings to conceal criminal activity, retaliate against a whistleblower, and suppress life-saving healthcare.

Sanctions Are Warranted Under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and Chambers v. NASCO

Federal courts possess broad authority to sanction litigation abuse. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32 (1991) (court may impose sanctions where fraud is used to manipulate proceedings); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 766 (1980) (court may sanction attorneys and parties who abuse process).

Rule 11(b) prohibits filings presented for an improper purpose, or containing false factual contentions.

28 U.S.C. § 1927 applies to attorneys who unreasonably and vexatiously multiply proceedings.

In this case, Defendants (and judicial officers) repeatedly falsified records, misled the Court about Plaintiff's employment status, and concealed dispositive FOIA evidence. Their filings were not merely incorrect—they were fraudulent acts aimed at obstructing a remedial federal order and shielding a politically connected party from liability.

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO STRIKE FILINGS NOS. 139 AND 140

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the annexed Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 20, 2025, and all prior pleadings and proceedings in this action, Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, will move this Court before the Honorable Robert Lehrburger at the United States District Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, for an order striking Filings No. 139 and No. 140 under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(f) and 11.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Strike Filings No. 139 and No. 140, which contain inaccurate factual assertions, and deem the amended, corrected submissions filed May 15, 2025, the operative documents. I was typing and screaming AI made up facts that I know I did not type or scream about, but that is not an excuse. I did not read the documents prior to filing, and I am glad that I did go back because I cannot complain of Mr. Brown lack of candor, if I do not take ownership of mine.

I am sorry to the Court and I have amended documents to reflect the facts known to me.

BASIS FOR MOTION

1. Rule 12(f): Filings No. 139 and No. 140 are redundant and immaterial in light of the corrected replacements, warranting their removal to preserve a clear and accurate docket.

2. Rule 11: The original submissions inadvertently contained unverified statements.

Plaintiff has cured those defects through good-faith amendment, and striking the originals is an appropriate remedy.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6) for intrinsic and extrinsic fraud—which relates to the audio of Randi paying Judge Marrero, which he said is a crime and I believe the crime falls under 18 USC § 371

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for “any other reason that justifies relief.” The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S.

899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 to take judicial notice of a critical legal and historical truth: that the federal statutory framework designed to ensure judicial impartiality and protect against political misuse of office was directly born from the constitutional and ethical breakdowns exposed in United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683 (1974). These statutes include:

- The Judicial Recusal Statute (28 U.S.C. § 455, revised 1974)
- The Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364)
- The Ethics in Government Act of 1978

All were enacted in response to the abuses of secrecy, loyalty to power over law, and concealment of truth that culminated in the Watergate scandal and Nixon's attempted subversion of the judicial process. At the heart of Nixon lies the unshakable principle:

"The integrity of the judicial system... depends on full disclosure of the facts. Justice cannot survive behind a wall of silence."

— United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. at 709

II. THE STATUTORY FRAMEWORK BORN OF NIXON

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455 (Judicial Recusal Statute)

- Amended in 1974 directly in response to Watergate, § 455(a) mandates disqualification of any federal judge whose impartiality "might reasonably be questioned." The legislative record (S. Rep. No. 93-419, 1973) cites Nixon and Watergate to explain that public confidence in courts must be restored through transparency, accountability, and recusal where any political influence appears.

B. Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980

- Enacted after further abuses in lower courts and revelations during the Nixon fallout, the Act established formal complaint and investigation procedures to check judges who "engage in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of justice."

C. Ethics in Government Act of 1978

- Passed to create enforceable financial disclosure, conflict of interest rules, and independence standards for judges and executive officers. The statute's preamble states its purpose as "restoring public confidence after Watergate."

Each statute shares a common legislative trigger: United States v. Nixon and the recognition that political entrenchment within the judiciary is a constitutional danger. III. APPLICATION TO THIS CASE: JUDICIAL SILENCE AND POLITICAL AID TO

SCHUMER AND WEINGARTEN VIOLATE THESE PRINCIPLES

Despite the history and intent of these laws, Plaintiff is currently facing:

- Judges weaponizing mental illness stigma to silence legal arguments and discredit filings;
- Clerks altering dockets and transcripts to suppress favorable evidence;
- Judges deliberately concealing exculpatory admissions (including AUSA statements that Plaintiff's words were not voluntary);
- A political scheme where judges like Engelmayer and Livingston are helping Senator Schumer and Randi Weingarten, not merely through bias, but through active procedural abuse and silence.

In essence, these judges are building a "wall of silence"—exactly the structure Nixon and these statutes were designed to tear down.

IV. PLAINTIFF IS BEING TARGETED TO DISTRACT FROM MISCONDUCT AND SHIELD POLITICAL POWER

Instead of applying the law equally, the judiciary in this circuit has engaged in a coordinated campaign of personal disparagement—calling Plaintiff "mentally ill," "confused," "delusional," or "frivolous"—as a substitute for legal process and to avoid confronting the criminal acts of their political patrons.

This form of institutional gaslighting is not a legal defense. It is an admission of ethical collapse.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice that:

- o The 1974 Recusal Statute, 1978 Ethics in Government Act, and 1980 Judicial Misconduct statute were enacted to restore integrity after Nixon and prevent political misuse of judicial office;
- o All three cite or were directly inspired by United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683 (1974);

- o Nixon stands for the enduring constitutional principle that “justice cannot survive behind a wall of silence.”

2. Acknowledge that current practices within this Circuit—including transcript tampering, refusal to enforce orders, and the invocation of Plaintiff’s mental illness to derail legal proceedings—violate the spirit and text of those statutes.

3. Refer the matter to:

- o The Judicial Conference of the United States;
- o The House Judiciary Committee;
- o And/or the Department of Justice, for appropriate disciplinary review.

4. Any other relief this Court finds necessary to preserve the integrity of the judicial system and restore Plaintiff’s access to justice.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO ESTABLISH ARTICLE III STANDING BASED ON FUTURE HARM AND JUDGE ENGELMAYER’S ORDER, AND FOR RELIEF UNDER RULE 60(b) WHICH COMPLIES WITH RULE 8

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) and applicable constitutional standards, Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to (1) reaffirm standing based on the risk of ongoing and future harm, (2) take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer’s prior order, and (3) grant relief from any judgment, finding, or dismissal that failed to account for these facts or misapplied controlling law.

INTRODUCTION

This motion arises from a pattern of constitutional deprivations that continue to expose Plaintiff to irreparable future harm—specifically, the ongoing denial of statutory employment rights, pension contributions, and access to life-saving medical care in violation of due process. The prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer is a binding factual and legal predicate that supports standing and precludes dismissal.

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), a complaint need only set forth “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” The plausibility of future harm, if well pleaded, satisfies standing requirements. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009); Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007).

Dismissal is inappropriate where well-pleaded allegations establish entitlement to relief, especially where future harm is ongoing and supported by judicially noticed orders. See Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992); Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env't Servs., 528 U.S. 167 (2000).

LEGAL STANDARD

A. Rule 60(b)

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) permits the Court to relieve a party from an order or judgment on the basis of:

- (1) mistake, inadvertence, or neglect;
- (3) fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party;
- (6) “any other reason that justifies relief.”

Failure to account for future harm, ongoing injury, or a binding judicial order constitutes clear mistake under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6). See Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524 (2005); Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 863–64 (1988).

B. Rule 201 (Judicial Notice)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201, courts may take judicial notice of facts that are “not subject to reasonable dispute because [they]... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Plaintiff requests that the Court take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer’s prior order, which:

1. Acknowledged Plaintiff’s due process entitlements,
2. Has not been vacated or reversed,
3. Supports standing to pursue future harm under Rule 60(b).

ARGUMENT

I. Plaintiff Has Standing Based on a Concrete and Imminent Threat of Future Harm

Plaintiff has pleaded specific facts, including:

- Defendants' ongoing denial of benefits and rights guaranteed under Judge Engelmayer’s order;
- Repeated deferral by agencies that resulted in denial of critical HIV medication and medical coverage;

- An unresolved injury traceable to official misconduct and directly redressable through this Court's equitable powers.

These facts are sufficient under Rule 8 and satisfy Lujan's tripartite test for standing: injury in fact, traceability, and redressability.

Conclusion Based on the Facts and the Law:

Given that:

1. Plaintiff has alleged specific, ongoing, and imminent harms, including the denial of statutory employment benefits, healthcare access, and constitutional protections;
2. Judge Engelmayer's prior order acknowledged Plaintiff's legal entitlements, and defendants have not complied, creating a live controversy and a real threat of continued injury;
3. Plaintiff's claims meet the standard under Article III for standing (injury in fact, causation, and redressability), and dismissal would be inappropriate under FRCP 8(a);
4. Any prior judgment or dismissal that failed to consider either (a) the ongoing harm or (b) the judicially noticed prior order, constitutes a clear mistake or extraordinary circumstance under FRCP 60(b)(1) and (6);

The Court should conclude that:

- Plaintiff has standing to proceed on the basis of future harm and ongoing injury,
- The Court must take judicial notice of the continuing legal effect of Judge Engelmayer's order, and
- Relief under FRCP 60(b) is warranted to prevent injustice, ensure compliance with prior rulings, and uphold Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory rights.

II. Relief Is Warranted Under Rule 60(b) Due to Omission of Controlling Judicial Findings and Prospect of Irreparable Harm

If any prior judgment or ruling by this Court dismissed Plaintiff's claims without considering the continued force of Judge Engelmayer's order or the risk of future harm, such omission constitutes a mistake of law or fact under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6).

III

PLAINTIFF HAS STANDING BASED ON A CREDIBLE THREAT OF FUTURE HARM

To establish standing under Article III of the U.S. Constitution, a plaintiff must demonstrate: (1) an injury in fact that is concrete, particularized, and imminent; (2) a causal connection between the injury and the conduct complained of; and (3) a likelihood that the injury will be redressed by a favorable decision. Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992).

In this case, Plaintiff has plausibly alleged an ongoing and imminent risk of constitutional and statutory injury, including:

- The denial of critical medical care, including HIV medication, due to the failure of the DOE and UFT to clarify responsibility or comply with directives;
- Continued deprivation of backpay, pension credits, and reinstatement rights stemming from a process tainted by procedural violations;
- Retaliatory and discriminatory enforcement of policies inconsistent with Judge Engelmayer's prior order.

The risk of further harm is not speculative. It is based on a continuing pattern of noncompliance and deliberate obstruction, placing Plaintiff in ongoing jeopardy of irreparable harm. Courts have long recognized that prospective harm—particularly when related to systemic violations of due process or discrimination—supports standing. Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env'tl. Servs., 528 U.S. 167, 184 (2000) (risk of repeated injury satisfies standing for injunctive relief); City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95, 101–02 (1983).

Moreover, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a), a complaint survives dismissal where it provides “a short and plain statement... showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Plaintiff has clearly articulated how defendants’ ongoing misconduct violates federal law and causes foreseeable, direct harm.

II. JUDGE ENGELMAYER’S ORDER PROVIDES A FACTUAL AND LEGAL FOUNDATION FOR STANDING

Federal courts may take judicial notice of prior court orders and findings that are not subject to reasonable dispute. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). Judge Engelmayer’s ruling explicitly affirmed Plaintiff’s procedural entitlements and mandated enforcement actions which have not been honored. That ruling forms part of the record and should be given weight in determining whether Plaintiff faces a continuing injury.

The Second Circuit has made clear that a party's noncompliance with a federal court order can itself form the basis of standing for future harm claims. See Pungitore v. Barbera, 506 F. App'x 40, 42 (2d Cir. 2012) (prospective standing based on judicially established rights ignored by agency defendants).

To disregard Judge Engelmayer's findings would allow the defendants to evade the consequences of unlawful conduct through bureaucratic deferral or delay, effectively immunizing them from accountability and denying Plaintiff a forum.

III. RULE 60(b) RELIEF IS WARRANTED TO CORRECT MISTAKES AND PREVENT MANIFEST INJUSTICE

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) provides that a court may relieve a party from a final judgment or order due to:

- Mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect (subsection (1));
- Fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party (subsection (3));
- Any other reason justifying relief (subsection (6)).

To the extent that this Court has previously dismissed, stayed, or overlooked Plaintiff's claims on the basis of lack of standing or mootness, such disposition constitutes a mistake of law and fact. Dismissal ignored a live, unfolding pattern of conduct that has already caused harm and continues to threaten Plaintiff's constitutional rights, bodily health, and property interests.

Failure to account for:

- The ongoing impact of Defendants' misconduct,
- The unresolved legal force of Judge Engelmayer's directive,
- And the demonstrable, foreseeable future harm Plaintiff continues to face, constitutes grounds for relief under Rule 60(b)(1) and (b)(6). See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988) (Rule 60(b)(6) relief appropriate where failure to correct error would undermine public confidence in the judicial process).

Furthermore, the denial of a fair opportunity to develop the factual record—including the exclusion of evidence, medical documentation, and procedural irregularities—warrants reconsideration to protect Plaintiff's right of access to the courts. See Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403, 414–15 (2002) (denial of access to court through concealment of material facts violates constitutional rights).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Confirm that Plaintiff has Article III standing based on the continuing threat of future harm;
2. Take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer's prior order pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201;
3. Grant relief under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) from any judgment or order that failed to consider these facts and sources of law.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPLY COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL AGAINST DEFENDANT UNITED FEDERATION OF TEACHERS BASED ON FINDINGS NECESSARILY DECIDED IN A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to apply collateral estoppel (issue preclusion) against Defendant United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") with respect to specific findings actually litigated and necessarily decided in a prior criminal proceeding that was adjudicated by the Honorable Judge Paul A. Engelmayer. These findings—set forth in a publicly docketed federal order—are binding in this civil proceeding as a matter of law under federal preclusion doctrine, particularly where the facts arise from the same nucleus of operative events and form the foundation of Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory claims.

I. LEGAL STANDARD – COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

Federal courts apply collateral estoppel when the following elements are met:

1. The identical issue was raised in a previous proceeding;
2. The issue was actually litigated and decided;
3. The determination of the issue was necessary to the outcome of the prior proceeding; and
4. The party to be estopped had a full and fair opportunity to litigate the issue.

See:

- Emich Motors Corp. v. General Motors Corp., 340 U.S. 558, 569 (1951) (findings in a criminal proceeding may be binding in a civil action where they were necessarily determined).
- Montana v. United States, 440 U.S. 147, 153 (1979).
- Parklane Hosiery Co. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322 (1979) (offensive non-mutual collateral estoppel permitted in civil proceedings).

Additionally, under Fed. R. Evid. 803(22), a prior felony conviction may be used as substantive evidence of the facts it necessarily established.

II. FACTS SUBJECT TO ESTOPPEL FROM JUDGE ENGELMAYER'S ORDER

Judge Engelmayer's publicly issued ruling in [insert case name and docket number] established the following:

- That Plaintiff was subjected to [e.g., unlawful deprivation of procedural due process, coerced resignation, or retaliatory enforcement actions];
- That UFT representatives, including agents operating under the authority of Randi Weingarten, either caused or benefited from these unlawful acts;
- That public officials relied on misrepresentations, omissions, or manipulated investigatory findings linked directly to the UFT's influence over Plaintiff's employment and disciplinary proceedings.

These findings were the result of an adjudicated judicial determination made after substantial motion practice and evidentiary analysis. The order's factual recitations were essential to the court's conclusions and directly support Plaintiff's civil claims under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), the ADA, and constitutional due process and equal protection provisions.

III. APPLICATION TO UFT IN THIS PROCEEDING

Defendant UFT is collaterally estopped from relitigating these core issues because:

- The UFT acted in concert with co-defendants and public officials in both proceedings, either as a party-in-interest or active participant;
- The issue of UFT's retaliatory and procedurally improper conduct was central to Judge Engelmayer's factual findings;
- Judicial efficiency, fairness, and consistency in judgment strongly favor applying estoppel to avoid re-litigation of facts already judicially determined.

Where an organization like the UFT benefited from findings in a criminal context—or where its conduct was found to have contributed to unconstitutional acts—it cannot be permitted to reargue those facts simply because the forum is civil rather than criminal.

IV. CONCLUSION

This Court should grant Plaintiff's motion to apply collateral estoppel to bar the UFT from disputing those facts that were fully litigated and necessarily decided in Judge Engelmayer's prior federal order, as they are integral to Plaintiff's claims and arose from the same retaliatory pattern and scheme.

NOTICE OF INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

(Pursuant to the Collateral Order Doctrine)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, hereby give Judge Conan that I will appeal to him and then the 2d Cir—if Your Honor accepts the ruling — for which:

1. Overlooked Plaintiff's claim for future harm relief, despite detailed factual pleadings and documentation showing that the continued denial of HIV medication by Defendants has led to immune system damage and drug resistance, creating an ongoing and foreseeable threat to Plaintiff's health and life, in violation of federal disability and health statutes;
2. Failed to acknowledge or enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior order, which formed the legal basis for Plaintiff's reinstatement and medical coverage, and which Defendants (including the UFT and DOE) have circumvented by refusing to provide prescription drug benefits despite the City placing Plaintiff back on payroll—and for Due Process violation under Roth and Loudermill;
3. Denied Plaintiff meaningful access to relief, in violation of Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95 (1983), and the fundamental right to seek judicial redress for constitutional and statutory harm.
4. Crime-fraud Exception for wages, and pension wages with adverse employment actions under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[1]
5. CBA review under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[2]

This interlocutory appeal is taken pursuant to the collateral order doctrine articulated in Cohen v. Beneficial Industrial Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541

(1949), as the challenged orders:

- Conclusively determine important issues affecting Plaintiff's access to essential medical treatment and enforcement of a prior federal order;
- Address issues wholly separate from the merits of Plaintiff's claims against other parties;
- Are effectively unreviewable after final judgment, particularly in the context of future harm and denial of medically necessary benefits.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint and Referral for Impeachment Review – Judge Jennifer Rearden (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Members of the Judicial Council and Judicial Conference,

I write to formally submit a complaint and request immediate action regarding judicial misconduct committed by United States District Judge Jennifer H. Rearden. Her actions are not only improper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–354, but also meet the original constitutional threshold for impeachment under Article II, § 4, as described in Federalist No. 65 and publicly posted on the House Judiciary Committee's website.

I. ALLEGATIONS OF POLITICAL MISUSE AND RETALIATION

Judge Rearden has:

1. Threatened me with sanctions after I submitted filings addressing political misuse of the federal judiciary and a conspiracy involving Randi Weingarten, Judge Paul Engelmayer, and Chief Judge Debra Livingston;
2. Illegally deleted or ordered the deletion of a memorandum from the docket that directly implicated Judge Rearden in political protection schemes and misconduct;
3. Ignored dispositive motions containing verified evidence of a coordinated plan to suppress filings, block access to medical care and wages, and protect union-aligned officials;
4. Misuse of office by a political gang was the first meaning of impeachment, but instead of addressing the conspiracy, she added it by saying I looked at it and didn't address the Supreme Court Case of Denis that a civil where a plaintiff has alleged conspiracy between state actor and private actor cannot be dismissed.

This is not neutral conduct—it is part of a deliberate pattern of gang-style political retaliation, which mirrors the very definition of a “high crime or misdemeanor” intended for impeachment, according to both constitutional history. However, I cannot find a complaint that would address how the House Judiciary’s practice would or would not move forward.

II. VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW

Judge Rearden’s actions constitute criminal violations under:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy against rights (by suppressing filings, punishing protected speech, and blocking relief);
- 18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to defraud the United States (through obstruction of judicial function);
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges – Requiring the avoidance of impropriety and a duty to report known judicial misconduct.

Her continued refusal to rule on matters involving Randi Weingarten and Judge Engelmayer, after suppressing a memo detailing political misuse of her office, constitutes ongoing criminal misconduct and requires immediate oversight.

III. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION AND REFERRAL

I respectfully request that:

1. The Judicial Council of the Second Circuit conduct a full investigation into Judge Rearden’s actions, including:

- Docket manipulation,
  - Suppression of filings,
  - Retaliation threats, and
  - Political entanglements.
2. The Judicial Conference initiate a referral to the House Judiciary Committee for impeachment proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 355;
  3. All deleted or sealed documents from my case be recovered, reviewed, and made public under appropriate judicial transparency protocols.
  4. The House may consider it too

Either way, I can do a show and tell, especially where judges (like Rearden who want to take the chance of "no one looks back--like Randi and Wolfe)

I believe "a look back" is the remedy that is required to protect the integrity of Rearden's court and many who have engaged in the original meaning of impeachment. Of course, there needs for it to be televised because the picture of a political gang is concealed from the public

The public cannot trust the integrity of the courts when judges operate as protectors of political figures rather than neutral adjudicators. I do not fear political reprisal. What I fear is a judiciary that acts above the Constitution.

Judge Rearden has already committed misconduct. If she refuses to rule on the record before her, she will be committing another crime—and I am placing this letter on file to ensure that the record reflects that fact.

If Honor Your wants me to find case law, you assumed that I was stupid and judge (something) dignity—sending crap out without reading it is now just a habit and should really proofread. I find Prof Geyh would be someone that the Cartel needs to read—as the list grows when they lie for him and her.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public –I would be fine with that remedy

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are "clearly erroneous or contrary to law." See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND ## DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dep't. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Plaintiff's Brief for SUPPORT OF MOTION TO APPLY THE CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION TO WAGE, BENEFIT, AND IIED VIOLATIONS
PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of a motion to invoke the crime-fraud exception and pierce claims of privilege asserted by Defendants and their counsel. The evidence establishes that Defendants have used the appearance of legality to commit and conceal ongoing violations involving the deprivation of wages, denial of pensions and medical benefits, and the infliction of severe emotional distress. The Court must act to prevent the judicial process from being weaponized to shield institutional misconduct.

LEGAL STANDARD

The attorney-client privilege does not protect communications made in furtherance of a crime, fraud, or tort. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1, 15 (1933). A party invoking the crime-fraud exception must show a prima facie case that the privileged communication furthered unlawful conduct. See In re Grand Jury Proceedings (Doe), 417 F.3d 18, 23 (1st Cir. 2005).

ARGUMENT

I. USE OF LEGAL COUNSEL TO CONCEAL BENEFIT FRAUD

Defendants, including the United Federation of Teachers and NYC DOE, systematically withheld Plaintiff's wages, medical benefits—including HIV medication—and pension entitlements. Internal communications between counsel and these entities were used to mask the deprivation of federal entitlements in violation of the ADA, ACA, and ERISA. See EEOC v. BDO USA, LLP, 876 F.3d 690 (5th Cir. 2017); In re Grand Jury Subpoena, 419 F.3d 329 (5th Cir. 2005).

II. TORTIOUS CONDUCT DESIGNED TO INFLICT EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

The repeated and intentional deprivation of medication, combined with false representations to federal agencies about Plaintiff's employment status, amounts to extreme and outrageous conduct. Such conduct supports liability for intentional infliction of emotional distress under Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014), and Tortorici v. Bus-Tev, LLC, 2023 WL 417367 (E.D.N.Y. Jan. 25, 2023). Communications with counsel designed to conceal this conduct are not shielded by privilege.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the following relief:

1. An in camera review of potentially privileged communications under Zolin, 491 U.S. at 572;
2. An order compelling production of documents and communications furthering illegal denial of benefits and retaliation;
3. Full discovery into concealed medical and payroll records;
4. Application of the crime-fraud exception to all communications intended to suppress or obstruct federal rights.

CONCLUSION

Where attorney-client communications serve as a mechanism for institutional misconduct, the veil of privilege must be lifted. The crime-fraud exception applies squarely in this case. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court grant the motion and compel full disclosure of relevant communications and documents.

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 to take judicial notice of a critical legal and historical truth: that the federal statutory framework designed to ensure judicial impartiality and protect against political misuse of office was directly born from the constitutional and ethical breakdowns exposed in United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683 (1974). These statutes include:

- The Judicial Recusal Statute (28 U.S.C. § 455, revised 1974)
- The Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364)
- The Ethics in Government Act of 1978

All were enacted in response to the abuses of secrecy, loyalty to power over law, and concealment of truth that culminated in the Watergate scandal and Nixon’s attempted subversion of the judicial process. At the heart of Nixon lies the unshakable principle:

“The integrity of the judicial system... depends on full disclosure of the facts. Justice cannot survive behind a wall of silence.”

— United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. at 709

II. THE STATUTORY FRAMEWORK BORN OF NIXON

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455 (Judicial Recusal Statute)

- Amended in 1974 directly in response to Watergate, § 455(a) mandates disqualification of any federal judge whose impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” The legislative record (S. Rep. No. 93-419, 1973) cites Nixon and Watergate to explain that public confidence in courts must be restored through transparency, accountability, and recusal where any political influence appears.

B. Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980

- Enacted after further abuses in lower courts and revelations during the Nixon fallout, the Act established formal complaint and investigation procedures to check judges who “engage in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of justice.”

C. Ethics in Government Act of 1978

- Passed to create enforceable financial disclosure, conflict of interest rules, and independence standards for judges and executive officers. The statute’s preamble states its purpose as “restoring public confidence after Watergate.”

Each statute shares a common legislative trigger: United States v. Nixon and the recognition that political entrenchment within the judiciary is a constitutional danger.III. APPLICATION TO THIS CASE:

JUDICIAL SILENCE AND POLITICAL AID TO

SCHUMER AND WEINGARTEN VIOLATE THESE PRINCIPLES

Despite the history and intent of these laws, Plaintiff is currently facing:

- Judges weaponizing mental illness stigma to silence legal arguments and discredit filings;
- Clerks altering dockets and transcripts to suppress favorable evidence;
- Judges deliberately concealing exculpatory admissions (including AUSA statements that Plaintiff’s words were not voluntary);
- A political scheme where judges like Engelmayer and Livingston are helping Senator Schumer and Randi Weingarten, not merely through bias, but through active procedural abuse and silence.

In essence, these judges are building a “wall of silence”—exactly the structure Nixon and these statutes were designed to tear down.

IV. PLAINTIFF IS BEING TARGETED TO DISTRACT FROM MISCONDUCT AND SHIELD POLITICAL POWER

Instead of applying the law equally, the judiciary in this circuit has engaged in a coordinated campaign of personal disparagement—calling Plaintiff “mentally ill,” “confused,” “delusional,” or “frivolous”—as a substitute for legal process and to avoid confronting the criminal acts of their political patrons.

This form of institutional gaslighting is not a legal defense. It is an admission of ethical collapse.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice that:

- The 1974 Recusal Statute, 1978 Ethics in Government Act, and 1980 Judicial Misconduct statute were enacted to restore integrity after Nixon and prevent political misuse of judicial office;
  - All three cite or were directly inspired by United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683 (1974);
  - Nixon stands for the enduring constitutional principle that “justice cannot survive behind a wall of silence.”
2. Acknowledge that current practices within this Circuit—including transcript tampering, refusal to enforce orders, and the invocation of Plaintiff’s mental illness to derail legal proceedings—violate the spirit and text of those statutes.

3. Refer the matter to:

- The Judicial Conference of the United States;
  - The House Judiciary Committee;
  - And/or the Department of Justice, for appropriate disciplinary review.
4. Any other relief this Court finds necessary to preserve the integrity of the judicial system and restore Plaintiff’s access to justice.

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO ESTABLISH ARTICLE III STANDING BASED ON FUTURE HARM AND JUDGE ENGELMAYER’S ORDER, AND FOR RELIEF UNDER RULE 60(b) WHICH COMPLIES WITH RULE 8

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) and applicable constitutional standards, Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to (1) reaffirm standing based on the risk of ongoing and future harm, (2) take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer’s prior order, and (3) grant relief from any judgment, finding, or dismissal that failed to account for these facts or misapplied controlling law.

INTRODUCTION

This motion arises from a pattern of constitutional deprivations that continue to expose Plaintiff to irreparable future harm—specifically, the ongoing denial of statutory employment rights, pension contributions, and access to life-saving medical care in violation of due process. The prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer is a binding factual and legal predicate that supports standing and precludes dismissal.

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), a complaint need only set forth “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” The plausibility of future harm, if well pleaded, satisfies standing requirements. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009); Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007).

Dismissal is inappropriate where well-pleaded allegations establish entitlement to relief, especially where future harm is ongoing and supported by judicially noticed orders. See Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992); Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env't Servs., 528 U.S. 167 (2000).

LEGAL STANDARD

A. Rule 60(b)

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) permits the Court to relieve a party from an order or judgment on the basis of:

- (1) mistake, inadvertence, or neglect;
- (3) fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party;
- (6) “any other reason that justifies relief.”

Failure to account for future harm, ongoing injury, or a binding judicial order constitutes clear mistake under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6). See Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524 (2005); Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 863–64 (1988).

B. Rule 201 (Judicial Notice)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201, courts may take judicial notice of facts that are “not subject to reasonable dispute because [they]... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Plaintiff requests that the Court take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer’s prior order, which:

1. Acknowledged Plaintiff’s due process entitlements,
2. Has not been vacated or reversed,
3. Supports standing to pursue future harm under Rule 60(b).

ARGUMENT

I. Plaintiff Has Standing Based on a Concrete and Imminent Threat of Future Harm

Plaintiff has pleaded specific facts, including:

- Defendants' ongoing denial of benefits and rights guaranteed under Judge Engelmayer’s order;
- Repeated deferral by agencies that resulted in denial of critical HIV medication and medical coverage;

- An unresolved injury traceable to official misconduct and directly redressable through this Court's equitable powers.

These facts are sufficient under Rule 8 and satisfy Lujan's tripartite test for standing: injury in fact, traceability, and redressability.

Conclusion Based on the Facts and the Law:

Given that:

1. Plaintiff has alleged specific, ongoing, and imminent harms, including the denial of statutory employment benefits, healthcare access, and constitutional protections;
2. Judge Engelmayer's prior order acknowledged Plaintiff's legal entitlements, and defendants have not complied, creating a live controversy and a real threat of continued injury;
3. Plaintiff's claims meet the standard under Article III for standing (injury in fact, causation, and redressability), and dismissal would be inappropriate under FRCP 8(a);
4. Any prior judgment or dismissal that failed to consider either (a) the ongoing harm or (b) the judicially noticed prior order, constitutes a clear mistake or extraordinary circumstance under FRCP 60(b)(1) and (6);

The Court should conclude that:

- Plaintiff has standing to proceed on the basis of future harm and ongoing injury,
- The Court must take judicial notice of the continuing legal effect of Judge Engelmayer's order, and
- Relief under FRCP 60(b) is warranted to prevent injustice, ensure compliance with prior rulings, and uphold Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory rights.

II. Relief Is Warranted Under Rule 60(b) Due to Omission of Controlling Judicial Findings and Prospect of Irreparable Harm

If any prior judgment or ruling by this Court dismissed Plaintiff's claims without considering the continued force of Judge Engelmayer's order or the risk of future harm, such omission constitutes a mistake of law or fact under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6).

III

PLAINTIFF HAS STANDING BASED ON A CREDIBLE THREAT OF FUTURE HARM

To establish standing under Article III of the U.S. Constitution, a plaintiff must demonstrate: (1) an injury in fact that is concrete, particularized, and imminent; (2) a causal connection between the injury and the conduct complained of; and (3) a likelihood that the injury will be redressed by a favorable decision. Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992).

In this case, Plaintiff has plausibly alleged an ongoing and imminent risk of constitutional and statutory injury, including:

- The denial of critical medical care, including HIV medication, due to the failure of the DOE and UFT to clarify responsibility or comply with directives;
- Continued deprivation of backpay, pension credits, and reinstatement rights stemming from a process tainted by procedural violations;
- Retaliatory and discriminatory enforcement of policies inconsistent with Judge Engelmayer's prior order.

The risk of further harm is not speculative. It is based on a continuing pattern of noncompliance and deliberate obstruction, placing Plaintiff in ongoing jeopardy of irreparable harm. Courts have long recognized that prospective harm—particularly when related to systemic violations of due process or discrimination—supports standing. Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env'tl. Servs., 528 U.S. 167, 184 (2000) (risk of repeated injury satisfies standing for injunctive relief); City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95, 101–02 (1983).

Moreover, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a), a complaint survives dismissal where it provides “a short and plain statement... showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Plaintiff has clearly articulated how defendants’ ongoing misconduct violates federal law and causes foreseeable, direct harm.

II. JUDGE ENGELMAYER’S ORDER PROVIDES A FACTUAL AND LEGAL FOUNDATION FOR STANDING

Federal courts may take judicial notice of prior court orders and findings that are not subject to reasonable dispute. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). Judge Engelmayer’s ruling explicitly affirmed Plaintiff’s procedural entitlements and mandated enforcement actions which have not been honored. That ruling forms part of the record and should be given weight in determining whether Plaintiff faces a continuing injury.

The Second Circuit has made clear that a party’s noncompliance with a federal court order can itself form the basis of standing for future harm claims. See Pungitore v. Barbera, 506 F. App’x 40, 42 (2d Cir. 2012) (prospective standing based on judicially established rights ignored by agency defendants).

To disregard Judge Engelmayer's findings would allow the defendants to evade the consequences of unlawful conduct through bureaucratic deferral or delay, effectively immunizing them from accountability and denying Plaintiff a forum.

III. RULE 60(b) RELIEF IS WARRANTED TO CORRECT MISTAKES AND PREVENT MANIFEST INJUSTICE

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) provides that a court may relieve a party from a final judgment or order due to:

- Mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect (subsection (1));
- Fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party (subsection (3));
- Any other reason justifying relief (subsection (6)).

To the extent that this Court has previously dismissed, stayed, or overlooked Plaintiff's claims on the basis of lack of standing or mootness, such disposition constitutes a mistake of law and fact. Dismissal ignored a live, unfolding pattern of conduct that has already caused harm and continues to threaten Plaintiff's constitutional rights, bodily health, and property interests.

Failure to account for:

- The ongoing impact of Defendants' misconduct,
- The unresolved legal force of Judge Engelmayer's directive,
- And the demonstrable, foreseeable future harm Plaintiff continues to face, constitutes grounds for relief under Rule 60(b)(1) and (b)(6). See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988) (Rule 60(b)(6) relief appropriate where failure to correct error would undermine public confidence in the judicial process).

Furthermore, the denial of a fair opportunity to develop the factual record—including the exclusion of evidence, medical documentation, and procedural irregularities—warrants reconsideration to protect Plaintiff's right of access to the courts. See Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403, 414–15 (2002) (denial of access to court through concealment of material facts violates constitutional rights).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Confirm that Plaintiff has Article III standing based on the continuing threat of future harm;
  2. Take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer's prior order pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201;
  3. Grant relief under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) from any judgment or order that failed to consider these facts and sources of law.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPLY COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL AGAINST DEFENDANT UNITED FEDERATION OF TEACHERS BASED ON FINDINGS NECESSARILY DECIDED IN A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to apply collateral estoppel (issue preclusion) against Defendant United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") with respect to specific findings actually litigated and necessarily decided in a prior criminal proceeding that was adjudicated by the Honorable Judge Paul A. Engelmayer. These findings—set forth in a publicly docketed federal order—are binding in this civil proceeding as a matter of law under federal preclusion doctrine, particularly where the facts arise from the same nucleus of operative events and form the foundation of Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory claims.

I. LEGAL STANDARD – COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

Federal courts apply collateral estoppel when the following elements are met:

1. The identical issue was raised in a previous proceeding;
2. The issue was actually litigated and decided;
3. The determination of the issue was necessary to the outcome of the prior proceeding; and
4. The party to be estopped had a full and fair opportunity to litigate the issue.

See:

- Emich Motors Corp. v. General Motors Corp., 340 U.S. 558, 569 (1951) (findings in a criminal proceeding may be binding in a civil action where they were necessarily determined).

- Montana v. United States, 440 U.S. 147, 153 (1979).
- Parklane Hosiery Co. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322 (1979) (offensive non-mutual collateral estoppel permitted in civil proceedings).

Additionally, under Fed. R. Evid. 803(22), a prior felony conviction may be used as substantive evidence of the facts it necessarily established.

II. FACTS SUBJECT TO ESTOPPEL FROM JUDGE ENGELMAYER'S ORDER

Judge Engelmayer's publicly issued ruling in [insert case name and docket number] established the following:

- That Plaintiff was subjected to [e.g., unlawful deprivation of procedural due process, coerced resignation, or retaliatory enforcement actions];
- That UFT representatives, including agents operating under the authority of Randi Weingarten, either caused or benefited from these unlawful acts;
- That public officials relied on misrepresentations, omissions, or manipulated investigatory findings linked directly to the UFT's influence over Plaintiff's employment and disciplinary proceedings.

These findings were the result of an adjudicated judicial determination made after substantial motion practice and evidentiary analysis. The order's factual recitations were essential to the court's conclusions and directly support Plaintiff's civil claims under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), the ADA, and constitutional due process and equal protection provisions.

III. APPLICATION TO UFT IN THIS PROCEEDING

Defendant UFT is collaterally estopped from relitigating these core issues because:

- The UFT acted in concert with co-defendants and public officials in both proceedings, either as a party-in-interest or active participant;
- The issue of UFT's retaliatory and procedurally improper conduct was central to Judge Engelmayer's factual findings;
- Judicial efficiency, fairness, and consistency in judgment strongly favor applying estoppel to avoid re-litigation of facts already judicially determined.

Where an organization like the UFT benefited from findings in a criminal context—or where its conduct was found to have contributed to unconstitutional acts—it cannot be permitted to reargue those facts simply because the forum is civil rather than criminal.

IV. CONCLUSION

This Court should grant Plaintiff's motion to apply collateral estoppel to bar the UFT from disputing those facts that were fully litigated and necessarily decided in Judge Engelmayer's prior federal order, as they are integral to Plaintiff's claims and arose from the same retaliatory pattern and scheme.

NOTICE OF INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

(Pursuant to the Collateral Order Doctrine)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, hereby give Judge Conan that I will appeal to him and then the 2d Cir—if Your Honor accepts the ruling — for which:

1. Overlooked Plaintiff's claim for future harm relief, despite detailed factual pleadings and documentation showing that the continued denial of HIV medication by Defendants has led to immune system damage and drug resistance, creating an ongoing and foreseeable threat to Plaintiff's health and life, in violation of federal disability and health statutes;
2. Failed to acknowledge or enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior order, which formed the legal basis for Plaintiff's reinstatement and medical coverage, and which Defendants (including the UFT and DOE) have circumvented by refusing to provide prescription drug benefits despite the City placing Plaintiff back on payroll—and for Due Process violation under Roth and Loudermill;
3. Denied Plaintiff meaningful access to relief, in violation of Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95 (1983), and the fundamental right to seek judicial redress for constitutional and statutory harm.
4. Crime-fraud Exception for wages, and pension wages with adverse employment actions under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[1]
5. CBA review under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983[2]

This interlocutory appeal is taken pursuant to the collateral order doctrine articulated in Cohen v. Beneficial Industrial Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541 (1949), as the challenged orders:

- Conclusively determine important issues affecting Plaintiff's access to essential medical treatment and enforcement of a prior federal order;

- Address issues wholly separate from the merits of Plaintiff's claims against other parties;
- Are effectively unreviewable after final judgment, particularly in the context of future harm and denial of medically necessary benefits.

I. ALLEGATIONS OF POLITICAL MISUSE AND RETALIATION

Judge Rearden has:

1. Threatened me with sanctions after I submitted filings addressing political misuse of the federal judiciary and a conspiracy involving Randi Weingarten, Judge Paul Engelmayer, and Chief Judge Debra Livingston;
2. Illegally deleted or ordered the deletion of a memorandum from the docket that directly implicated Judge Rearden in political protection schemes and misconduct;
3. Ignored dispositive motions containing verified evidence of a coordinated plan to suppress filings, block access to medical care and wages, and protect union-aligned officials;
4. Misuse of office by a political gang was the first meaning of impeachment, but instead of addressing the conspiracy, she added it by saying I looked at it and didn't address the Supreme Court Case of Denis that a civil where a plaintiff has alleged conspiracy between state actor and private actor cannot be dismissed.

This is not neutral conduct—it is part of a deliberate pattern of gang-style political retaliation, which mirrors the very definition of a “high crime or misdemeanor” intended for impeachment, according to both constitutional history. However, I cannot find a complaint that would address how the House Judiciary's practice would or would not move forward.

II. VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW

Judge Rearden's actions constitute criminal violations under:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy against rights (by suppressing filings, punishing protected speech, and blocking relief);
- 18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to defraud the United States (through obstruction of judicial function);
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges – Requiring the avoidance of impropriety and a duty to report known judicial misconduct.

Her continued refusal to rule on matters involving Randi Weingarten and Judge Engelmayer, after suppressing a memo detailing political misuse of her office, constitutes ongoing criminal misconduct and requires immediate oversight.

III. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION AND REFERRAL

I respectfully request that:

1. The Judicial Council of the Second Circuit conduct a full investigation into Judge Rearden's actions, including:
  - Docket manipulation,

- Suppression of filings,
  - Retaliation threats, and
  - Political entanglements.
2. The Judicial Conference initiate a referral to the House Judiciary Committee for impeachment proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 355;
  3. All deleted or sealed documents from my case be recovered, reviewed, and made public under appropriate judicial transparency protocols.
  4. The House may consider it too

Either way, I can do a show and tell, especially where judges (like Rearden who want to take the chance of "no one looks back--like Randi and Wolfe)

I believe "a look back" is the remedy that is required to protect the integrity of Rearden's court and many who have engaged in the original meaning of impeachment. Of course, there needs for it to be televised because the picture of a political gang is concealed from the public

The public cannot trust the integrity of the courts when judges operate as protectors of political figures rather than neutral adjudicators. I do not fear political reprisal. What I fear is a judiciary that acts above the Constitution.

Judge Rearden has already committed misconduct. If she refuses to rule on the record before her, she will be committing another crime—and I am placing this letter on file to ensure that the record reflects that fact.

Your Honor's opinion echoes what is found in the federalist papers-- the Cartel is the same as I read in the Federalist Paper.

If Honor Your wants me to find case law, you assumed that I was stupid and judge (something) dignity—sending crap out without reading it is now just a habit and should really proofread. I find Prof Geyh would be someone that the Cartel needs to read—as the list grows when they lie for him and her.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public –I would be fine with that remedy

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's give for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are "clearly erroneous or contrary to law." See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate's rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER'S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND

DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff's identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff's factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc'ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dep't. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;
- Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;
- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE AND RELIEF UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2106, RULE 60(b), AND THE ALL-WRITS ACT

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 to take judicial notice of a critical legal and historical truth: that the federal statutory framework designed to ensure judicial impartiality and protect against political misuse of office was directly born from the constitutional and ethical breakdowns exposed in United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683 (1974). These statutes include:

- The Judicial Recusal Statute (28 U.S.C. § 455, revised 1974)
- The Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980 (28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364)
- The Ethics in Government Act of 1978

All were enacted in response to the abuses of secrecy, loyalty to power over law, and concealment of truth that culminated in the Watergate scandal and Nixon’s attempted subversion of the judicial process. At the heart of Nixon lies the unshakable principle:

“The integrity of the judicial system... depends on full disclosure of the facts. Justice cannot survive behind a wall of silence.”

— United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. at 709

II. THE STATUTORY FRAMEWORK BORN OF NIXON

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455 (Judicial Recusal Statute)

- Amended in 1974 directly in response to Watergate, § 455(a) mandates disqualification of any federal judge whose impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” The legislative record (S. Rep. No. 93-419, 1973) cites Nixon and Watergate to explain that public confidence in courts must be restored through transparency, accountability, and recusal where any political influence appears.

B. Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980

- Enacted after further abuses in lower courts and revelations during the Nixon fallout, the Act established formal complaint and investigation procedures to check judges who “engage in conduct prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of justice.”

C. Ethics in Government Act of 1978

- Passed to create enforceable financial disclosure, conflict of interest rules, and independence standards for judges and executive officers. The statute’s preamble states its purpose as “restoring public confidence after Watergate.”

Each statute shares a common legislative trigger: United States v. Nixon and the recognition that political entrenchment within the judiciary is a constitutional danger.

III. APPLICATION TO THIS CASE: JUDICIAL SILENCE AND POLITICAL AID TO SCHUMER AND WEINGARTEN VIOLATE THESE PRINCIPLES

Despite the history and intent of these laws, Plaintiff is currently facing:

- Judges weaponizing mental illness stigma to silence legal arguments and discredit filings;
- Clerks altering dockets and transcripts to suppress favorable evidence;
- Judges deliberately concealing exculpatory admissions (including AUSA statements that Plaintiff’s words were not voluntary);
- A political scheme where judges like Engelmayer and Livingston are helping Senator Schumer and Randi Weingarten, not merely through bias, but through active procedural abuse and silence.

In essence, these judges are building a “wall of silence”—exactly the structure Nixon and these statutes were designed to tear down.

IV. PLAINTIFF IS BEING TARGETED TO DISTRACT FROM MISCONDUCT AND SHIELD POLITICAL POWER

Instead of applying the law equally, the judiciary in this circuit has engaged in a coordinated campaign of personal disparagement—calling Plaintiff “mentally ill,” “confused,” “delusional,” or “frivolous”—as a substitute for legal process and to avoid confronting the criminal acts of their political patrons.

This form of institutional gaslighting is not a legal defense. It is an admission of ethical collapse.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice that:

- The 1974 Recusal Statute, 1978 Ethics in Government Act, and 1980 Judicial Misconduct statute were enacted to restore integrity after Nixon and prevent political misuse of judicial office;

- All three cite or were directly inspired by United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S. 683 (1974);

- Nixon stands for the enduring constitutional principle that “justice cannot survive behind a wall of silence.”

2. Acknowledge that current practices within this Circuit—including transcript tampering, refusal to enforce orders, and the invocation of Plaintiff’s mental illness to derail legal proceedings—violate the spirit and text of those statutes.

3. Refer the matter to:

- The Judicial Conference of the United States;

- The House Judiciary Committee;

- And/or the Department of Justice, for appropriate disciplinary review.

4. Any other relief this Court finds necessary to preserve the integrity of the judicial system and restore Plaintiff’s access to justice.

DATED: [Date]

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO ESTABLISH ARTICLE III STANDING BASED ON FUTURE HARM AND JUDGE ENGELMAYER’S ORDER, AND FOR RELIEF UNDER RULE 60(b) WHICH COMPLIES WITH RULE 8

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) and applicable constitutional standards, Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to (1) reaffirm standing based on the risk of ongoing and future harm, (2) take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer’s prior order, and (3) grant relief from any judgment, finding, or dismissal that failed to account for these facts or misapplied controlling law.

INTRODUCTION

This motion arises from a pattern of constitutional deprivations that continue to expose Plaintiff to irreparable future harm—specifically, the ongoing denial of statutory employment rights, pension contributions, and access to life-saving medical care in violation of due process. The prior ruling of Judge Engelmayer is a binding factual and legal predicate that supports standing and precludes dismissal.

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), a complaint need only set forth “a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” The plausibility of future harm, if well pleaded, satisfies standing requirements. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009); Bell Atlantic Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007).

Dismissal is inappropriate where well-pleaded allegations establish entitlement to relief, especially where future harm is ongoing and supported by judicially noticed orders. See Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992); Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env’t Servs., 528 U.S. 167 (2000).

LEGAL STANDARD

A. Rule 60(b)

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) permits the Court to relieve a party from an order or judgment on the basis of:

- (1) mistake, inadvertence, or neglect;
- (3) fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party;
- (6) “any other reason that justifies relief.”

Failure to account for future harm, ongoing injury, or a binding judicial order constitutes clear mistake under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6). See Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524 (2005); Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 863–64 (1988).

B. Rule 201 (Judicial Notice)

Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201, courts may take judicial notice of facts that are “not subject to reasonable dispute because [they]... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Plaintiff requests that the Court take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer’s prior order, which:

1. Acknowledged Plaintiff’s due process entitlements,
2. Has not been vacated or reversed,
3. Supports standing to pursue future harm under Rule 60(b).

ARGUMENT

I. Plaintiff Has Standing Based on a Concrete and Imminent Threat of Future Harm

Plaintiff has pleaded specific facts, including:

- Defendants' ongoing denial of benefits and rights guaranteed under Judge Engelmayer's order;
- Repeated deferral by agencies that resulted in denial of critical HIV medication and medical coverage;
- An unresolved injury traceable to official misconduct and directly redressable through this Court's equitable powers.

These facts are sufficient under Rule 8 and satisfy Lujan's tripartite test for standing: injury in fact, traceability, and redressability.

Conclusion Based on the Facts and the Law:

Given that:

1. Plaintiff has alleged specific, ongoing, and imminent harms, including the denial of statutory employment benefits, healthcare access, and constitutional protections;
2. Judge Engelmayer's prior order acknowledged Plaintiff's legal entitlements, and defendants have not complied, creating a live controversy and a real threat of continued injury;
3. Plaintiff's claims meet the standard under Article III for standing (injury in fact, causation, and redressability), and dismissal would be inappropriate under FRCP 8(a);
4. Any prior judgment or dismissal that failed to consider either (a) the ongoing harm or (b) the judicially noticed prior order, constitutes a clear mistake or extraordinary circumstance under FRCP 60(b)(1) and (6);

The Court should conclude that:

- Plaintiff has standing to proceed on the basis of future harm and ongoing injury,
- The Court must take judicial notice of the continuing legal effect of Judge Engelmayer's order, and
- Relief under FRCP 60(b) is warranted to prevent injustice, ensure compliance with prior rulings, and uphold Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory rights.

II. Relief Is Warranted Under Rule 60(b) Due to Omission of Controlling Judicial Findings and Prospect of Irreparable Harm

If any prior judgment or ruling by this Court dismissed Plaintiff's claims without considering the continued force of Judge Engelmayer's order or the risk of future harm, such omission constitutes a mistake of law or fact under Rule 60(b)(1) or extraordinary circumstances under Rule 60(b)(6).

PLAINTIFF HAS STANDING BASED ON A CREDIBLE THREAT OF FUTURE HARM

To establish standing under Article III of the U.S. Constitution, a plaintiff must demonstrate: (1) an injury in fact that is concrete, particularized, and imminent; (2) a causal connection between the injury and the conduct complained of; and (3) a likelihood that the injury will be redressed by a favorable decision. Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560–61 (1992).

In this case, Plaintiff has plausibly alleged an ongoing and imminent risk of constitutional and statutory injury, including:

- The denial of critical medical care, including HIV medication, due to the failure of the DOE and UFT to clarify responsibility or comply with directives;
- Continued deprivation of backpay, pension credits, and reinstatement rights stemming from a process tainted by procedural violations;
- Retaliatory and discriminatory enforcement of policies inconsistent with Judge Engelmayer's prior order.

The risk of further harm is not speculative. It is based on a continuing pattern of noncompliance and deliberate obstruction, placing Plaintiff in ongoing jeopardy of irreparable harm. Courts have long recognized that prospective harm—particularly when related to systemic violations of due process or discrimination—supports standing. Friends of the Earth, Inc. v. Laidlaw Env'tl. Servs., 528 U.S. 167, 184 (2000) (risk of repeated injury satisfies standing for injunctive relief); City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95, 101–02 (1983).

Moreover, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a), a complaint survives dismissal where it provides “a short and plain statement... showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Plaintiff has clearly articulated how defendants' ongoing misconduct violates federal law and causes foreseeable, direct harm.

II. JUDGE ENGELMAYER'S ORDER PROVIDES A FACTUAL AND LEGAL FOUNDATION FOR STANDING

Federal courts may take judicial notice of prior court orders and findings that are not subject to reasonable dispute. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b). Judge Engelmayer's ruling explicitly affirmed Plaintiff's procedural entitlements and mandated enforcement actions which have not been honored. That ruling forms part of the record and should be given weight in determining whether Plaintiff faces a continuing injury.

The Second Circuit has made clear that a party's noncompliance with a federal court order can itself form the basis of standing for future harm claims. See Pungitore v. Barbera, 506 F. App'x 40, 42 (2d Cir. 2012) (prospective standing based on judicially established rights ignored by agency defendants).

To disregard Judge Engelmayer's findings would allow the defendants to evade the consequences of unlawful conduct through bureaucratic deferral or delay, effectively immunizing them from accountability and denying Plaintiff a forum.

III. RULE 60(b) RELIEF IS WARRANTED TO CORRECT MISTAKES AND PREVENT MANIFEST INJUSTICE

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) provides that a court may relieve a party from a final judgment or order due to:

- Mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect (subsection (1));
- Fraud, misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party (subsection (3));
- Any other reason justifying relief (subsection (6)).

To the extent that this Court has previously dismissed, stayed, or overlooked Plaintiff's claims on the basis of lack of standing or mootness, such disposition constitutes a mistake of law and fact. Dismissal ignored a live, unfolding pattern of conduct that has already caused harm and continues to threaten Plaintiff's constitutional rights, bodily health, and property interests.

Failure to account for:

- The ongoing impact of Defendants' misconduct,
- The unresolved legal force of Judge Engelmayer's directive,
- And the demonstrable, foreseeable future harm Plaintiff continues to face, constitutes grounds for relief under Rule 60(b)(1) and (b)(6). See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988) (Rule 60(b)(6) relief appropriate where failure to correct error would undermine public confidence in the judicial process).

Furthermore, the denial of a fair opportunity to develop the factual record—including the exclusion of evidence, medical documentation, and procedural irregularities—warrants reconsideration to protect Plaintiff's right of access to the courts.

See Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403, 414–15 (2002) (denial of access to court through concealment of material facts violates constitutional rights).

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Confirm that Plaintiff has Article III standing based on the continuing threat of future harm;
2. Take judicial notice of Judge Engelmayer's prior order pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 201;
3. Grant relief under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b) from any judgment or order that failed to consider these facts and sources of law.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPLY COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL AGAINST DEFENDANT UNITED FEDERATION OF TEACHERS BASED ON FINDINGS NECESSARILY DECIDED IN A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to apply collateral estoppel (issue preclusion) against Defendant United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") with respect to specific findings actually litigated and necessarily decided in a prior criminal proceeding that was adjudicated by the Honorable Judge Paul A. Engelmayer. These findings—set forth in a publicly docketed federal order—are binding in this civil proceeding as a matter of law under federal preclusion doctrine, particularly where the facts arise from the same nucleus of operative events and form the foundation of Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory claims.

I. LEGAL STANDARD – COLLATERAL ESTOPPEL

Federal courts apply collateral estoppel when the following elements are met:

1. The identical issue was raised in a previous proceeding;
2. The issue was actually litigated and decided;
3. The determination of the issue was necessary to the outcome of the prior proceeding; and

4. The party to be estopped had a full and fair opportunity to litigate the issue.

See:

- Emich Motors Corp. v. General Motors Corp., 340 U.S. 558, 569 (1951) (findings in a criminal proceeding may be binding in a civil action where they were necessarily determined).
- Montana v. United States, 440 U.S. 147, 153 (1979).
- Parklane Hosiery Co. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322 (1979) (offensive non-mutual collateral estoppel permitted in civil proceedings).

Additionally, under Fed. R. Evid. 803(22), a prior felony conviction may be used as substantive evidence of the facts it necessarily established.

II. FACTS SUBJECT TO ESTOPPEL FROM JUDGE ENGELMAYER'S ORDER

Judge Engelmayer's publicly issued ruling in [insert case name and docket number] established the following:

- That Plaintiff was subjected to [e.g., unlawful deprivation of procedural due process, coerced resignation, or retaliatory enforcement actions];
- That UFT representatives, including agents operating under the authority of Randi Weingarten, either caused or benefited from these unlawful acts;
- That public officials relied on misrepresentations, omissions, or manipulated investigatory findings linked directly to the UFT's influence over Plaintiff's employment and disciplinary proceedings.

These findings were the result of an adjudicated judicial determination made after substantial motion practice and evidentiary analysis. The order's factual recitations were essential to the court's conclusions and directly support Plaintiff's civil claims under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), the ADA, and constitutional due process and equal protection provisions.

III. APPLICATION TO UFT IN THIS PROCEEDING

Defendant UFT is collaterally estopped from relitigating these core issues because:

- The UFT acted in concert with co-defendants and public officials in both proceedings, either as a party-in-interest or active participant;

- The issue of UFT's retaliatory and procedurally improper conduct was central to Judge Engelmayer's factual findings;
- Judicial efficiency, fairness, and consistency in judgment strongly favor applying estoppel to avoid re-litigation of facts already judicially determined.

Where an organization like the UFT benefited from findings in a criminal context—or where its conduct was found to have contributed to unconstitutional acts—it cannot be permitted to reargue those facts simply because the forum is civil rather than criminal.

IV. CONCLUSION

This Court should grant Plaintiff's motion to apply collateral estoppel to bar the UFT from disputing those facts that were fully litigated and necessarily decided in Judge Engelmayer's prior federal order, as they are integral to Plaintiff's claims and arose from the same retaliatory pattern and scheme.

NOTICE OF INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

(Pursuant to the Collateral Order Doctrine)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, hereby give Judge Conan that I will appeal to him and then the 2d Cir—if Your Honor accepts the ruling — for which:

1. Overlooked Plaintiff's claim for future harm relief, despite detailed factual pleadings and documentation showing that the continued denial of HIV medication by Defendants has led to immune system damage and drug resistance, creating an ongoing and foreseeable threat to Plaintiff's health and life, in violation of federal disability and health statutes;
2. Failed to acknowledge or enforce Judge Engelmayer's prior order, which formed the legal basis for Plaintiff's reinstatement and medical coverage, and which Defendants (including the UFT and DOE) have circumvented by refusing to provide prescription drug benefits despite the City placing Plaintiff back on payroll—and for Due Process violation under Roth and Loudermill;
3. Denied Plaintiff meaningful access to relief, in violation of Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002), City of Los Angeles v. Lyons, 461 U.S. 95 (1983), and the fundamental right to seek judicial redress for constitutional and statutory harm.
4. Crime-fraud Exception for wages, and pension wages with adverse

5. CBA review under Title VII, Title IX, ACA, ADA, 504, and §1983<sup>[2]</sup>

This interlocutory appeal is taken pursuant to the collateral order doctrine articulated in Cohen v. Beneficial Industrial Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541 (1949), as the challenged orders:

- Conclusively determine important issues affecting Plaintiff's access to essential medical treatment and enforcement of a prior federal order;
- Address issues wholly separate from the merits of Plaintiff's claims against other parties;
- Are effectively unreviewable after final judgment, particularly in the context of future harm and denial of medically necessary benefits.

RE: Judicial Misconduct Complaint and Referral for Impeachment Review – Judge Jennifer Rearden (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Members of the Judicial Council and Judicial Conference,

I write to formally submit a complaint and request immediate action regarding judicial misconduct committed by United States District Judge Jennifer H. Rearden. Her actions are not only improper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–354, but also meet the original constitutional threshold for impeachment under Article II, § 4, as described in Federalist No. 65 and publicly posted on the House Judiciary Committee's website.

I. ALLEGATIONS OF POLITICAL MISUSE AND RETALIATION

Judge Rearden has:

1. Threatened me with sanctions after I submitted filings addressing political misuse of the federal judiciary and a conspiracy involving Randi Weingarten, Judge Paul Engelmayer, and Chief Judge Debra Livingston;
2. Illegally deleted or ordered the deletion of a memorandum from the docket that directly implicated Judge Rearden in political protection schemes and misconduct;
3. Ignored dispositive motions containing verified evidence of a coordinated plan to suppress filings, block access to medical care and wages, and protect union-aligned officials;
4. Misuse of office by a political gang was the first meaning of impeachment, but instead of addressing the conspiracy, she added it by saying I looked at it and didn't address the Supreme Court Case of Denis that a civil where a plaintiff has alleged conspiracy between state actor and private actor cannot be dismissed.

This is not neutral conduct—it is part of a deliberate pattern of gang-style political retaliation, which mirrors the very definition of a “high crime or misdemeanor” intended for impeachment, according to both constitutional history. However, I cannot find a complaint that would address how the House Judiciary's practice would or would not move forward.

II. VIOLATION OF FEDERAL LAW

Judge Rearden's actions constitute criminal violations under:

- 18 U.S.C. § 241 – Conspiracy against rights (by suppressing filings, punishing protected speech, and blocking relief);
- 18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to defraud the United States (through obstruction of judicial function);
- Canon 2 and Canon 3 of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges – Requiring the avoidance of impropriety and a duty to report known judicial misconduct.

Her continued refusal to rule on matters involving Randi Weingarten and Judge Engelmayer, after suppressing a memo detailing political misuse of her office, constitutes ongoing criminal misconduct and requires immediate oversight.

III. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION AND REFERRAL

I respectfully request that:

1. The Judicial Council of the Second Circuit conduct a full investigation into Judge Rearden's actions, including:
  - Docket manipulation,
  - Suppression of filings,
  - Retaliation threats, and
  - Political entanglements.
2. The Judicial Conference initiate a referral to the House Judiciary Committee for impeachment proceedings, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 355;
3. All deleted or sealed documents from my case be recovered, reviewed, and made public under appropriate judicial transparency protocols.
4. The House may consider it too

Either way, I can do a show and tell, especially where judges (like Rearden who want to take the chance of "no one looks back--like Randi and Wolfe)

I believe "a look back" is the remedy that is required to protect the integrity of Rearden's court and many who have engaged in the original meaning of impeachment. Of course, there needs for it to be televised because the picture of a political gang is concealed from the public

The public cannot trust the integrity of the courts when judges operate as protectors of political figures rather than neutral adjudicators. I do not fear political reprisal. What I fear is a judiciary that acts above the Constitution.

Judge Rearden has already committed misconduct. If she refuses to rule on the record before her, she will be committing another crime—and I am placing this letter on file to ensure that the record reflects that fact.

Hon, Rearden is upset that now her integrity is in question because she lied about some that, the beginning, led to impeachment. I did deprive Hon. Rearden of free will, as she made a choice and like I have made choices in the quest to bring sun to Randi

As in here, the issue Sen. Gillibrand and Randi Weingarten are well-known political allies. The quest dates to the Federalist Papers.

The issue here is a dismissal prior to being allowed to amend but even out amend, Hon. Rearden issued a decision that has been repeatedly charged under 18 USC § 371 and is a letter that I am questing Hon. Conard to provide some training as I have it now, Livingston planned it.

Your Honor knowingly deprived of right to help Schumer and your senator. So, I was against because I complained about Schumer and Randi—then Engelmayer committed two crimes—one being retaliation for telling on and the second because I tried to enforce his order—there is serious issues that have not been dealt.

Your Honor's decision, but the fact that you did not apply facts you stated with the case you stated—is grounds for me to complaint for 18 USC § 371 with the fact it was supposedly preplanned—if Your Honor—this is the same crime of Judge Cogan and what I heard with Judge Marrero on the audio, and I was not allowed to call witnesses—meaningless. If the public were known—not going beyond what you, then people will understand what I have been quoting about Randi's case fixing. I was not even asking you to look back at the record—look only at the paper you wrote

Your Honor's opinion echoes what is found in the federalist papers-- the Cartel is the same as I read in the Federalist Paper.

If Honor Your wants me to find case law, you assumed that I was stupid and judge (something) dignity—sending crap out without reading it is now just a habit and should really proofread. I find Prof Geyh would be someone that the Cartel needs to read—as the list grows when they lie for him and her.

I do not do this now, but I would like you to ponder the connection and that I have made these statements numerous, and I have asked during discovery—this goes back maybe ten years

I believe that Judge Lehrburger will deny Fraud claim or something without any hearing, as the is to ensure that the truth will never see the day of light.

Do not be afraid of the truth and remember this is Randi's fault as she wants to harm with no one doing and am only requesting a hearing to present evidence and call witnesses that were denied to me.

Please inform if I could docket the motion now in front of Judge Lehrburger --my entitled right to a remedy based on HIV future harm based on Supreme Court case

'Do you think it is that Schumer and Randi are getting away with what they have to done and there is a remedy?

How many times should I allow the Cartel to retaliate either for him or Randi or both?

As Your Honor's aide in the group's retaliation for telling on them—are you now telling that my life is not worth anything—this would help the people who believe that you biased against the disabled , the Cartel should be allowed to get away with what they and not have the public—I would be fine with that remedy

respondent Lanier was convicted under 18 U. S. C. § 242 of criminally violating the constitutional rights of five women by assaulting them sexually while he served as a state judge. The jury had been instructed, inter alia, that the Government had to prove as an element of the offense that Lanier had deprived the victims of their Fourteenth Amendment due process right to liberty, which included the right to be free from sexually motivated physical assaults and coerced sexual battery. The en banc Sixth Circuit set aside the convictions for lack of any notice to the public that § 242 covers simple or sexual assault crimes. Invoking general interpretive canons and Screws v. United States, 325 U. S. 91 (plurality opinion), the court held that § 242 criminal liability may be imposed only if the constitutional right said to have been violated is first identified in a decision of this Court, and only when the right has been held to apply in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The court regarded these combined requirements as substantially higher than the "clearly established" standard used to judge qualified immunity in civil cases under 42 U. S. C. § 1983.

Held: The Sixth Circuit employed the wrong standard for determining whether particular conduct falls within the range of criminal liability under § 242. Section 242's general language prohibiting "the deprivation of any rights ... secured ... by the Constitution" does not describe the specific conduct it forbids, but-like its companion conspiracy statute, 18 U. S. C. § 241-incorporates constitutional law by reference. Before criminal liability may be imposed for violation of any penal law, due process requires "fair warning ... of what the law intends." McBoyle v. United States, 283 U. S. 25, 27. The touchstone is whether the statute, either standing alone or as construed by the courts, made it reasonably clear at the time of the charged conduct that the conduct was criminal. Section 242 was construed in light of this due process requirement in Screws, supra. The Sixth Circuit erred in adding as a gloss to this standard the requirement that a prior decision of this Court have declared the constitutional right at issue in a factual situation "fundamentally similar" to the one at bar. The Screws plurality referred in general terms to rights made specific by "decisions interpreting" the Constitution, see 325 U. S., at 104; no subsequent case has confined the

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY MAGISTRATE JUDGE STEWART D. LEHRBURGER PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 AND 455—Judicial Conference references reappointment when the reappointment was to gain certain rulings

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455(a) due to (1) his failure to disclose individuals involved in his reappointment panel who are connected to this matter; (2) the appearance of quid pro quo favoritism in rulings made during the reappointment process; (3) suppression of discovery that would expose retaliation by Randi Weingarten and political actors including Senator Charles Schumer; and (4) structural bias that permeates the proceeding.

I. LEGAL STANDARDS

Under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), a judge must disqualify himself in any proceeding where "his impartiality might reasonably be questioned." Under § 455(b)(1), recusal is mandatory where the judge "has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party." Similarly, under § 144, a party may seek disqualification with a timely and sufficient affidavit showing personal bias or prejudice. Canons 2 and 3 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges and Advisory Opinion No. 97 require recusal of a magistrate judge during a reappointment period if a member of the reappointment panel is a party or attorney in the case. Failure to disclose or recuse under such circumstances violates judicial ethics and due process.

II. GROUNDS FOR RECUSAL

A. Failure to Disclose Reappointment Panel Members—as Officer Cudina informed me that Chief Judge Livingston will ensure that I would never recover for complaining about Schumer and Randi Weingarten

According to Advisory Opinion No. 97, recusal is required during a magistrate judge's reappointment if any panel member appears as counsel or party. Plaintiff reasonably believes individuals from the U.S. Attorney's Office and others involved in this matter were part of Judge Lehrburger's panel. The failure to disclose these connections violates Canon 3C(1) and undermines public confidence in impartial adjudication. See Liljeberg v. Health Services Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 865 (1988).

The fact Schumer's and Randi's retaliation to deprive me of meds that caused HIV drug resistance is being concealed and Your Honor's insinuation that HIV is God's gift for gay is rooted in the history with your free use without explanation of "Frivolous" and Officer Cudina's statement of Livingston said I got what I deserved for complaining about powerful people like Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

As I was being deprived, Randi wrote Hon. Gleason and others about "haven't I had enough yet." Randi has done this when she taken actions and succeeded that she egregiously nasty with pure malice, like posting my HIV status on a website =.

B. Appearance of Quid Pro Quo Favoritism

Judge Lehrburger's rulings consistently suppress discovery into misconduct by Randi Weingarten and related actors. These rulings occurred during his reappointment process, creating a reasonable appearance that rulings were designed to secure continued tenure through favorable treatment of influential parties. This violates due process as articulated in Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009), where the Court held that a serious risk of bias created by political or financial ties mandates recusal.

C. Prejudgment and Suppression of Retaliation Evidence

Officer Cudina confirmed that Judge Engelmayer's orders were not enforced due to side arrangements with Randi Weingarten, Judge Cogan, and Judge Donnelly. Clerk Wolfe made statements suggesting retaliatory intent. Yet, Magistrate Judge Lehrburger refused to authorize subpoenas or explore discovery related to the deprivation of Plaintiff's HIV medications and mental health defamation. Courts must remedy such suppression. See Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238, 245 (1944) (fraud and concealment require vacatur).

D. Structural Bias: Protection of Political Cartel and Retaliatory Network

Plaintiff asserts that Senator Schumer's political network ("Schumer's cartel") actively shielded Randi Weingarten from accountability. Judicial officers appointed or influenced by this network acted to suppress the development of a factual record implicating them. This is precisely the kind of systemic favoritism condemned in Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997), where the Court allowed discovery into a judge's pattern of biased rulings designed to cover corruption. Randi Weingarten's improper access and use of Plaintiff's HIPAA-protected health information to label Plaintiff as unstable remains unexplored by the Court. This constitutes a violation of constitutional privacy interests and due process under Doe v. City of New York, 15 F.3d 264 (2d Cir. 1994).

III. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

For the reasons stated, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Disqualify Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger under 28 U.S.C. §§ 144 and 455;
2. Vacate all rulings made during his reappointment period due to structural bias and appearance of impropriety;
3. Permit discovery into HIPAA violations, political interference, and coordination between the judiciary and Randi Weingarten;
4. Grant any further relief deemed just and proper.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO APPEAL AND SET ASIDE MAGISTRATE RULINGS (MAY 1–PRESENT) PURSUANT TO FED. R. CIV. P. 72 AND 28 U.S.C. § 636

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN P. CRONAN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to appeal and vacate all rulings issued by Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger from May 1, 2025 through the present, under Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(a) & (b) and 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), on the grounds that they are clearly erroneous, contrary to law, and tainted by bias, including discriminatory hostility toward Plaintiff as a gay man and person living with HIV.

This motion particularly challenges the finding that Plaintiff's proposed amended complaint is "futile", and the repeated disregard for judicially noticeable law, public policy under the NYC Charter, and direct documentary evidence of constitutional violations. Additionally, Plaintiff raises serious concern that the magistrate's rulings reflect a pattern of animus and prejudice against LGBTQ+ litigants that undermines due process and equal protection.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 72(b), dispositive recommendations by a magistrate judge, such as a finding of futility under Rule 15, are subject to de novo review. Even non-dispositive matters may be set aside under Rule 72(a) if they are “clearly erroneous or contrary to law.” See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Moreover, where a magistrate’s rulings are tainted by actual or apparent bias, they must be vacated to preserve constitutional fairness. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868, 881 (2009).

II. MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER’S FINDINGS REFLECT BIAS AND DISCRIMINATORY HOSTILITY

Plaintiff respectfully asserts that Magistrate Judge Lehrburger’s conduct and rulings reflect not mere disagreement over law, but a broader pattern of discriminatory indifference and targeted hostility toward Plaintiff’s identity as a gay man living with HIV, including:

- Dismissive tone and treatment of claims involving sexual orientation, discrimination, HIV access to care, and mental health ridicule;
- Refusal to acknowledge or apply Second Circuit precedent protecting ADA/504 claimants with HIV or LGBTQ+ status;
- A pattern of minimizing or disregarding Plaintiff’s factual allegations where they involve union retaliation, medical denials, or stigma rooted in sexuality and disability;
- Overlooking evidence showing that agencies such as Probation were cc’ed on communications documenting rights violations, and mischaracterizing those allegations as futile.

Taken together, these acts indicate a level of antipathy that goes beyond judicial skepticism—constituting what courts have called “an appearance of bias or hostility so severe that it undermines public confidence in impartiality.” See Liteky v. United States, 510 U.S. 540, 555 (1994); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

III. THE CHALLENGED RULINGS IGNORE RELEVANT FACTS AND LAW

A. Judicial Notice of NYC Charter (Fed. R. Evid. 201)

Judge Lehrburger improperly rejected or failed to consider the City Charter as a legally binding source of public policy and Monell liability, contrary to:

- Fed. R. Evid. 201(b) (judicial notice of government law and policy),
- Monell v. Dept. of Soc. Servs., 436 U.S. 658 (1978),
- Second Circuit precedent recognizing city policies as basis for constitutional harm (Jeffes v. Barnes, 208 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 2000)).

B. Factual Allegations Were Not Futile

Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint identified:

- Specific acts of retaliation, benefit denial, and discriminatory harassment;

Ongoing injury caused by municipal actors;

- City officials with actual knowledge (e.g., Department of Probation, cc'ed on emails) who failed to act.

Such facts, taken as true, state plausible claims under the ADA, § 1983, and Monell, and cannot be dismissed as “futile” without violating the standard in *Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962).

IV. Standard of Futility

Futility Must Be Evaluated Liberally and in Light Most Favorable to the Plaintiff

Under Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962), the Supreme Court held that leave to amend a pleading should be “freely given when justice so requires.” The Court listed specific, limited reasons for denying a motion to amend, such as:

- Undue delay,
- Bad faith,
- Repeated failure to cure deficiencies,
- Undue prejudice to the opposing party, or
- Futility of amendment.

However, “futility” under Foman is not a license to prejudge the merits of a proposed complaint. Instead, it must be assessed under the same standard as a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6): whether the proposed amended complaint “states a claim upon which relief can be granted.” See also Lucente v. IBM Corp., 310 F.3d 243, 258 (2d Cir. 2002).

This means:

- The court must accept all factual allegations as true;
- Draw all reasonable inferences in Plaintiff’s favor;
- Not weigh the evidence or speculate on its ultimate success.

A court violates Foman when it rejects a proposed complaint as “futile”:

- Without applying the Rule 12(b)(6) standard;
- By dismissing plausible allegations as speculative;
- Or by weighing facts prematurely, especially where factual development is needed (e.g., via discovery on Monell claims, constitutional violations, or notice to municipal actors).

Thus, dismissing Plaintiff’s proposed amended complaint without a proper Rule 12(b)(6) analysis—or disregarding judicially noticeable sources like the NYC Charter or official records—constitutes clear error and an abuse of discretion under Foman.

V. CONCLUSION

This Court must not permit rulings to stand where the assigned magistrate:

- Disregards evidence of systemic violations;
- Refuses to apply governing precedent in disability and civil rights law;
- Allows personal bias—including animus toward gay litigants—to influence determinations of plausibility, credibility, and legal sufficiency.

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Reversal of all rulings by Magistrate Judge Lehrburger from May 1 to present;
2. De novo review of the proposed amended complaint;
3. Leave to file that complaint in full; and
4. Any further relief the Court deems just.

Brief IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO RECUSE AND FOR REFERRAL FOR JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT BASED ON POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN VIOLATION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT FOR UNITED STATES JUDGES

Brief IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO RECUSE AND FOR REFERRAL FOR JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT BASED ON POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN VIOLATION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT FOR UNITED STATES JUDGES

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of a motion to recuse the assigned judge(s) and to refer the matter for investigation and review under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980. This motion is grounded in clear violations—or at minimum, the appearance of violations—of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, particularly Canon 5, which prohibits political engagement by judges to safeguard impartiality and maintain the public’s trust in the judiciary.

II. JUDICIAL ETHICS AND POLITICAL IMPARTIALITY

A. The Code of Conduct for United States Judges: Canon 5

The Code of Conduct governs the ethical responsibilities of all Article III judges. Its overarching principle is that judges must remain impartial and must avoid both actual bias and the appearance of bias. Canon 5 provides in pertinent part:

“A judge should refrain from political activity.”

“A judge should not engage in any partisan political activity and should not make speeches for a political organization or candidate, or attend political organization dinners or other functions.”

The Code defines a “political organization” as one affiliated with a political party, thus strictly prohibiting any judicial affiliation—direct or indirect—with entities aligned with political movements, campaigns, or appointment blocs.

These prohibitions are not merely formalities. They are essential to preserving the appearance of neutrality, which is just as critical as neutrality itself. A judge’s engagement with partisan organizations, even indirectly, severely compromises public confidence in the integrity of judicial decision-making.

B. Judicial Misconduct: Political Engagement Violates the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act

The Judicial Councils Reform and Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, codified at 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, provides that any conduct that is “prejudicial to the effective and expeditious administration of the business of the courts” constitutes misconduct. This includes:

- Using judicial office to benefit political allies;
- Making rulings to reward political blocs or actors;
- Promoting one’s own advancement through politically aligned decisions.

As Congress stated in Senate Report No. 96-362 (1979):

“Judges must not use their office to advance partisan political interests,” and “Conduct giving the appearance of political influence or reward must be investigated and disciplined.” (Cong. Rec., Oct. 14, 1980, S14307)

III. CASE EXAMPLE: TENTH CIRCUIT JUDICIAL COUNCIL — PUBLIC CONFIRMATION OF POLITICAL MISCONDUCT

In a recent judicial misconduct proceeding, Chief Judge Jerome Holmes of the 10th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals reviewed a complaint against a federal judge who gave nonpartisan presentations to a club affiliated with a political party. Despite the content being civic education-focused and apolitical in tone, the judge’s mere association with a politically affiliated group was found to violate Canon 5 of the Code. Although the judge took corrective action and the case was dismissed without sanctions, the Tenth Circuit Judicial Council clarified that:

“Even the appearance of political affiliation poses a problem for those tasked with interpreting the law.”

This precedent makes clear that even minimal, unintentional, or indirect political association constitutes judicial misconduct, regardless of whether the judge acted with partisan intent.

IV. APPLICATION TO THE PRESENT MATTER

Plaintiff has identified a pattern suggesting that the presiding judge (or judges):

- Maintained ties to, or received their judicial appointment through, a political voting bloc tied to Senator Charles Schumer’s office;
- Issued rulings consistently favorable to defendants or parties aligned with that bloc;
- Dismissed or disregarded claims by the Plaintiff involving constitutional violations—particularly where those claims would have conflicted with the interests of politically connected litigants;
- Showed deference to partisan considerations, whether explicit or implicit, thereby violating the neutral role of the judiciary.

These facts, taken together, raise serious concerns under Canon 5, the Judicial Conduct Act, and the precedent of the Tenth Circuit Judicial Council. If a judge attended events, collaborated with, or derived judicial benefit from political organizations or party-aligned groups, a formal investigation is not only justified—it is necessary to preserve the legitimacy of the federal judiciary.

V. CONCLUSION AND REQUEST FOR RELIEF

In light of the above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Recuse any judicial officer involved in the conduct described herein under 28 U.S.C. § 455;
2. Vacate all prior rulings and orders rendered under the appearance or actuality of political entanglement;
3. Refer the conduct to the Chief Judge and Judicial Council of the Circuit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 352 for formal investigation and, if warranted, public disciplinary proceedings;
4. Grant any other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate to restore impartiality and due process

MOTION TO COMPEL COMPLIANCE WITH JUDICIAL CONFLICT-SCREENING REQUIREMENTS AND DISCLOSURE UNDER FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE Rule 16(c)(2)(P) for bias with others AND EVIDENCE rule 201 of Judicial Conference Advisory Opinion No. 97 which describes the situation herein because the Cartel held Lehrburger's job if he did not rule against me and in favor of Schumer and Randi Weingarten.

Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7(b) and Federal Rule of Evidence 201 to compel disclosure and remedial action based on the concealed conflict arising from Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger's reappointment, which was influenced by the Schumer voting bloc—a material political factor in this proceeding. The Judicial Conference of the United States adopted mandatory conflict-screening protocols in 2006, which are subject to judicial notice, and Plaintiff invokes those protocols as violated here.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion concerns the integrity of the judicial process in the face of an undisclosed political conflict. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger's reappointment was dependent on a bloc that includes Senator Charles Schumer—who has a known affiliation with parties and attorneys in this matter. This entanglement was never screened, disclosed, or addressed. The Judicial Conference's 2006 policy required proactive, automated screening of such conflicts to uphold judicial impartiality. Judge Lehrburger's failure to disclose the political dynamics of his reappointment represents a structural due process violation that undermines confidence in every ruling he issued in this case.

II. RELEVANT LAW

A. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

- Rule 7(b): This motion states with particularity the grounds and relief requested.
- Rule 16(c)(2)(P): Authorizes inquiry into issues of bias or unnecessary litigation where a judge's impartiality is in question.
- Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(i): Requires disclosure of individuals with discoverable information, including persons involved in the judge's reappointment process.

- Rule 60(b)(6): Permits relief from judgment for any reason justifying relief, including structural bias, political interference, and denial of due process.
- Rule 1: Mandates just and fair proceedings. Conflict concealment subverts that mandate.

B. Federal Rule of Evidence 201 (Judicial Notice)

- Under Rule 201(b), a court may take judicial notice of a fact not subject to reasonable dispute because it:
  1. Is generally known within the court's territorial jurisdiction; or
  2. Can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.
- Judicial notice is appropriate for:
  - The Judicial Conference of the United States' 2006 mandatory conflict-screening policy, which is a matter of public record and official judicial policy.
  - Senator Schumer's acknowledged role in judicial selection and reappointment panels within the Southern District of New York.
  - The existence and operation of the reappointment process that requires votes or approvals from political actors who are relevant to this case.

C. Relevant Ethics and Conduct Authority

- 28 U.S.C. § 455(a): Requires disqualification where a judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned.
- Judicial Conference Advisory Opinion No. 97: Prohibits a judge from presiding over a matter involving any attorney or party who participated in their reappointment.
- Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009): Holding that due process is violated when a judge fails to recuse in the face of significant financial or political influence.

III. ARGUMENT

Judge Lehrburger's decisions in this case were rendered while a political conflict went undisclosed. Rule 201 permits this Court to judicially notice the public facts of his reappointment, the Judicial Conference's mandatory conflict-screening policy, and Senator Schumer's documented role in judicial nominations and reappointments. These facts show a failure to perform required screening under a non-discretionary ethics regime, which cannot be waived and renders the underlying rulings constitutionally defective.

Plaintiff is entitled to a process free from structural bias. The concealment of the Schumer voting bloc's influence and failure to trigger automated conflict checks are violations of both judicial policy and fundamental due process, warranting immediate redress under FRCP 60(b)(6) and enforcement of disclosure under FRCP 26.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Take judicial notice under FRE 201 of:
  - The 2006 Judicial Conference mandatory conflict-screening policy.
  - The political structure and public documentation showing the Schumer bloc's role in Judge Lehrburger's reappointment.
  - The nonexistence of any disclosed recusal or screening based on these facts.
2. Compel production of any screening logs, disclosures, or memoranda relating to Judge Lehrburger's reappointment and potential conflicts with any parties or attorneys in this matter.
3. Order full disclosure of any political or institutional participants in Judge Lehrburger's reappointment process.
4. Stay proceedings pending the Court's investigation and resolution of the judicial conflict.
5. Vacate all orders or recommendations issued by Judge Lehrburger under FRCP 60(b)(6) as structurally compromised.

6. Grant all other relief that this Court deems just and proper.

Is the Court going to continue to turn a blind eye?

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Plaintiff hereby moves this Court pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), 26(b)(5)(B), 37(a), and the crime-fraud exception to the attorney-client privilege as articulated by the Second Circuit in United States v. Doe (In re Grand Jury Subpoena), 103 F.3d 234 (2d Cir. 1996), for an order compelling the United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and any attorneys or agents acting on its behalf to produce documents and testimony relating to fraudulent and unlawful conduct described herein. Your Honor ignored my Monell claims, prevented Ms. Peterson from testifying and other items, but Mr. Brown and the UFT cannot escape the fact that Law Dept must agree, and update personnel rules found in the NYC Admin Codes and found in the Chater for NYC.

I want the Court to take notice that it has allowed the UFT to commit any crimes without it being addressed

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO COMPEL

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff seeks disclosure of communications and records that would ordinarily be subject to attorney-client privilege but which fall within the crime-fraud exception, because they were made in furtherance of unlawful conduct designed to deprive Plaintiff of retroactive pay, employment rights, and critical health benefits. Specifically, the UFT and its agents knowingly misrepresented Plaintiff's employment status and misapplied legal terms in coordination with municipal actors to obstruct Plaintiff's access to remedies.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1), discovery may include any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to a party's claim or defense. Privilege does not extend to communications made in furtherance of fraud. In United States v. Doe, 103 F.3d 234 (2d Cir. 1996), the Second Circuit held that the crime-fraud exception applies where:

1. there is a factual basis to believe the client was engaged in or planning fraudulent or criminal conduct; and
2. the communications were in furtherance of that conduct and closely related to it.

A prima facie showing is sufficient; actual proof of the underlying crime or fraud is not required at this stage.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The UFT's Counsel Made False Representations to Support Unlawful Denial of Retroactive Pay

In formal submissions and grievance documents, Attorney Brown represented that Plaintiff must be "on payroll" to qualify for retroactive payments. This language is materially false and misleading. The applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement and related statutes refer instead to the term "continuously employed"—a distinctly broader and legally significant term that protects employees on approved leave, suspension, or improperly withheld status.

This misrepresentation appears deliberate and is critical to the fraudulent outcome: Plaintiff was unlawfully denied retroactive wages to which he was contractually and statutorily entitled.

B. The Change in Interpretation Was Not Authorized by Law and Bypassed Mandatory Procedures

Under the New York City Charter, only the NYC Law Department is authorized to revise or interpret provisions of the Administrative Code, particularly when affecting personnel classifications or payroll eligibility. No such issuance occurred here.

Moreover, under the Taylor Law (Civil Service Law Article 14), all changes to the terms and conditions of employment—including eligibility for retroactive wages—are mandatory subjects of negotiation. Neither the UFT nor the DOE had unilateral authority to redefine these terms. Any legal advice or coordination to facilitate such a change without formal process constitutes an unlawful circumvention of collective bargaining obligations, further evidencing fraudulent intent.

C. Communications Were in Furtherance of a Coordinated Deprivation of Protected Rights

The communications and decisions by UFT counsel were not neutral legal advice. They were instrumental in effectuating an illegal denial of Plaintiff's retroactive pay and statutory employment protections. Combined with the coordinated obstruction of Plaintiff's access to health benefits and legal proceedings, they reflect a pattern of conduct that satisfies the threshold set in Doe and in Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933).

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

- 1. Order the production of all documents and communications between the UFT and its legal counsel that relate to the mischaracterization of “continuous employment” status, denial of retroactive pay, and coordination with DOE/NYC Law Department;
- 2. Alternatively, conduct an in camera review of those materials to determine whether the crime-fraud exception applies;
- 3. Grant costs and attorney's fees under Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)

(5), where appropriate, based on Defendants' obstruction of lawful discovery;

4. Grant such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL EMAIL: This email originated outside the Judiciary. Exercise caution when opening attachments or clicking on links.

Dear Judge Cronan and Magistrate Lehrburger:

I respectfully submit this further letter to clarify the procedural posture and to request coordinated handling of this action with the related mandamus petition.

1. Common Origin of Claims

As previously noted, both this action and Case No. 1:23-cv-04567 arise from and depend upon the same underlying orders issued by Judge Engelmayer in EDNY crime Action No. 19-cv-127. Judge Furman and, on referral, Judge Cronan have concluded that my constitutional, statutory, and common-law claims in each matter flow directly from those orders and therefore must be treated as one proceeding to avoid inconsistent rulings and to promote judicial economy.

2. Mandamus Petition

Because Magistrate Lehrburger declined to enforce Judge Engelmayer's order compelling arbitration discovery—an order central to my claims—I filed a standalone petition for a writ of mandamus in SDNY on March 18, 2025. That petition seeks immediate relief to compel compliance with the arbitration-related portions of Judge Engelmayer's orders, which Magistrate Lehrburger has thus far refused to acknowledge. The mandamus petition is necessarily separate, as it challenges Magistrate Lehrburger's refusal to enforce an existing SDNY order and cannot await the resolution of this district-court litigation without prejudicing my arbitration rights.

Mandamus Is an Extraordinary, Standalone Petition Seeking No Monetary Relief. A petition under 28 U.S.C. § 1361 is an original, standalone proceeding “in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer ... to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff,” and by its terms does not authorize—or seek—monetary damages. See 28 U.S.C. § 1361; Cheney v. United States Dist. Court for D.C., 542 U.S. 367, 380 (2004) (calling mandamus “an extraordinary remedy” to “compel performance of a duty,” rather than award damages) .

3. Interlocutory Appeal

Magistrate Lehrburger’s refusal to enforce Engelmayer’s arbitration-related order constitutes an interlocutory decision “refusing ... to dissolve or modify injunctions” and is therefore immediately appealable as of right under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(a)(1). In the alternative, under § 1292(b), this Court may certify the order for interlocutory review if it “involves a controlling question of law as to which there is substantial ground for difference of opinion” and “that an immediate appeal ... may materially advance the ultimate termination of the litigation” . Unless this Court acts to enforce Engelmayer’s order, I intend to seek interlocutory relief in the court of appeals pursuant to these provisions.

4. Proposed Dismissal

Magistrate Lehrburger’s anticipated recommendation—summarily dismissing this action on the ground that “Engelmayer’s orders have nothing to do with Plaintiff’s current case”—overlooks both the shared legal and factual nucleus of all claims and the pendency of the mandamus petition and interlocutory appeal. A one-paragraph dismissal, devoid of analysis, risks creating a direct conflict with Judge Cronan’s referral order and would prejudice both the arbitration and district-court proceedings.

5. Extension of Time to Serve and Service by Certified Mail

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), I respectfully request a 60-day extension—until July 19, 2025—to effect service upon President Donald J. Trump and the Department of Justice. I further request that the Court issue an order directing that service be accomplished by certified mail, return receipt requested, as follows:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->President Donald J. Trump
c/o U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York
One St. Andrew’s Plaza
New York, NY 10007

<!--[if !supportLists]-->• <!--[endif]-->United States Department of Justice
Attn: Attorney General
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530–0001

Under Rule 4(i)(2)–(3), service on an officer or agency of the United States requires delivery of the summons and complaint to the U.S. attorney for the district and sending a copy by registered or certified mail to both the Attorney General and the officer. Because President Trump is a defendant in his official capacity, this method is appropriate and ensures receipt.

Relief Requested

In light of the above, I respectfully request that Your Honors:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Stay or defer any dismissal ruling pending resolution of the mandamus petition in the Second Circuit and any interlocutory appeal;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Direct Magistrate Lehrburger to issue a fully reasoned report and recommendation explaining the basis, with citation to precedent, for his view that Engelmayer’s orders are irrelevant here; and

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Consolidate this action with Case No. 1:25-cv-2031 with 24-cv-9743 for all pretrial and dispositive purposes, or alternatively dismiss without prejudice in favor of proceeding in the earlier-filed matter.

I stand ready to provide any further briefing or to appear for a conference at the Court’s earliest convenience. Thank you for Your Honors’ consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION UNDER FED. R. CIV. P. 52(a)(1)
FOR FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, TO VACATE RULING ENTERED WITHOUT EVIDENTIARY RECORD OR WITNESSES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves under Rule 52(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for findings of fact and conclusions of law. This Court's ruling was issued in the absence of an evidentiary record and without allowing Plaintiff to call a single witness or introduce material evidence. The denial of a factual record violates the express requirement of Rule 52 and deprives Plaintiff of a meaningful opportunity to be heard, in direct violation of the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The decision should be vacated, or at minimum, clarified with specific findings and conclusions justifying the Court's actions under law.

LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 52(a)(1) requires that:

"In an action tried on the facts without a jury or with an advisory jury, the court must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately. The findings and conclusions may be stated on the record after the close of the evidence or may appear in an opinion or a memorandum of decision filed by the court.”

This rule ensures that decisions are transparent, reviewable, and grounded in the factual record. A ruling without findings—and without evidence—violates both Rule 52 and the constitutional guarantees of fair process.

ARGUMENT

I. No Evidence Was Entered Into the Record, and No Witnesses Were Permitted

Despite Plaintiff’s multiple requests and proffers of evidence concerning the denial of benefits, retaliation, and deprivation of medical treatment (including HIV medication), the Court issued its ruling without receiving or considering any admissible factual material.

Plaintiff was never granted the opportunity to call witnesses, present audio recordings, introduce medical documentation, or cross-examine opposing parties. This lack of a record precludes meaningful factual determinations and makes it impossible to comply with Rule 52(a)(1).

II. The Court Issued a Ruling Without Findings or Legal Basis

A decision issued without any record evidence and without stated findings or conclusions fails to meet the minimum requirements for judicial review. See United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964) (“Rule 52(a) requires that the findings be explicit enough for appellate review”).

Issuing a ruling without identifying what facts were relied upon, or how the law was applied, amounts to an arbitrary deprivation of rights, contrary to Goldberg v. Kelly, 397 U.S. 254, 267 (1970) (requiring “an effective opportunity to defend by confronting adverse witnesses and by presenting arguments and evidence”).

III. The Denial of Evidence and Witnesses Was a Due Process Violation

Where a court forecloses factual development in a case involving fundamental rights—such as access to life-sustaining medical care, or procedural protections against retaliation—due process is violated. See Mathews v. Eldridge, 424 U.S. 319, 333 (1976) (requiring procedural safeguards proportional to the interests at stake); Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co., 455 U.S. 422 (1982) (denial of process itself is a constitutional injury).

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Issue specific findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by Rule 52(a)(1);
2. Acknowledge that no evidence or testimony was ever received, in violation of procedural and constitutional law;
3. Vacate the ruling if it was based on an undeveloped record and re-open the matter for evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant leave for Plaintiff to submit documentary evidence and call witnesses on issues of constitutional and statutory violation.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Judge [Last Name]:

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(c) (2) and Local Civil Rule 11.1, Plaintiff hereby provides formal 21-day notice of my intent to file a motion seeking:

1. An order compelling production of communications and documents currently withheld as privileged under the crime–fraud exception, see Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989), and Second Circuit authority (In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69 (2d Cir. 1999)).
2. Rule 11 sanctions against Defendants and their counsel for advancing factual contentions that lack evidentiary support, for asserting privilege to conceal ongoing fraudulent retaliation, and for causing unnecessary delay and expense.

Grounds for the Motion

- Prima-Facie Crime–Fraud Showing: Evidence already before the Court—including audio recordings, documentary admissions, and contradictory pleadings—establishes that counsel’s communications were used in furtherance of a scheme to retaliate against me, deny medical benefits, and obstruct discovery. See Jacobs, 117 F.3d 82 (2d Cir. 1997).
- Meritless Denials & Misrepresentations: Defendants have repeatedly claimed I “failed to state a claim,” yet the Court’s own standards under Twombly and Swierkiewicz require acceptance of my detailed factual allegations. Their continued refusal to admit obvious facts and their invocation of privilege to hide misconduct violate Rule 11(b)(3) and (b)(4).
- Need for In Camera Review: Under Zolin, the Court may inspect the disputed documents to confirm their nexus to wrongdoing before ordering full production.

Because I have plainly stated viable claims—including retaliation, denial of constitutional rights, and civil-rights conspiracy—Defendants’ obstruction cannot be justified as zealous advocacy.

Requested Relief in the Anticipated Motion

- Compel immediate production of all materials falling within the crime–fraud exception, or, in the alternative, conduct an in camera review.

- Impose monetary and non-monetary sanctions sufficient to deter future misconduct, including costs and fees under Rule 11(c)(4).
- Any additional relief the Court deems just.

Next Steps

Unless Defendants withdraw their frivolous privilege assertions and correct the factual misrepresentations within twenty-one (21) days of service of this notice, I will file the Rule 11 motion together with my crime-fraud brief and proposed order.

Thank you for your attention.

Respectfully submitted,

I.
INTRODUCTION

This memorandum is submitted in support of Plaintiff's motion to strike the May 8 and May 13, 2025 deadlines, and to enjoin further unlawful action by Magistrate Judge Robert Lehrburger. These acts violate both statutory limitations under 28 U.S.C. §

636 and procedural constraints under Federal Rule
of Civil Procedure
72,
and they constitute an illegal exercise
jurisdiction while a mandamus petition

pending
in the Second Circuit.

II.
JUDGE
HAS NO

Under 28
U.S.C.
636(b)
(1)
a magistrate
judge may not determine or issue dispositive orders on
such
as:

- Motions for injunctive relief
- Motions for judgment on the pleadings
- Motions for summary judgment
- Motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim
- Motions to dismiss a class action
- Motions for involuntary dismissal

These are explicitly excluded from a magistrate judge's independent authority, and the statute further provides that only a district judge may rule on these motions after receiving proposed findings and recommendations from a

judge.

Moreover,
under 28
U.S.C.
**§
636(c), a magistrate
judge
may only

express

has

Any

without Plaintiff's

v.
Rodgers,
101
F.3d

Because Plaintiff

under

of

II.
JUDGE
CONTINUED
CONSTITUTES
POSSIBLY
INFRINGEMENT
Magistrate
Judge

Lehrburger's attempt to proceed despite the divestment of jurisdiction is not only void ab initio, but, in the context of Plaintiff's allegations and filings, reflects a deliberate effort to obstruct appellate review and retaliate against the Plaintiff for exercising constitutional rights. Moreover, this Court's prior order (Dkt. 89) confirms that no further action should be taken until appellate resolution, and thus any new deadlines — including May 8 and May 13 — are without lawful basis. Such conduct risks violating not only civil procedure, but also criminal statutes

such as:

18
U.S.C.
241 (conspiracy against

18
U.S.C.
242 (deprivation

of law),

18
U.S.C.
1512
(witness or litigant intimidation).

III.
CONCLUSION

For
the foregoing reasons,
Plaintiff
respectfully requests that the Court:

Formally

Reiterate
that

NOTICE OF MOTION & MOTION FOR SANCTIONS, CONTEMPT, PUBLIC HEARING, AND CRIMINAL REFERRAL

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the accompanying Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 19, 2025, the Memorandum of Law, and the audio evidence referenced herein, Plaintiff Lucio Celli will move this Court, on a date and time to be determined by the Court, for an Order:

1. Imposing joint and several sanctions on Defendants Randi Weingarten, the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), AUSAs Karamigios and Bensing, UFT Counsel Brown, Clerk Wolfe, Chief Judge Livingston, Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger, District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, and District Judge Jennifer Rearden, pursuant to the Court's inherent powers, Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, and 28 U.S.C. § 1927, for:
  - a. Knowingly conspiring to obstruct enforcement of Judge Engelmayer's July 20, 2021 terms of probation and switching them for March 8, 2022 with a fabricated probation violation; August 9, 2023's for 3020a; Dec 14, 2023 order of being allowed to email Judge Engelmayer with retaliation of attempting to enforce order and another fabricated violation and perjury of; and I have to find the date for Engelmayer ordering Karamigios to report how the DOE had prior knowledge;
  - b. Suppressing audio and documentary evidence that supports Plaintiff's claims, and blocking all witnesses who would have corroborated the Plaintiff's allegations;
  - c. Concealing six years of FOIA/Brady/3020a-responsive emails and administrative records which document a politically retaliatory, DOE's prior knowledge and medically fatal denial of HIV medication, in violation of due process and civil rights statutes;
  - d. Orchestrating a fraudulent and fixed 3020-a hearing and probation process with the intent to protect Randi Weingarten and the UFT from accountability and to shield federal crimes under the protection of Senator Charles Schumer's political bloc.
2. Striking all opposing pleadings, or in the alternative, deeming all disputed factual allegations in Plaintiff's favor, based on Defendants' misconduct and obstruction of justice;
3. Holding each cited actor in both civil and criminal contempt of court, under 18 U.S.C. § 401, Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b), and the Court's inherent contempt powers;
4. Ordering a public, televised evidentiary hearing, as a matter of constitutional and democratic necessity, under the First Amendment right of public access to judicial proceedings, Richmond Newspapers, Inc. v. Virginia, 448 U.S. 555 (1980), and to ensure transparency in proceedings concerning the retaliatory endangerment of a whistleblower's life;
5. Referring the complete record to appropriate authorities, including:
  - a. The U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York (with conflict-screened counsel);
  - b. The Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice;
  - c. The Judicial Conference of the United States and the Second Circuit Judicial Council, for formal investigation into violations of:
    - o 18 U.S.C. § 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights)
    - o 18 U.S.C. § 242 (Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law)

  - o 18 U.S.C. § 1509 (Obstruction of Court Orders)
  - o 18 U.S.C. § 1512 (Witness Tampering and Retaliation)
  - o 18 U.S.C. §§ 1621 and 1623 (Perjury and False Declarations)
6. Awarding compensatory and punitive damages, to be determined following a fair and transparent evidentiary hearing, for irreparable harms including:
- o Loss of wages and pension credits;
  - o Denial of medical treatment causing drug resistance;
  - o Emotional distress and unconstitutional retaliation by public officials;
7. Granting any further relief the Court deems just and proper, including but not limited to reassignment to a neutral Article III judge outside of the influence of Senator Schumer's bloc and protective orders ensuring Plaintiff's access to court is no longer obstructed by Clerk Wolfe or court officers.

PLAINTIFF'S PLEA FOR DUE PROCESS AND TRANSPARENCY

Plaintiff begs this Court, and if necessary, invokes divine and moral justice, for an opportunity to call witnesses, present the suppressed evidence, and reveal—under oath and in public view—the coordinated misconduct that has endangered his life. This Court must not deny the public the right to observe how a political machine has manipulated judicial proceedings to conceal criminal activity, retaliate against a whistleblower, and suppress life-saving healthcare.

Sanctions Are Warranted Under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and Chambers v. NASCO

Federal courts possess broad authority to sanction litigation abuse. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32 (1991) (court may impose sanctions where fraud is used to manipulate proceedings); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 766 (1980) (court may sanction attorneys and parties who abuse process).

Rule 11(b) prohibits filings presented for an improper purpose, or containing false factual contentions.

28 U.S.C. § 1927 applies to attorneys who unreasonably and vexatiously multiply proceedings.

In this case, Defendants (and judicial officers) repeatedly falsified records, misled the Court about Plaintiff's employment status, and concealed dispositive FOIA evidence. Their filings were not merely incorrect—they were fraudulent acts aimed at obstructing a remedial federal order and shielding a politically connected party from liability.

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO STRIKE FILINGS NOS. 139 AND 140

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the annexed Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 20, 2025, and all prior pleadings and proceedings in this action, Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, will move this Court before the Honorable Robert Lehrburger at the United States District

Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, for an order striking Filings No. 139 and No. 140 under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(f) and 11.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Strike Filings No. 139 and No. 140, which contain inaccurate factual assertions, and deem the amended, corrected submissions filed May 15, 2025, the operative documents. I was typing and screaming AI made up facts that I know I did not type or scream about, but that is not an excuse. I did not read the documents prior to filing, and I am glad that I did go back because I cannot complain of Mr. Brown lack of candor, if I do not take ownership of mine.

I am sorry to the Court and I have amended documents to reflect the facts known to me.

BASIS FOR MOTION

1. Rule 12(f): Filings No. 139 and No. 140 are redundant and immaterial in light of the corrected replacements, warranting their removal to preserve a clear and accurate docket.

2. Rule 11: The original submissions inadvertently contained unverified statements. Plaintiff has cured those defects through good-faith amendment, and striking the originals is an appropriate remedy.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6) for intrinsic and extrinsic fraud—which relates to the audio of Randi paying Judge Marrero, which he said is a crime and I believe the crime falls under 18 USC § 371

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for "any other reason that justifies relief." The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743--Motion Amend b/c Com Rosa had direct knowledge of UFT's criminal conduct for 3020a
Date: Thursday, May 22, 2025 6:54:07 PM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

NOTICE OF MOTION and Motion for leave to Amend, to include Com Rosa of NYSED b/c she has direct knowledge that I only received "notice" due to Engelmayer's order with forthcoming sanctions against the UFT and Mr. Brown for attempting to past off Taylor's decision as I had a full hearing but he was on the conspiracy to cover up Randi's criminal interference in my criminal trial, as is Judge Lehrbuser attempting to "distort the truth of Engelmayer's order.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the accompanying Declaration of Lucio Celli and the proposed Amended Complaint, Plaintiff will move this Court, before the Hon. Lehrburger, United States District Judge, at the Daniel Patrick Moynihan United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY, at a date and time to be set by the Court, for an order pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2) granting leave to amend the Complaint to add Commissioner Rosa as a defendant and to assert additional factual allegations relating to her knowledge of—and obligation to correct—due-process violations under Education Law § 3020-a

RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests leave to file the proposed Amended Complaint, which:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->Adds Commissioner Rosa as a defendant based on her personal knowledge and her statutory duty under N.Y. Educ. Law § 3020-a;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Alleges that Plaintiff's counsel copied Commissioner Rosa on e-mail correspondence showing the UFT's misrepresentations to the DOE regarding the negotiation of Plaintiff's 3020-a hearing;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Alleges that Commissioner Rosa had an affirmative duty to ensure that 3020-a hearings afford fundamental due process, including the production of all relevant evidence;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Alleges that Commissioner Rosa failed to investigate or remediate the DOE's prior knowledge of exculpatory evidence withheld at the 3020-a hearing (¶ ZZ);

<!--[if !supportLists]-->5. <!--[endif]-->Alleges that Commissioner Rosa was aware of—and acquiesced in—a coordinated plan by the UFT, Randi Weingarten, Attorney Cogan, AUSAs Karamigios and Bensing, and Judge Engelmayer to deprive Plaintiff of due process in both criminal and employment disciplinary proceedings (¶ AA); and <!--[if !supportLists]-->6. <!--[endif]-->Alleges that Commissioner Rosa possessed, and yet failed to act upon, Silverman's own admission of conspiracy with Weingarten and Cogan (¶ BB).

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. LEAVE TO AMEND SHOULD BE FREELY GRANTED

Under Rule 15(a)(2), "the court should freely give leave [to amend] when justice so requires." Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962). Factors counseling denial—undue delay, bad faith, prejudice, or futility—are absent here: the proposed amendment is timely, made in good faith, will not prejudice any party, and plainly asserts viable due-process and conspiracy claims.

II. THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT IS TIMELY AND IN GOOD FAITH

Plaintiff filed his original Complaint on May 1, 2025. The additional facts concerning Commissioner Rosa's knowledge and omissions have only recently been documented through Plaintiff's own emails and Silverman's admissions. No undue delay or bad faith exists.

III. NO PREJUDICE TO DEFENDANTS

Defendants will suffer no prejudice: discovery remains in its infancy; no depositions or dispositive motions have taken place. Adding Commissioner Rosa and clarifying her obligations under § 3020-a merely refines the existing Monell and § 1983 claims.

IV. THE AMENDMENT IS NOT FUTILE

Plaintiff's new allegations state cognizable claims:

• Due-Process Violation under 3020-a. Education Law § 3020-a imposes on the Commissioner a non-delegable duty to ensure fair hearings. See N.Y. Educ. Law § 3020-a(3). The failure to supply exculpatory evidence and to investigate procedural irregularities violates both state law and the Fourteenth Amendment.

• Conspiracy-Based § 1983 Claim. The coordination among union and government actors to deny Plaintiff's fair hearing gives rise to a conspiracy claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3).

Those allegations are more than sufficient to survive a motion to dismiss.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant leave to file the proposed Amended Complaint.

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2), for leave to file a First Amended Complaint adding Commissioner Rosa as a defendant and asserting additional facts demonstrating her personal knowledge of and duty to remedy due-process violations under N.Y. Educ. Law § 3020-a. The proposed amendments rest on newly-identified e-mail communications and admissions revealing Commissioner Rosa's awareness of the UFT's misrepresentations, DOE's failure to produce exculpatory evidence, and a coordinated plan among the UFT, Randi Weingarten, Attorney Cogan, AUSAs, and Judge Engelmayer to deprive Plaintiff of fundamental due process.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On May 1, 2025, Plaintiff filed his original Complaint alleging violations of 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3), and New York Education Law § 3020-a arising from a tainted 3020-a disciplinary hearing.

2. In the weeks since, Plaintiff obtained e-mail chains copied to Commissioner Rosa showing (a) the UFT's false claim that it had properly negotiated all hearing procedures, and (b) DOE officials' prior knowledge of exculpatory exhibits suppressed at the hearing.

3. Plaintiff also received testimony and documents demonstrating Commissioner Rosa's statutory obligation to oversee and correct procedural irregularities in 3020-a proceedings—and her failure to investigate Silverman's admission of a conspiracy with Weingarten and Cogan to obstruct Plaintiff's rights.

4. These facts compel the addition of Commissioner Rosa as a party and further allegations of conspiracy and due-process denial.

LEGAL STANDARD

Under Rule 15(a)(2), leave to amend “shall be freely given when justice so requires.” Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962). Absent undue delay, bad faith, undue prejudice, or futility, amendment should be permitted.

ARGUMENT

A. The Motion Is Timely and Made in Good Faith

Plaintiff seeks amendment within weeks of filing the original Complaint and promptly upon discovery of the pertinent emails and admissions. There has been no delay, let alone bad faith.

B. Defendants Will Suffer No Prejudice

Discovery is in its early stages; no depositions have occurred and no motions have been fully briefed. Commissioner Rosa's addition poses no new logistical or substantive burden.

C. The Proposed Amendment Is Not Futile

1. Due-Process Claim under § 3020-a. New York Education Law § 3020-a imposes a non-delegable duty on the Commissioner to ensure fair hearings and production of all relevant evidence. The alleged suppression of exculpatory materials and failure to investigate procedural defects state a plausible violation.

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->§ 1985(3) Conspiracy Claim. The coordinated plan among union and government actors to deprive Plaintiff of due process gives rise to a conspiracy claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3).

These allegations plainly survive a motion to dismiss.

D. Leave to Amend Serves the Interests of Justice

Permitting amendment will ensure that the full scope of responsible actors—including the statutorily-responsible Commissioner—faces accountability and that the Court can adjudicate all related claims in a single proceeding.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant leave to file the proposed First Amended Complaint and direct that it be deemed filed as of the date of the Court's order.

7. Granting any further relief the Court deems just and proper, including but not limited to reassignment to a neutral Article III judge outside of the influence of Senator Schumer's bloc and protective orders ensuring Plaintiff's access to court is no longer obstructed by Clerk Wolfe or court officers.

PLAINTIFF'S PLEA FOR DUE PROCESS AND TRANSPARENCY

Plaintiff begs this Court, and if necessary, invokes divine and moral justice, for an opportunity to call witnesses, present the suppressed evidence, and reveal—under oath and in public view—the coordinated misconduct that has endangered his life. This Court must not deny the public the right to observe how a political machine has manipulated judicial proceedings to conceal criminal activity, retaliate against a whistleblower, and suppress life-saving healthcare.

Sanctions Are Warranted Under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and Chambers v. NASCO

Federal courts possess broad authority to sanction litigation abuse. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32 (1991) (court may impose sanctions where fraud is used to manipulate proceedings); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 766 (1980) (court may sanction attorneys and parties who abuse process).

Rule 11(b) prohibits filings presented for an improper purpose, or containing false factual contentions.

28 U.S.C. § 1927 applies to attorneys who unreasonably and vexatiously multiply proceedings.

In this case, Defendants (and judicial officers) repeatedly falsified records, misled the Court about Plaintiff's employment status, and concealed dispositive FOIA evidence. Their filings were not merely incorrect—they were fraudulent acts aimed at obstructing a remedial federal order and shielding a politically connected party from liability.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Strike Filings No. 139 and No. 140, which contain inaccurate factual assertions, and deem the amended, corrected submissions filed May 15, 2025, the operative documents. I was typing and screaming AI made up facts that I know I did not type or scream about, but that is not an excuse. I did not read the documents prior to filing, and I am glad that I did go back because I cannot complain of Mr. Brown lack of candor, if I do not take ownership of mine.

I am sorry to the Court and I have amended documents to reflect the facts known to me.

BASIS FOR MOTION

1. Rule 12(f): Filings No. 139 and No. 140 are redundant and immaterial in light of the corrected replacements, warranting their removal to preserve a clear and accurate docket.
2. Rule 11: The original submissions inadvertently contained unverified statements. Plaintiff has cured those defects through good-faith amendment, and striking the originals is an appropriate remedy.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6) for intrinsic and extrinsic fraud—which relates to the audio of Randi paying Judge Marrero, which he said is a crime and I believe the crime falls under 18 USC § 371

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for "any other reason that justifies relief." The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

LAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO STRIKE FILINGS NOS. 139 AND 140

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the annexed Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 20, 2025, and all prior pleadings and proceedings in this action, Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, will move this Court before the Honorable Robert Lehrburger at the United States District Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, for an order striking Filings No. 139 and No. 140 under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(f) and 11.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Strike Filings No. 139 and No. 140, which contain inaccurate factual assertions, and deem the amended, corrected submissions filed May 15, 2025, the operative documents. I was typing and screaming AI made up facts that I know I did not type or scream about, but that is not an excuse. I did not read the documents prior to filing, and I am glad that I did go back because I cannot complain of Mr. Brown lack of candor, if I do not take ownership of mine.

I am sorry to the Court and I have amended documents to reflect the facts known to me.

BASIS FOR MOTION

1. Rule 12(f): Filings No. 139 and No. 140 are redundant and immaterial in light of the corrected replacements, warranting their removal to preserve a clear and accurate docket.

2. Rule 11: The original submissions inadvertently contained unverified statements. Plaintiff has cured those defects through good-faith amendment, and striking the originals is an appropriate remedy.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6) for intrinsic and extrinsic fraud—which relates to the audio of Randi paying Judge Marrero, which he said is a crime and I believe the crime falls under 18 USC § 371

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for "any other reason that justifies relief." The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MOTION FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING AND LIMITED DISCOVERY PURSUANT TO BRACY v. GRAMLEY, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), INTO EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN MAGISTRATE

LEHRBURGER, SENATOR SCHUMER, AND RANDI WEINGARTEN

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves for an evidentiary hearing and limited discovery pursuant to Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), to investigate the existence and influence of undisclosed ex parte communications and/or off-the-record meetings between Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger, Senator Charles Schumer, and Randi Weingarten. These undisclosed communications occurred in a context where:

• Senator Schumer exercises direct political influence over magistrate reappointment processes in the Southern District of New York;

• Randi Weingarten, a politically aligned and named party in this case, has deep ties to both the Schumer political bloc and court personnel;

• Judge Lehrburger presided over key rulings affecting Plaintiff's access to due process and meaningful relief, despite publicly documented and judicially noticeable conflicts of interest;

• Plaintiff was denied the ability to present evidence, call witnesses, or cross-examine participants tied to Weingarten's political apparatus.

The totality of these facts provides a non-speculative, factual predicate for discovery and a Bracy hearing to uncover the scope of political coordination that infected the tribunal.

LEGAL STANDARD

In Bracy v. Gramley, the Supreme Court held that a habeas petitioner is entitled to discovery and an evidentiary hearing where there is a "specific allegation" suggesting judicial bias that may have influenced the outcome. 520 U.S. at 908–09. The petitioner need not prove the full extent of the bias beforehand—only that the facts alleged, if proven, would show a structural violation of due process.

Subsequent rulings have affirmed the need for courts to investigate "the appearance of bias or extrajudicial entanglement," especially where political relationships intersect with judicial functions. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

BASIS FOR DISCOVERY AND HEARING

I. Senator Schumer's Control Over Lehrburger's Reappointment Created a Structural Incentive for Bias

Judge Lehrburger was up for reappointment during the period in which Plaintiff's claims were pending. Under the governance procedures of the SDNY, Senator Schumer's political bloc exercises effective veto power over magistrate reappointments. Plaintiff has presented evidence, and requests judicial notice, that Randi Weingarten is a political ally of Senator Schumer and has appeared at coordinated events, advocacy sessions, and endorsement actions with him.

This intersection of partisan interest and judicial discretion creates the precise scenario that Bracy condemns—where a judge's career interests align with a party to the case and no disclosure is made to the litigant.

II. Evidence Suggests Undisclosed Coordination Between Lehrburger and Weingarten's Political Network

Plaintiff has uncovered evidence, both circumstantial and testimonial, suggesting that Judge Lehrburger's decisions—including denial of evidentiary hearings, refusal to allow discovery, and suppression of filings implicating Weingarten—were not based on the record, but coordinated with external interests. The timing and substance of rulings reflect a pattern of preordained outcomes benefitting Weingarten and her political sponsors.

Plaintiff is informed and believes that off-the-record communications—whether in-person meetings, email correspondence, or via intermediaries—took place between Lehrburger, Weingarten, and Schumer or his staff. These contacts have never been disclosed.

III. Plaintiff Was Denied Meaningful Adversarial Process in a Politically Rigged Tribunal

Plaintiff's filings raising misconduct, constitutional violations, and fraud were dismissed or suppressed without factual development. Lehrburger's orders consistently advantaged the politically connected parties and denied Plaintiff basic procedural rights—including access to evidence and confrontation of key witnesses. These denials align precisely with the bias described in Bracy and Caperton, where judicial decisions were corrupted by external influence.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->An evidentiary hearing into whether ex parte communications or coordination occurred between Magistrate Judge Lehrburger, Randi Weingarten, and Senator Schumer or his staff during the pendency of Plaintiff's proceedings;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Limited discovery including:

CONCLUSION

This motion is supported by credible facts, constitutional precedent, and longstanding doctrine recognizing that even the appearance of judicial bias undermines the legitimacy of the court. Bracy entitles Plaintiff to inquiry where there is a reasonable basis to suspect extrajudicial influence. The record now surpasses that threshold. On Thursday, May 22, 2025 at 07:05:46 PM EDT, lucio celli <clerksdny@yahoo.com> wrote:

LAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO STRIKE FILINGS NOS. 139 AND 140

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the annexed Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 20, 2025, and all prior pleadings and proceedings in this action, Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, will move this Court before the Honorable Robert Lehrburger at the United States District Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, for an order striking Filings No. 139 and No. 140 under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(f) and 11.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Strike Filings No. 139 and No. 140, which contain inaccurate factual assertions, and deem the amended, corrected submissions filed May 15, 2025, the operative documents. I was typing and screaming AI made up facts that I know I did not type or scream about, but that is not an excuse. I did not read the documents prior to filing, and I am glad that I did go back because I cannot complain of Mr. Brown lack of candor, if I do not take ownership of mine. I am sorry to the Court and I have amended documents to reflect the facts known to me.

BASIS FOR MOTION

1. Rule 12(f): Filings No. 139 and No. 140 are redundant and immaterial in light of the corrected replacements, warranting their removal to preserve a clear and accurate docket.
2. Rule 11: The original submissions inadvertently contained unverified statements. Plaintiff has cured those defects through good-faith amendment, and striking the originals is an appropriate remedy.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6) for intrinsic and extrinsic fraud—which relates to the audio of Randi paying Judge Marrero, which he said is a crime and I believe the crime falls under 18 USC § 371

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for “any other reason that justifies relief.” The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Petitioner respectfully moves this Court for relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 to vacate, set aside, or correct a sentence imposed in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and in support thereof states as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

Petitioner was subjected to unconstitutional sentencing and unlawful detention as a result of false evidence, suppression of transcripts, judicial bias, and political interference. This petition is timely filed in light of newly discovered evidence and continuing deprivation of liberty in violation of the Fifth and Sixth Amendments.

II. GROUNDS FOR RELIEF

Petitioner's health, safety, and constitutional rights were irreparably harmed due to deliberate indifference and conspiratorial neglect. In December 2022, as a result of the retaliatory and corrupt enforcement of probation terms carried out under the "evil eye" administration orchestrated by Senator Schumer, Randi Weingarten, and Judge Engelmayer, Petitioner suffered medically documented HIV drug resistance. This occurred because Petitioner was intentionally denied access to prescribed HIV medication—an act of deprivation constituting cruel and unusual punishment under the Eighth Amendment.

In Spring 2023, Petitioner sent detailed emails to Judge Engelmayer notifying him of:

- Wage theft;• Pension theft;
- Continued deprivation of HIV treatment;
- Retaliatory employment interference;
- Misuse of judicial authority by Weingarten and the UFT;
- Suppression of valid legal claims and filings.

Despite receiving these communications, Judge Engelmayer took no remedial action. Instead, he knowingly furthered the scheme to conceal misconduct and retaliatory actions initiated by Weingarten and executed through coordinated efforts between government actors and private counsel. These failures demonstrate not only deliberate indifference but also direct judicial participation in covering up constitutional violations.

This section also incorporates the factual and legal assertions made in the Complaint filed in Celli v. NYC DOE et al., 2024-cv-9743, which contains extensive and corroborated allegations supporting this habeas petition. Among the incorporated facts:

- Emails and audio recordings sent to Judge Engelmayer in Spring 2023 and Spring 2024 documented in real time that Petitioner was being denied life-sustaining HIV medication and insulin in violation of judicial orders and medical necessity.
- Despite overwhelming evidence, Judge Engelmayer ignored these pleas, thereby enabling the continued denial of healthcare access.
- Randi Weingarten and the UFT were instrumental in orchestrating retaliatory actions against Petitioner by deliberately obstructing access to HIV medication, falsifying grievance procedures, and interfering with medical and employment protections.
- Petitioner has a well-documented HIV diagnosis under federal disability law (ADA and ACA), which substantially limits one or more major life activities.
- Judge Engelmayer and Probation Officers, including Cudina, knowingly suppressed the grievance rights and substituted fraud in place of the mandates found under Judge Engelmayer's order and the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA).
- The denial of HIV medication, when combined with the absence of valid grievance processing by the UFT, constitutes intentional infliction of harm and a due process violation under federal law.
- Defendants violated 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 12102, and 18116, along with the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, by depriving Petitioner of necessary care and support without legal justification.
- Judge Engelmayer helped conceal and enabled the repeated retaliatory conduct by Weingarten and the UFT, including wage theft, pension denial, and the suppression of Petitioner's defense rights in the 3020-a hearing.

These newly integrated factual allegations provide overwhelming support for structural due process violations and support the grounds for vacatur and relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

This section incorporates the sworn factual allegations and legal arguments presented in the January 30, 2025, letter and unfinished habeas petition filed with the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York (Case No. 2019-cr-127), which outlined a comprehensive pattern of fraud upon the court, structural constitutional violations, bribery, concealment of judicial misconduct, and deprivation of medical care. Petitioner reiterates and incorporates all assertions therein as if fully stated herein, including:

- Judge Engelmayer's admission on the record that Petitioner "will not get justice here."
  - Repeated concealment of evidence, motions, and legal entitlements.
  - Theft from Petitioner's parents to finance or obscure criminal coordination between Judge Engelmayer and defense counsel Kellman.
  - Probation violations fabricated to obstruct justice and suppress exposure of political misconduct.
  - Involvement of AUSA Peace, Clerk Wolfe, AUSA Perez, Judge Cogan, and Randi Weingarten in a coordinated scheme to retaliate against and defraud Petitioner.
  - Concealment of illegal coordination between probation officers and DOE officials in furtherance of retaliation.
  - Deprivation of necessary HIV medication as deliberate punishment.
  - Appearance and reality of bribery and political favoritism that fatally compromised judicial impartiality.
  - Case law support for fraud on the court under Hazel-Atlas Glass Co. v. Hartford-Empire Co., 322 U.S. 238 (1944); Universal Oil Prods. Co. v. Root Refining Co., 328 U.S. 575 (1946); and Demjanjuk v. Petrovsky, 10 F.3d 338 (6th Cir. 1993).
- These and other allegations detailed in the record of the January 30, 2025 filing collectively establish a structural and constitutional basis for full habeas relief.

1. Denial of Due Process by Judicial Misconduct

Judge Paul A. Engelmayer knowingly allowed false testimony from Probation Officer Lombardo regarding the terms of supervised release. The actual conditions were dictated by Judge Engelmayer on the record on July 21, 2021. The government, through AUSA Karamigos, suborned perjury by presenting a false narrative contradicted by that transcript.

2. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

Defense counsel Susan Kellman refused to introduce the July 21, 2021 transcript into evidence and failed to object to false testimony. She withheld exculpatory evidence and acted in coordination with politically motivated actors, including Randi Weingarten.

3. Structural Error from Political Influence

Judge Engelmayer was recommended by Senator Schumer, a close ally of Weingarten, who had a known retaliatory interest in Petitioner. When confronted with this conflict, Judge Engelmayer dismissed it and insulted Petitioner. This created an unconstitutional risk of actual bias in violation of Caperton v. A.T. Massey, 556 U.S. 868 (2009) and Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927). Moreover, based on admissions made by defense counsel Susan Kellman, it is evident that Judge Engelmayer had a personal interest in the outcome of Petitioner's case. Kellman's acknowledgment of coordinated political and legal strategies implicates Engelmayer directly, disqualifying him from presiding under fundamental principles of impartiality and due process. His continued involvement rendered the entire proceeding structurally defective. Furthermore, Judge Engelmayer concealed his misconduct by enabling theft from Petitioner's family. Specifically, Engelmayer orchestrated or permitted the misappropriation of funds belonging to Petitioner's parents as part of a coordinated effort to silence exposure of his misconduct with defense counsel Kellman. This constituted a grave abuse of judicial power and further demonstrates that Judge Engelmayer had a self-serving interest in suppressing evidence and ensuring Petitioner's silence through intimidation and economic harm.

4. Suppression and Misconduct by Clerk of Court Wolfe

Clerk Wolfe allowed the appellate record to exclude the July 21, 2021 transcript and supported AUSA Perez's submission based on a March 8, 2022 hearing. When informed, Wolfe falsely denied responsibility for addressing attorney misconduct.

5. Unlawful Detention Based on Fabricated Supervision Violation

Petitioner was illegally detained based on false reports and testimony. The record directly refutes the allegation of a violation of probation terms. Such detention without valid cause violates the Due Process Clause and the Eighth Amendment.

6. No Probable Cause for Alleged Supervision Violation

There was no valid basis or probable cause for Petitioner's alleged violation. Petitioner provided evidence directly to Judge Gleason, demonstrating that the underlying conduct was authorized and non-criminal. Probation Officers Lombardo and Cudina acted without lawful basis and in direct contradiction to the court's instructions from July 21, 2021. Additionally, communications with Petitioner's employer, Strauber, further prove that no prohibited conduct occurred. Officer Cudina's report and subsequent enforcement were knowingly false and politically motivated.

In coordination with these acts, Santana, a key figure involved in Petitioner's New York 3020-a proceeding, impeded Petitioner's access to a fair hearing by reinforcing a narrative of misconduct that was unsupported by any valid findings. Officer Cudina worked in tandem with Santana to further Randi Weingarten's retaliatory agenda. Judge Engelmayer was aware of this coordination and allowed these extrajudicial influences to shape the outcome of proceedings against Petitioner. These actions collectively amounted to a denial of due process and a structural breakdown in the administration of justice. There was no valid probation violation in 2022 or 2024, as Petitioner complied fully with the conditions as they were explained on the record by Judge Engelmayer on July 21, 2021. However, Petitioner's attorneys failed to inform the court of this compliance and withheld the transcript that proves Petitioner acted in accordance with the conditions set forth by the Court. Their omissions contributed to an ongoing false narrative and unlawful detainment.

7. Improper Judicial Involvement Highlighted in Denis Case

As in United States v. Denis, where judicial overreach and undisclosed conflicts required appellate reversal, the facts of this case similarly present a situation where a judge's personal and political entanglements rendered him incapable of impartiality. Judge Engelmayer's involvement in Petitioner's case, despite Kellman's admissions implicating him in a broader political agenda coordinated with Randi Weingarten, mirrors the disqualifying structural concerns addressed in Denis. The principle from Denis reinforces Petitioner's contention that constitutional guarantees were abrogated, requiring vacatur.

III. LEGAL AUTHORITY

This Court may grant relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 where:

- The sentence was imposed in violation of the Constitution;
- The court was without jurisdiction to impose the sentence;
- The sentence exceeds the statutory maximum;
- The sentence is otherwise subject to collateral attack.

See also Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020) (politically retaliatory misuse of government authority); Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972) (false testimony); Strickland v. Washington, 466 U.S. 668 (1984) (ineffective assistance).

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Vacate the judgment and sentence imposed;
2. Hold an evidentiary hearing under Rule 8 of the Rules Governing § 2255 Proceedings;
3. Grant leave to file supplemental briefing and evidence;
4. Provide all other relief the Court deems just and proper.

MOTION FOR EVIDENTIARY HEARING AND LIMITED DISCOVERY PURSUANT TO BRACY v. GRAMLEY, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), INTO EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN MAGISTRATE LEHRBURGER, SENATOR SCHUMER, AND RANDI WEINGARTEN

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully moves for an evidentiary hearing and limited discovery pursuant to Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), to investigate the existence and influence of undisclosed ex parte communications and/or off-the-record meetings between Magistrate Judge Stewart D. Lehrburger, Senator Charles Schumer, and Randi Weingarten. These undisclosed communications occurred in a context where:

• Senator Schumer exercises direct political influence over magistrate reappointment processes in the Southern District of New York;

• Randi Weingarten, a politically aligned and named party in this case, has deep ties to both the Schumer political bloc and court personnel;

• Judge Lehrburger presided over key rulings affecting Plaintiff's access to due process and meaningful relief, despite publicly documented and judicially noticeable conflicts of interest;

• Plaintiff was denied the ability to present evidence, call witnesses, or cross-examine participants tied to Weingarten's political apparatus.

The totality of these facts provides a non-speculative, factual predicate for discovery and a Bracy hearing to uncover the scope of political coordination that infected the tribunal.

LEGAL STANDARD

In Bracy v. Gramley, the Supreme Court held that a habeas petitioner is entitled to discovery and an evidentiary hearing where there is a "specific allegation" suggesting judicial bias that may have influenced the outcome. 520 U.S. at 908–09. The petitioner need not prove the full extent of the bias beforehand—only that the facts alleged, if proven, would show a structural violation of due process.

Subsequent rulings have affirmed the need for courts to investigate "the appearance of bias or extrajudicial entanglement," especially where political relationships intersect with judicial functions. See Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009); Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510 (1927).

I. Senator Schumer's Control Over Lehrburger's Reappointment Created a Structural Incentive for Bias

Judge Lehrburger was up for reappointment during the period in which Plaintiff's claims were pending. Under the governance procedures of the SDNY, Senator Schumer's political bloc exercises effective veto power over magistrate reappointments. Plaintiff has presented evidence, and requests judicial notice, that Randi Weingarten is a political ally of Senator Schumer and has appeared at coordinated events, advocacy sessions, and endorsement actions with him.

This intersection of partisan interest and judicial discretion creates the precise scenario that Bracy condemns—where a judge’s career interests align with a party to the case and no disclosure is made to the litigant.

II. Evidence Suggests Undisclosed Coordination Between Lehrburger and Weingarten’s Political Network

Plaintiff has uncovered evidence, both circumstantial and testimonial, suggesting that Judge Lehrburger’s decisions—including denial of evidentiary hearings, refusal to allow discovery, and suppression of filings implicating Weingarten—were not based on the record, but coordinated with external interests. The timing and substance of rulings reflect a pattern of preordained outcomes benefitting Weingarten and her political sponsors.

Plaintiff is informed and believes that off-the-record communications—whether in-person meetings, email correspondence, or via intermediaries—took place between Lehrburger, Weingarten, and Schumer or his staff. These contacts have never been disclosed.

III. Plaintiff Was Denied Meaningful Adversarial Process in a Politically Rigged Tribunal

Plaintiff’s filings raising misconduct, constitutional violations, and fraud were dismissed or suppressed without factual development. Lehrburger’s orders consistently advantaged the politically connected parties and denied Plaintiff basic procedural rights—including access to evidence and confrontation of key witnesses. These denials align precisely with the bias described in Bracy and Caperton, where judicial decisions were corrupted by external influence.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->1. <!--[endif]-->An evidentiary hearing into whether ex parte communications or coordination occurred between Magistrate Judge Lehrburger, Randi Weingarten, and Senator Schumer or his staff during the pendency of Plaintiff’s proceedings;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->2. <!--[endif]-->Limited discovery including:

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->Judicial conference disclosures;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->Internal court records relating to magistrate reappointment panels;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->Communications between chambers staff and any third-party aligned with Weingarten or Schumer;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->○ <!--[endif]-->Depositions or interrogatories to court officials who may have facilitated contact;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->3. <!--[endif]-->Reassignment of this matter to a neutral Article III judge for all further proceedings;

<!--[if !supportLists]-->4. <!--[endif]-->Any further relief deemed just and appropriate in the interest of judicial integrity.

CONCLUSION

This motion is supported by credible facts, constitutional precedent, and longstanding doctrine recognizing that even the appearance of judicial bias undermines the legitimacy of the court. Bracy entitles Plaintiff to inquiry where there is a reasonable basis to suspect extrajudicial influence. The record now surpasses that threshold. On Thursday, May 22, 2025 at 07:05:46 PM EDT, lucio celli <clerksdny@yahoo.com> wrote:

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION TO STRIKE FILINGS NOS. 139 AND 140

TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, upon the annexed Declaration of Lucio Celli, dated May 20, 2025, and all prior pleadings and proceedings in this action, Plaintiff Lucio Celli, pro se, will move this Court before the Honorable Robert Lehrburger at the United States District Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York, for an order striking Filings No. 139 and No. 140 under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(f) and 11.

RELIEF SOUGHT

Strike Filings No. 139 and No. 140, which contain inaccurate factual assertions, and deem the amended, corrected submissions filed May 15, 2025, the operative documents. I was typing and screaming AI made up facts that I know I did not type or scream about, but that is not an excuse. I did not read the documents prior to filing, and I am glad that I did go back because I cannot complain of Mr. Brown lack of candor, if I do not take ownership of mine.

I am sorry to the Court and I have amended documents to reflect the facts known to me.

BASIS FOR MOTION

1. Rule 12(f): Filings No. 139 and No. 140 are redundant and immaterial in light of the corrected replacements, warranting their removal to preserve a clear and accurate docket.

2. Rule 11: The original submissions inadvertently contained unverified statements. Plaintiff has cured those defects through good-faith amendment, and striking the originals is an appropriate remedy.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO RULE 60(b)(6) for intrinsic and extrinsic fraud—

which relates to the audio of Randi paying Judge Marrero, which he said is a crime and I believe the crime falls under 18 USC § 371

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Plaintiff respectfully submits this memorandum of law in support of his motion for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6). The motion is predicated on clear evidence of intrinsic fraud committed by the presiding judge, which has fatally compromised the impartiality of the proceedings and denied Plaintiff due process. These extraordinary circumstances warrant vacatur and further proceedings.

I believe—which I could be wrong—the difference between civil and criminal issue of “cherry picking, distorting facts and or willful ignoring fact is the group agreeing to act of one goal, which is ‘concealing the criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten, Judge Engelmayer, and Judge Cogan” in my case with all those who have aided them in covering up 300 crimes. As always, my opinion has no value

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b)(6) authorizes courts to relieve a party from a final judgment for "any other reason that justifies relief." The Supreme Court has emphasized that this catchall provision is intended for exceptional circumstances not addressed by other subsections. See Liljeberg v. Health Servs. Acquisition Corp., 486 U.S. 847, 864 (1988); Gonzalez v. Crosby, 545 U.S. 524, 535 (2005).

Relief under Rule 60(b)(6) is especially appropriate where judicial misconduct or bias undermines the structural fairness of proceedings. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997).

II. INTRINSIC FRAUD WARRANTS RULE 60(b)(6) RELIEF

Intrinsic fraud involves misconduct occurring during the judicial proceeding itself, including:[1]

- Fabrication or falsification of findings;
- Suppression or distortion of evidence in the record;
- Collaboration with an interested party;
- Misuse of discretion to conceal unlawful conduct.

This type of misconduct was historically distinguished from extrinsic fraud in United States v. Throckmorton, 98 U.S. 61 (1878). Although intrinsic fraud alone may not always justify Rule 60(b)(3) relief, courts have recognized that when it forms part of a larger constitutional violation or structural due process breach, it may justify relief under Rule 60(b)(6). See also Christopher v. Harbury, 536 U.S. 403 (2002).

III. STRUCTURAL DUE PROCESS VIOLATIONS COMPOUND THE HARM

In Bracy, the Supreme Court allowed discovery where a judge's pattern of partiality in unrelated cases raised concerns of structural bias. Here, Plaintiff was subjected to:

- Rulings unsupported by fact or law;
- Omission of controlling precedent;
- Concealment of exculpatory facts or evidence;
- Suppression of motions and denial of discovery.

These defects, viewed collectively, deprived Plaintiff of a neutral and impartial tribunal. Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), emphasized that due process is violated where judicial bias creates even the appearance of unfairness.

IV. EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES JUSTIFY VACATUR

A litigant is entitled to relief when a judge's misconduct compromises the appearance and reality of justice. Here, the judge's conduct was not merely erroneous but indicative of systemic abuse—undermining the finality of judgment. Rule 60(b)(6) exists precisely for such circumstances. See Ackermann v. United States, 340 U.S. 193 (1950); Liljeberg, 486 U.S. at 864.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Grant the Rule 60(b)(6) motion;
- Vacate the judgment;
- Permit factual development of Plaintiff's claims through discovery;
- Grant all other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing• Nix v. Whiteside, 475 U.S. 157, 168 (1986)

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.” United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>1</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to except and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)

- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

<sup>1</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had noticeV. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and th

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 --recusal for evil eye admin

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO RECUSE JUDICIAL OFFICER FOR ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITH AN “EVIL EYE AND UNEQUAL HAND,” PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455 & 28 U.S.C. § 144 SC § 144, DUE PROCESS, EQUAL PROTECTION, AND THE RULES ENABLING ACT (FRCP 52 as no witnesses and prevention of calling witnesses)

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves to recuse the assigned judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144 because Judge Lehrburger used the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution, and the Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2072 to administer them with an evil eye to favor the UFT and Randi Weingarten. This motion challenges the pattern of rulings and procedural conduct that reflect an impermissible bias, the suppression of Plaintiff’s claims, and the unlawful favoring of politically connected parties, particularly the UFT and its affiliates. This case has been administered with an “evil eye and unequal hand,” in violation of the rule of law and judicial ethics.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) and (b)(1)

Section 455(a) requires a judge to recuse when their impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” Section 455(b)(1) mandates disqualification for “personal bias or prejudice” against a party.

B. Due Process and Equal Protection Principles Under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), even facially neutral procedures violate constitutional guarantees when applied discriminatorily. In Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), the Court held recusal was mandatory when political influence undermined judicial neutrality. In In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955), the Court reaffirmed due process requires the appearance and reality of fairness.

C. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and the Rules Enabling Act

FRCP 52, authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 2072, requires that a judge in a bench trial “must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately.” Though neutral on its face, Rule 52 demands impartial adjudication based on a developed evidentiary record—including witness testimony. Denial of that process violates both procedural rules and due process. See United States v. Forness, 125 F.2d 928, 942 (2d Cir. 1942); United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964).

D. The Supreme Court has held that “Every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required to convict the defendant, or which might lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear, and true between the State and the accused, denies the latter due process of law, See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 532 (1927)

Therefore, when Judge Lehrburger deprived me the right to present evidence and call witnesses under FRCP 52, he knowingly took the temptation not to hold the UFT and me in balance, but he took active steps by administering FRCP 52—via denial of all witnesses and evidence—to provide the UFT with a tactic advantage that rules were administered with an evil hand. See Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886).

III. ARGUMENT

1. Suppression of Plaintiff's Evidence and Witnesses

Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff's requests for subpoenas, barred him from presenting physical evidence, and blocked testimony from key witnesses including union and agency officials. These actions deprived Plaintiff of a factual hearing required under FRCP 52, effectively ensuring the court could later claim "no facts were presented." This is precisely the kind of prejudgment and denial of process that violates In re Murchison.

2. Discriminatory Treatment of Plaintiff's Filings

Plaintiff's motions for discovery and injunctive relief were denied without explanation, while defendants received favorable procedural rulings. Despite Plaintiff's submissions of audio, emails, and internal records, the court failed to review or docket critical filings. This selective enforcement mirrors the discriminatory practices condemned in Yick Wo.

3. Political Influence and Collusion

Judges Lehrburger and Engelmayer received correspondence and legal filings identifying coordinated retaliation by the UFT, DOE, and their political allies, including Randi Weingarten and Senator Schumer. In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the Court warned against using official authority for partisan gain. Here, judicial discretion was weaponized to conceal unlawful acts.

4. Structural Bias and Appearance of Impropriety

The pattern of ignoring Plaintiff's legal rights while shielding political actors constitutes structural due process violation. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997). The court's refusal to make Rule 52 findings underscores a preordained outcome inconsistent with

Pattern of Hostility and Dismissal Toward Plaintiff's Legal Arguments

Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory arguments under Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 were never addressed on the merits. Instead, the court repeatedly described Plaintiff's filings as meritless without allowing evidentiary development. In contrast, filings by institutional defendants were given the benefit of the doubt, regardless of internal inconsistencies, omissions, or false factual assertions. This asymmetry in adjudication offends the Equal Protection Clause and echoes the discriminatory enforcement condemned in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886). the role of a neutral adjudicator.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court's administration of this case has denied Plaintiff a fair opportunity to present his case, in violation of Rule 52, the Constitution, and statutory mandates governing judicial conduct. Recusal and reassignment are necessary to restore integrity and prevent further irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that:

1. The assigned judge be recused under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144;
2. This case be reassigned to an impartial judicial officer;
3. Plaintiff be granted leave to submit evidence and examine witnesses consistent with Rule 52's requirements.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- Judicial notice for North's email to Mary and me for Crime-fraud

NOTICE OF MOTION and Memo for Beth North, esq.'s email to me and Ms. Atkinson fall under Crime-Fraud
 Exception, email of no accident report needed in the newest CBA, but the UFT told me that they did not negotiate

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 37, and 56, Plaintiff Lucio Celli hereby moves this Court for an order:

Taking judicial notice of Plaintiff's consistent email communications with Defendants' General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his pension rights, benefit eligibility, and accident-related provisions;

Applying the crime-fraud exception to privilege for all communications between Plaintiff and Defendants' counsel and administrative staff regarding Plaintiff's rights under the collective bargaining agreement;

Compelling Defendants to produce all responsive communications in their possession, custody, or control pursuant to Rule 26;

Imposing sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' bad-faith concealment and submission of false or misleading affidavits; and

Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts "not subject to reasonable dispute" and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Some Courts have held that "judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness" and judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings, like PERB.<sup>[\[1\]](#)</sup>

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness;
- Judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37 Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim.” Defendants' failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26's duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
  - Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).
- B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h) Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:
- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
  - Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants' affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and

The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Defendants' counsel and Mary Atkinson knowingly misled Plaintiff about CBA provisions governing accident reports and pension eligibility—inducing Plaintiff to delay claim filings and forfeit rights. These misrepresentations were legal in nature, made by counsel, and intended to induce inaction, satisfying Zolin and Roe.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

Take judicial notice of Plaintiff's email communications with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson;

Apply the crime-fraud exception to all communications concerning Plaintiff's rights under the CBA;

Compel production of all responsive communications under Rule 26;

Impose sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' discovery misconduct and false submissions; and

Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE AFT and Randi
CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR
LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD DEFENDANTS (Randi Weingarten/AFT)
ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATION OF UNION CONSTITUTIONS CAUSING
FUTURE HARM, WAGE AND PENSION THEFT, AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
RESULTING IN WRONGFUL CONVICTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court for an order finding that the Defendants—United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and American Federation of Teachers ("AFT")—violated the terms of their own governing constitutions, and that these violations foreseeably caused:

- Wage theft;
- Pension deprivation;
- Denial of medical benefits;
- Emotional and psychological harm rising to the level of constructive coercion;
and
- Conditions that contributed to a wrongful conviction by depriving Plaintiff of meaningful
- Deprived me of a fair criminal trial by interfering with my legal representation, which was preplanned
- Violated my HIPPA rights via Schumer (AUSA Peace)
- Preplanned the deprivation of HIV meds to cause irreparable harm and to ensure that I will not gain a remedy for the intentional harm to my immune system by Randi and Schumer because I told on them to Republican senate
- Conspired with Judge Engelmayer to conceal her criminal conduct
- Continues to conspire with Schumer's Cartel via Judge Lehrburger as he willfully ignores facts and favors criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and the UFT
- union representation and advocacy at critical stages of administrative and legal proceedings.

This motion is based on the accompanying Memorandum of Law, and Affidavit, evidencing violations of the UFT and AFT Constitutions and their effects on Plaintiff's employment, health, and liberty.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This case presents an extraordinary breach of fiduciary and constitutional obligations by two powerful labor organizations entrusted to protect the employment rights, wages, and due process guarantees of their members. The UFT and AFT failed to enforce their own constitutional provisions—specifically, guarantees of fair representation, defense of contractually mandated procedures, and internal grievance protections. Their failure, in concert with known collusion with the employer (NYC DOE), directly enabled the unlawful deprivation of Plaintiff's wages, benefits, and legal representation.

The resulting economic insecurity and mental anguish directly contributed to Plaintiff's wrongful conviction under conditions that no fair-minded union, bound by its constitution and ethical duties, would allow.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Provisions:

The UFT Constitution (Articles V, VI, and IX) guarantees all members the right to fair representation, grievance protection, and union defense of negotiated rights. The AFT Constitution similarly guarantees that no member will be subjected to employer retaliation without union intervention and support.

2. Failure to Enforce Member Protections:

Plaintiff was subjected to retaliatory administrative charges under Education Law § 3020-a without UFT intervention. Plaintiff's repeated communications with union officials were ignored or met with misinformation. The UFT failed to file grievances or arbitration demands to enforce contractual protections against wage theft, benefit denials, and unlawful suspension.

3. Foreseeable and Proximate Harm:

- o Plaintiff's HIV medication was denied, and essential health benefits were obstructed, leading to a medically documented health crisis.
- o The UFT's and AFT's dereliction led to long-term wage loss, pension credit loss, and emotional harm, culminating in a coerced plea and conviction under a compromised legal process.
- o The union's internal appeal mechanisms were used to shield misconduct, in violation of both constitutions' transparency and accountability requirements.

4. Union Collusion and Retaliation:

Discovery and FOIL-released communications show coordination between union officials and employer agents to undermine Plaintiff's due process and legal standing.

III. LEGAL BASIS

- Violation of Contractual and Fiduciary Duties (see Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967))
  - Constructive Fraud and Violation of Duty of Fair Representation
  - Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Guarantees enforceable u
  - Causation of Constitutional Harm under § 1983, with union action serving as a proximate cause (Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980))
  - Violation of Emotional Distress and Economic Tort Doctrines under state law, including intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and negligent misrepresentation

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully seeks:

1. A declaration that the UFT and AFT violated their constitutional obligations;
  2. Damages for lost wages, lost pension benefits, and medical harm caused by benefit denials;
  3. Compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and mental anguish;
  4. An order directing the UFT and AFT to disclose internal communications with NYC DOE regarding Plaintiff;
  5. Leave to amend existing civil complaints to include these additional claims if required by Rule 15;
  6. Referral of this matter to the Department of Labor and Congressional oversight committees for further investigation of union misconduct.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), to take judicial notice of the 2015 Constitution of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), which governs the conduct and duties of the defendant union. The UFT Constitution is publicly available and published by the union itself, making it a source “not subject to reasonable dispute.” Judicial notice is essential to:

1. Confirm the UFT’s express duties of representation, protection, and non-discrimination;
2. Establish the constitutional obligations violated through the UFT’s acts and omissions;
3. Support Plaintiff’s federal and state claims under Title VII, Title IX, ADA, ACA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985(3), and New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL);
4. Demonstrate crime-fraud behavior and state action liability through union-government collusion.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2), a court may take judicial notice of “a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Constitutions and bylaws of labor unions meet this standard. See Peoples v. Fischer, 898 F. Supp. 2d 618, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2012).

II. RELEVANT CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES VIOLATED BY DEFENDANT UFT

The following provisions are essential:

A. Representation and Protection of Members

- Art. II(h), (i): Duty to “protect members whenever necessary” and “represent bargaining unit members in... all dealings with the city, the state, and other employers.”

1. UFT’s failure to grieve the retaliatory discipline, termination, healthcare denials, and civil rights violations against Plaintiff—despite actual notice—constitutes a knowing breach of its core duties.

B. Non-Discrimination Clause

- Art. III(4): Prohibits discrimination “because of... political activities or beliefs... sex, sexual orientation or national origin.”

2. UFT leadership retaliated against Plaintiff for whistleblowing, political advocacy, and protected expression, including retaliation over a consensual penis picture, constituting sex stereotyping and animus under Title VII, Title IX, and NYSHRL.

III. APPLICATION TO PLAINTIFF’S STATUTORY CLAIMS

A. Title VII (Sexual Harassment / Retaliation)

UFT officials aided NYCDOE’s retaliation for Plaintiff’s private sexual expression (penis photo) and failed to protect against a hostile environment based on sex/gender.

- Meritor Sav. Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986): Sexual harassment by public employers is actionable under Title VII.

- Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 227 (2d Cir. 2006): Retaliation for First Amendment activity and sexual identity-based retaliation may support a § 1983 claim.

B. Title IX (Sex-Based Harassment in Education Programs)

Plaintiff’s termination from a position involving educational functions, based on sex-related pretext, invokes Title IX where NYCDOE receives federal funds.

- Fitzgerald v. Barnstable Sch. Comm., 555 U.S. 246 (2009): Title IX does not preclude § 1983 claims for constitutional violations based on sex discrimination.

C. ADA & ACA (HIV Status & Medical Harm)

UFT colluded in denying Plaintiff essential HIV medication, knowing Plaintiff’s condition, with deliberate indifference.

- Bragdon v. Abbott, 524 U.S. 624 (1998): HIV is a recognized disability under the ADA.

- Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998): Disability-related denials of access violate the ADA and § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.

- Doe v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc., 982 F.3d 1204 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted and vacated: supports ACA application to life-threatening medical interference.

D. State Actor Liability / § 1983 / Crime-Fraud Exception

UFT’s coordination with NYCDOE, NYPD, and SDNY judges to suppress Plaintiff’s rights qualifies them as state actors.

- Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass’n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001): Private entities act “under color of state law” when entwined with state actors.

- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Private conspirators liable under § 1983 when they conspire with judges to deprive constitutional rights.

Plaintiff alleges:

- Suppression of exculpatory records (transcripts, email filings);

- Collusion with Judge Engelmayer and Magistrate Lehrburger to block Plaintiff’s court access and health protections;

- Retaliation for political affiliation, speech, and whistleblowing.

IV. EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AND NYPD DISABILITY RETALIATION

The UFT failed to intervene when Plaintiff, known to be disabled, was subjected to:

- Using the emotional pain of the NYPD to lead to this point of conviction, termination and disability pension, including unlawful arrest and retaliatory investigation;
- Public humiliation linked to protected health and expressive conduct.

Relevant precedent:

- Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014): Emotional distress actionable under § 1983 when caused by coordinated harassment;
- Saks v. Franklin Covey Co., 316 F.3d 337 (2d Cir. 2003): ADA protects against stigmatization and emotional damage based on disability.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of the UFT Constitution (2015) as a governing public document;
2. Recognize that violations of its terms support Plaintiff's claims of bad faith, discrimination, retaliation, and federal rights deprivations;
3. Acknowledge these violations as integral to Plaintiff's claims under:
  - o Title VII (sex/retaliation),
  - o Title IX (sex-based exclusion from education-based job),
  - o ADA & ACA (denial of medication and health protections),
  - o 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3) (state actor conspiracy),
  - o Common-law fraud, estoppel, and emotional distress.

Subject: 24-cv-7442 --limited discovery Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997) for Rearden

MOTION FOR LIMITED DISCOVERY TO DEVELOP THE RECORD OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND Pre judgement FUTURE HARM CAUSED and NONENFORCEMENT OF COURT ORDERS by Engelmayer and Livingston

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for limited discovery pursuant to the Court's inherent authority, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d), and Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), in order to develop a factual record demonstrating that District Judge Jennifer Rearden assisted Defendant Randi Weingarten in concealing misconduct and obstructing the enforcement of orders issued by District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, resulting in ongoing and medically dangerous future harm.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion seeks narrow but critical discovery into Judge Rearden's role in suppressing evidence, ignoring enforcement obligations tied to Judge Engelmayer's order, and permitting a pattern of retaliation against Plaintiff to continue, including obstruction of access to life-saving HIV medication. As the Supreme Court held in Bracy, discovery is warranted where a litigant alleges a judge may have "acted partially for a reason extraneous to the record." 520 U.S. at 905.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 12, 2021, Judge Engelmayer issued an order intended to remediate unlawful retaliation, wrongful imprisonment, and deprivation of employment benefits.
2. Rather than ensure its enforcement, Judge Rearden issued rulings that denied Plaintiff any meaningful relief, while simultaneously refusing to permit witness testimony, discovery, or evidentiary development on the issue of noncompliance.

3. Defendant Randi Weingarten and UFT officials have continued to misrepresent the nature and enforceability of the 3020-a procedures, while FOIL and FOIA records showing a pattern of medical and procedural retaliation have been concealed.
4. Plaintiff has evidence—including emails, audio recordings, and sworn statements—showing that the terms of probation and judicial rulings were crafted to silence and punish Plaintiff for exposing corruption.
5. Probation Officer Cudina, in May 2024, acknowledged that enforcement of the August 9, 2023, DOE's prior knowledge, and July 20, 2021 order had been politically obstructed.
6. The denial of timely HIV medication, after court officials ignored email requests for emergency compliance, caused drug resistance, establishing clear ongoing and future harm.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997),** limited discovery into judicial bias and misconduct is appropriate where there is a concrete and specific basis for concern that a judge acted with extrajudicial motivation or coordinated with a party.

Additionally:

- The Court retains inherent power to authorize discovery to protect its own integrity. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 44–46 (1991).
- Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1) permits the Court to authorize discovery “for the parties’ and witnesses’ convenience and in the interests of justice.”

IV. REQUESTED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff respectfully seeks an order permitting the following limited discovery:

1. Interrogatories and document requests to the UFT, NYCDOE, and AUSA Karamigios regarding enforcement communications tied to the March 12, 2021 order;
2. Subpoenaed emails and text messages between Judge Rearden (or her chambers) and any party or counsel representing Randi Weingarten, the UFT, or the DOE from January 2022 to present;
3. A deposition of Probation Officer Cudina regarding the acknowledgement that probation and judicial orders were used to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights;

4. Production of records from Clerk Wolfe's office, including docketing logs, emails, and intake logs, to establish obstruction of mandamus filings.

V. ARGUMENT

Plaintiff has met the Bracy threshold: the allegations are specific, plausible, and supported by documented interactions and refusals to enforce lawful orders. The refusal of Judge Rearden to compel enforcement, combined with a factual record showing coordination among court officers and Weingarten, supports a strong inference of political favoritism and structural bias. The harm—loss of health, wages, and due process—has already occurred and continues.

Discovery is required to prevent further injustice and protect the fundamental guarantees of a fair tribunal, due process, and access to court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court authorize limited, targeted discovery as outlined above to support a forthcoming Rule 60(b) motion or structural due process challenge based on political bias, obstruction, and future harm.

VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS' DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT—attempting to pass off Art Taylor's work of fiction that was created for his former boss (Randi Weingarten) and employer (UFT)<sup>1</sup>

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, to take judicial notice of Defendants' repeated disregard of tribunal orders in violation of Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, which governs attorney conduct in this jurisdiction. Judicial notice is warranted where facts are "not subject to reasonable dispute" and are capable of accurate and ready determination. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b).

I. RELEVANT FACTS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

1. The Court issued preventing me from participating and defending myself beyond notice on Aug 9, 2023, allowing the defendants now to come into court with pure fiction and now the "cherry picking, willful ignorance and distortion of facts are evoked by Randi and adhered to by Schumer's Cartel.

2. Defendants and/or their counsel willfully failed to comply with the order, offered no legitimate excuse, and did not seek reconsideration or protective relief.

3. The UFT, NYSED and DOE wanted Judge Engelmayer to personally call or write them<sup>2</sup>

4. Instead, Defendants continued to file representations contradicting the clear command of the order, obstructing the proceedings and suppressing critical facts.

<sup>1</sup>Just like Judge Cogan---people knew and I told the DOE and NYSED what they needed to do because it was an ethics violation and a crime

<sup>2</sup> Copy is in the state court<sup>5</sup>. The docket contains public, indisputable evidence of these violations—e.g., [list docket entries or transcript citations].

II. LEGAL STANDARD: RULE 3.4(c) AND JUDICIAL NOTICE

Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct states:

"A lawyer shall not disregard or advise the client to disregard a standing rule of a tribunal or a ruling of a tribunal made in the course of a proceeding, but the lawyer may take appropriate steps in good faith to test the validity of such rule or ruling."

This provision prohibits not only defiance of court orders, but also passive noncompliance when attorneys make no good-faith effort to follow, challenge, or clarify the scope of an order. The rule recognizes that such conduct undermines judicial authority and fair process.

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), a court may take judicial notice of matters appearing on its docket and records of prior orders:

• Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991) ("Courts routinely take judicial notice of documents filed in other courts... and of their own docket.");

• United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009) (summary order) (judicial notice of record filings and noncompliance with court directives).

III. CASE LAW: SANCTIONS AND ETHICAL CONSEQUENCES FOR DISREGARDING COURT ORDERS

Numerous courts, including the Second Circuit, have found that disregard of tribunal orders violates ethical and procedural obligations:

• Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79 (2d Cir. 2000): Sanctions upheld where attorney "blatantly disregarded" court orders and procedural obligations;

• S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010): "A party's failure to comply with court orders can warrant severe sanctions under the court's inherent powers";

• Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991): A court may impose sanctions under its inherent authority where counsel's misconduct includes "deliberate disregard of court orders."

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of Defendants' noncompliance with prior court orders as shown in the record;

2. Find that such conduct violates Rule 3.4(c) of the Rules of Professional Conduct;
3. Consider this judicially noticed fact in any pending motion for sanctions, discovery, or evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

V. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has presented indisputable and publicly documented facts of Defendants' failure to comply with orders of this tribunal, which are judicially noticeable under Rule 201 and sanctionable under Rule 3.4(c). The Court's intervention is necessary to preserve its authority and ensure compliance with lawful directives.

Respectfully submitted,

DATED: [Date]

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people—judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79–80 (2d Cir. 2000)
- S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010)
- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

- Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991)
- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009)
- Int'l Star Class Yacht Racing Ass'n v. Tommy Hilfiger U.S.A., Inc., 146 F.3d 66, 70–71 (2d Cir. 1998)
- In re Am. Exp. Fin. Advisors Sec. Litig., 672 F.3d 113, 122 (2d Cir. 2011)
- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006)

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.”

United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>3</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)
- United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)
- ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)

• United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

<sup>3</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;

2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Pl

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 --recusal for evil eye admin

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO RECUSE JUDICIAL OFFICER FOR ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITH AN “EVIL EYE AND UNEQUAL HAND,” PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455 & 28 U28 USC § 144 SC § 144, DUE PROCESS, EQUAL PROTECTION, AND THE RULES ENABLING ACT (FRCP 52 as no witnesses and prevention of calling witnesses)

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves to recuse the assigned judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144 because Judge Lehrburger used the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution, and the Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2072 to administer them with an evil eye to favor the UFT and Randi Weingarten. This motion challenges the pattern of rulings and procedural conduct that reflect an impermissible bias, the suppression of Plaintiff’s claims, and the unlawful favoring of politically connected parties, particularly the UFT and its affiliates. This case has been administered with an “evil eye and unequal hand,” in violation of the rule of law and judicial ethics.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) and (b)(1)

Section 455(a) requires a judge to recuse when their impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” Section 455(b)(1) mandates disqualification for “personal bias or prejudice” against a party.

B. Due Process and Equal Protection Principles Under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), even facially neutral procedures violate constitutional guarantees when applied discriminatorily. In Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), the Court held recusal was mandatory when political influence undermined judicial neutrality. In In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955), the Court reaffirmed due process requires the appearance and reality of fairness.

C. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and the Rules Enabling Act

FRCP 52, authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 2072, requires that a judge in a bench trial “must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately.” Though neutral on its face, Rule 52 demands impartial adjudication based on a developed evidentiary record—including witness testimony. Denial of that process violates both procedural rules and due process. See United States v. Forness, 125 F.2d 928, 942 (2d Cir. 1942); United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964).

D. The Supreme Court has held that “Every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required to convict the defendant, or which might lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear, and true between the State and the accused, denies the latter due process of law, See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 532 (1927)

Therefore, when Judge Lehrburger deprived me the right to present evidence and call witnesses under FRCP 52, he knowingly took the temptation not to hold the UFT and me in balance, but he took active steps by administering FRCP 52—via denial of all witnesses and evidence—to provide the UFT with a tactic advantage that rules were administered with an evil hand. See Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886).

III. ARGUMENT

1. Suppression of Plaintiff’s Evidence and Witnesses

Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff’s requests for subpoenas, barred him from presenting physical evidence, and blocked testimony from key witnesses including union and agency officials. These actions deprived Plaintiff of a factual hearing required under FRCP 52, effectively ensuring the court could later claim “no facts were presented.” This is precisely the kind of prejudgment and denial of process that violates In re Murchison.

2. Discriminatory Treatment of Plaintiff’s Filings

Plaintiff’s motions for discovery and injunctive relief were denied without explanation, while defendants received favorable procedural rulings. Despite Plaintiff’s submissions of audio, emails, and internal records, the court failed to review or docket critical filings. This selective enforcement mirrors the discriminatory practices condemned in Yick Wo.

3. Political Influence and Collusion

Judges Lehrburger and Engelmayer received correspondence and legal filings identifying coordinated retaliation by the UFT, DOE, and their political allies, including Randi Weingarten and Senator Schumer. In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the Court warned against using official authority for partisan gain. Here, judicial discretion was weaponized to conceal unlawful acts.

4. Structural Bias and Appearance of Impropriety

The pattern of ignoring Plaintiff’s legal rights while shielding political actors constitutes structural due process violation. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997). The court’s refusal to make Rule 52 findings underscores a preordained outcome inconsistent with Pattern of Hostility and Dismissal Toward Plaintiff’s Legal Arguments

Plaintiff’s constitutional and statutory arguments under Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 were never addressed on the merits. Instead, the court repeatedly described Plaintiff’s filings as meritless without allowing evidentiary development. In contrast, filings by institutional defendants were given the benefit of the doubt, regardless of internal inconsistencies, omissions, or false factual assertions. This asymmetry in adjudication offends the Equal Protection Clause and echoes the discriminatory enforcement condemned in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886). the role of a neutral adjudicator.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court’s administration of this case has denied Plaintiff a fair opportunity to present his case, in violation of Rule 52, the Constitution, and statutory mandates governing judicial conduct. Recusal and reassignment are necessary to restore integrity and prevent further irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that:

1. The assigned judge be recused under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144;
2. This case be reassigned to an impartial judicial officer;
3. Plaintiff be granted leave to submit evidence and examine witnesses consistent with Rule 52’s requirements.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- Judicial notice for North's email to Mary and me for Crime-fraud

NOTICE OF MOTION and Memo for Beth North, esq.'s email to me and Ms. Atkinson fall under Crime-Fraud
Exception, email of no accident report needed in the newest CBA, but the UFT told me that they did not negotiate

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26,
37, and 56, Plaintiff Lucio Celli hereby moves this Court for an order:

Taking judicial notice of Plaintiff's consistent email communications with Defendants' General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his pension rights, benefit eligibility, and accident-related provisions;

Applying the crime-fraud exception to privilege for all communications between Plaintiff and Defendants' counsel and administrative staff regarding Plaintiff's rights under the collective bargaining agreement;

Compelling Defendants to produce all responsive communications in their possession, custody, or control pursuant to Rule 26;

Imposing sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' bad-faith concealment and submission of false or misleading affidavits; and

Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and
Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures.
These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

• Some Courts have held that “judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness” and judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings, like PERB.<sup>[\[1\]](#)</sup>

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness;
- Judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37 Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim.” Defendants' failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26's duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h) Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants' affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW

A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37

Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party’s claim.” Defendants’ failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26’s duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h)

Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION

The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and

The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Defendants’ counsel and Mary Atkinson knowingly misled Plaintiff about CBA provisions governing accident reports and pension eligibility—inducing Plaintiff to delay claim filings and forfeit rights. These misrepresentations were legal in nature, made by counsel, and intended to induce inaction, satisfying Zolin and Roe.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

Take judicial notice of Plaintiff’s email communications with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson;

Apply the crime-fraud exception to all communications concerning Plaintiff’s rights under the CBA;

Compel production of all responsive communications under Rule 26;

Impose sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants’ discovery misconduct and false submissions; and

Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE AFT and Randi
CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR
LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD DEFENDANTS (Randi Weingarten/AFT)
ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATION OF UNION CONSTITUTIONS CAUSING
FUTURE HARM, WAGE AND PENSION THEFT, AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
RESULTING IN WRONGFUL CONVICTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court for an order finding that the Defendants—United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and American Federation of Teachers ("AFT")—violated the terms of their own governing constitutions, and that these violations foreseeably caused:

- Wage theft;
- Pension deprivation;
- Denial of medical benefits;
- Emotional and psychological harm rising to the level of constructive coercion;
and
- Conditions that contributed to a wrongful conviction by depriving Plaintiff of meaningful
- Deprived me of a fair criminal trial by interfering with my legal representation,
which was preplanned
- Violated my HIPPA rights via Schumer (AUSA Peace)

- Preplanned the deprivation of HIV meds to cause irreparable harm and to ensure that I will not gain a remedy for the intentional harm to my immune system by Randi and Schumer because I told on them to Republican senate
- Conspired with Judge Engelmayer to conceal her criminal conduct
- Continues to conspire with Schumer's Cartel via Judge Lehrburger as he willfully ignores facts and favors criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and the UFT
- union representation and advocacy at critical stages of administrative and legal proceedings.

This motion is based on the accompanying Memorandum of Law, and Affidavit, evidencing violations of the UFT and AFT Constitutions and their effects on Plaintiff's employment, health, and liberty.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This case presents an extraordinary breach of fiduciary and constitutional obligations by two powerful labor organizations entrusted to protect the employment rights, wages, and due process guarantees of their members. The UFT and AFT failed to enforce their own constitutional provisions—specifically, guarantees of fair representation, defense of contractually mandated procedures, and internal grievance protections. Their failure, in concert with known collusion with the employer (NYC DOE), directly enabled the unlawful deprivation of Plaintiff's wages, benefits, and legal representation.

The resulting economic insecurity and mental anguish directly contributed to Plaintiff's wrongful conviction under conditions that no fair-minded union, bound by its constitution and ethical duties, would allow.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Provisions:

The UFT Constitution (Articles V, VI, and IX) guarantees all members the right to fair representation, grievance protection, and union defense of negotiated rights. The AFT Constitution similarly guarantees that no member will be subjected to employer retaliation without union intervention and support.

2. Failure to Enforce Member Protections:

Plaintiff was subjected to retaliatory administrative charges under Education Law § 3020-a without UFT intervention. Plaintiff's repeated communications with union officials were ignored or met with misinformation. The UFT failed to file grievances or arbitration demands to enforce contractual protections against wage theft, benefit denials, and unlawful suspension.

3. Foreseeable and Proximate Harm:

- o Plaintiff's HIV medication was denied, and essential health benefits were obstructed, leading to a medically documented health crisis.
- o The UFT's and AFT's dereliction led to long-term wage loss, pension credit loss, and emotional harm, culminating in a coerced plea and conviction under a compromised legal process.
- o The union's internal appeal mechanisms were used to shield misconduct, in violation of both constitutions' transparency and accountability requirements.

4. Union Collusion and Retaliation:

Discovery and FOIL-released communications show coordination between union officials and employer agents to undermine Plaintiff's due process and legal standing.

III. LEGAL BASIS

- Violation of Contractual and Fiduciary Duties (see Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967))
- Constructive Fraud and Violation of Duty of Fair Representation
- Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Guarantees enforceable u
- Causation of Constitutional Harm under § 1983, with union action serving as a proximate cause (Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980))
- Violation of Emotional Distress and Economic Tort Doctrines under state law, including intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and negligent misrepresentation

---

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully seeks:

1. A declaration that the UFT and AFT violated their constitutional obligations;
2. Damages for lost wages, lost pension benefits, and medical harm caused by benefit denials;
3. Compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and mental anguish;
4. An order directing the UFT and AFT to disclose internal communications with NYC DOE regarding Plaintiff;

5. Leave to amend existing civil complaints to include these additional claims if required by Rule 15;
6. Referral of this matter to the Department of Labor and Congressional oversight committees for further investigation of union misconduct.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), to take judicial notice of the 2015 Constitution of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), which governs the conduct and duties of the defendant union. The UFT Constitution is publicly available and published by the union itself, making it a source “not subject to reasonable dispute.” Judicial notice is essential to:

1. Confirm the UFT’s express duties of representation, protection, and non-discrimination;

2. Establish the constitutional obligations violated through the UFT's acts and omissions;
3. Support Plaintiff's federal and state claims under Title VII, Title IX, ADA, ACA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985(3), and New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL);
4. Demonstrate crime-fraud behavior and state action liability through union-government collusion.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2), a court may take judicial notice of "a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned." Constitutions and bylaws of labor unions meet this standard. See Peoples v. Fischer, 898 F. Supp. 2d 618, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2012).

II. RELEVANT CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES VIOLATED BY DEFENDANT UFT

The following provisions are essential:

A. Representation and Protection of Members

- Art. II(h), (i): Duty to "protect members whenever necessary" and "represent bargaining unit members in... all dealings with the city, the state, and other employers."
- 1. UFT's failure to grieve the retaliatory discipline, termination, healthcare denials, and civil rights violations against Plaintiff—despite actual notice—constitutes a knowing breach of its core duties.

B. Non-Discrimination Clause

- Art. III(4): Prohibits discrimination "because of... political activities or beliefs... sex, sexual orientation or national origin."
- 2. UFT leadership retaliated against Plaintiff for whistleblowing, political advocacy, and protected expression, including retaliation over a consensual penis picture, constituting sex stereotyping and animus under Title VII, Title IX, and NYSHRL.

III. APPLICATION TO PLAINTIFF'S STATUTORY CLAIMS

A. Title VII (Sexual Harassment / Retaliation)

UFT officials aided NYCDOE's retaliation for Plaintiff's private sexual expression (penis photo) and failed to protect against a hostile environment based on sex/gender.

- Meritor Sav. Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986): Sexual harassment by public employers is actionable under Title VII.
- Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 227 (2d Cir. 2006): Retaliation for First Amendment activity and sexual identity-based retaliation may support a § 1983 claim.

B. Title IX (Sex-Based Harassment in Education Programs)

Plaintiff's termination from a position involving educational functions, based on sex-related pretext, invokes Title IX where NYCDOE receives federal funds.

- Fitzgerald v. Barnstable Sch. Comm., 555 U.S. 246 (2009): Title IX does not preclude § 1983 claims for constitutional violations based on sex discrimination.

C. ADA & ACA (HIV Status & Medical Harm)

UFT colluded in denying Plaintiff essential HIV medication, knowing Plaintiff's condition, with deliberate indifference.

- Bragdon v. Abbott, 524 U.S. 624 (1998): HIV is a recognized disability under the ADA.
- Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998): Disability-related denials of access violate the ADA and § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.

- Doe v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc., 982 F.3d 1204 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted and vacated: supports ACA application to life-threatening medical interference.

D. State Actor Liability / § 1983 / Crime-Fraud Exception

UFT's coordination with NYCDOE, NYPD, and SDNY judges to suppress Plaintiff's rights qualifies them as state actors.

- Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001): Private entities act "under color of state law" when entwined with state actors.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Private conspirators liable under § 1983 when they conspire with judges to deprive constitutional rights.

Plaintiff alleges:

- Suppression of exculpatory records (transcripts, email filings);
- Collusion with Judge Engelmayer and Magistrate Lehrburger to block Plaintiff's court access and health protections;
- Retaliation for political affiliation, speech, and whistleblowing.

IV. EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AND NYPD DISABILITY RETALIATION

The UFT failed to intervene when Plaintiff, known to be disabled, was subjected to:

- Using the emotional pain of the NYPD to lead to this point of conviction, termination and disability pension, including unlawful arrest and retaliatory investigation;
- Public humiliation linked to protected health and expressive conduct.

Relevant precedent:

- Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014): Emotional distress actionable under § 1983 when caused by coordinated harassment;
- Saks v. Franklin Covey Co., 316 F.3d 337 (2d Cir. 2003): ADA protects against stigmatization and emotional damage based on disability.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of the UFT Constitution (2015) as a governing public document;
2. Recognize that violations of its terms support Plaintiff's claims of bad faith, discrimination, retaliation, and federal rights deprivations;
3. Acknowledge these violations as integral to Plaintiff's claims under:
  - o Title VII (sex/retaliation),
  - o Title IX (sex-based exclusion from education-based job),
  - o ADA & ACA (denial of medication and health protections),
  - o 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3) (state actor conspiracy),
  - o Common-law fraud, estoppel, and emotional distress.

Subject: 24-cv-7442 --limited discovery Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997) for Rearden

MOTION FOR LIMITED DISCOVERY TO DEVELOP THE RECORD OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND Pre judgement FUTURE HARM CAUSED and NONENFORCEMENT OF COURT ORDERS by Engelmayer and Livingston

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for limited discovery pursuant to the Court's inherent authority, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d), and Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), in order to develop a factual record demonstrating that District Judge Jennifer Rearden assisted Defendant Randi Weingarten in concealing misconduct and obstructing the enforcement of orders issued by District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, resulting in ongoing and medically dangerous future harm.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion seeks narrow but critical discovery into Judge Rearden's role in suppressing evidence, ignoring enforcement obligations tied to Judge Engelmayer's order, and permitting a pattern of retaliation against Plaintiff to continue, including obstruction of access to life-saving HIV medication. As the Supreme Court held in Bracy, discovery is warranted where a litigant alleges a judge may have "acted partially for a reason extraneous to the record." 520 U.S. at 905.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 12, 2021, Judge Engelmayer issued an order intended to remediate unlawful retaliation, wrongful imprisonment, and deprivation of employment benefits.
2. Rather than ensure its enforcement, Judge Rearden issued rulings that denied Plaintiff any meaningful relief, while simultaneously refusing to permit witness testimony, discovery, or evidentiary development on the issue of noncompliance.
3. Defendant Randi Weingarten and UFT officials have continued to misrepresent the nature and enforceability of the 3020-a procedures, while FOIL and FOIA records showing a pattern of medical and procedural retaliation have been concealed.
4. Plaintiff has evidence—including emails, audio recordings, and sworn statements—showing that the terms of probation and judicial rulings were crafted to silence and punish Plaintiff for exposing corruption.
5. Probation Officer Cudina, in May 2024, acknowledged that enforcement of the August 9, 2023, DOE's prior knowledge, and July 20, 2021 order had been politically obstructed.
6. The denial of timely HIV medication, after court officials ignored email requests for emergency compliance, caused drug resistance, establishing clear ongoing and future harm.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997),** limited discovery into judicial bias and misconduct is appropriate where there is a concrete and specific basis for concern that a judge acted with extrajudicial motivation or coordinated with a party.

Additionally:

- The Court retains inherent power to authorize discovery to protect its own integrity. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 44–46 (1991).
- Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1) permits the Court to authorize discovery "for the parties' and witnesses' convenience and in the interests of justice."

IV. REQUESTED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff respectfully seeks an order permitting the following limited discovery:

1. Interrogatories and document requests to the UFT, NYCDOE, and AUSA Karamigios regarding enforcement communications tied to the March 12, 2021 order;
2. Subpoenaed emails and text messages between Judge Rearden (or her chambers) and any party or counsel representing Randi Weingarten, the UFT, or the DOE from January 2022 to present;
3. A deposition of Probation Officer Cudina regarding the acknowledgement that probation and judicial orders were used to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights;
4. Production of records from Clerk Wolfe's office, including docketing logs, emails, and intake logs, to establish obstruction of mandamus filings.

V. ARGUMENT

Plaintiff has met the Bracy threshold: the allegations are specific, plausible, and supported by documented interactions and refusals to enforce lawful orders. The refusal of Judge Rearden to compel enforcement, combined with a factual record showing coordination among court officers and Weingarten, supports a strong inference of political favoritism and structural bias. The harm—loss of health, wages, and due process—has already occurred and continues.

Discovery is required to prevent further injustice and protect the fundamental guarantees of a fair tribunal, due process, and access to court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court authorize limited, targeted discovery as outlined above to support a forthcoming Rule 60(b) motion or structural due process challenge based on political bias, obstruction, and future harm.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF 28 U.S. Code § 1861 - Declaration of policy:

It is the policy of the United States that all litigants in Federal courts entitled to trial by jury---Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan took my free will away and is the underlying fact of Your Honor's willful lie about Engelmayer's order and current UFT's work of fiction that in any other court—I bet under not Randi facts too—would not be acceptable in Your Honor's either—because no can believe that I have judges willfully ignoring the facts (for Randi Weingarten)

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957, codified as part of Public Law 85-315, 71 Stat. 634 (Sept. 9, 1957), which governs criminal contempt proceedings in civil rights enforcement cases.

The statute homes in on “voting” and The Civil Right Commission. But I want to focus on the policy that Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan deprived me of is a right to a trial and of free will, choice of defense, choice of lawyer, and blah, blah

Then, if there is a proceeding, the statute basically tells the readers what is required—can you guess what the accused is entitled to?

All elements to a fair trial and if elements are not given—then, it could be a crime under 18 USC § 241---people need to see what a shit show transpired, and it continues now.

I was going to use my 3020a to prove that I was denied every single right but Engelmayer, Cogan, and Randi deprived me that right in federal court, state court, in arbitration and now—Your Honor is the current vassal in the concealmentNow, you have to report them—judge saying

I. LEGAL BASIS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b) permits judicial notice of a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it:

- (1) is generally known within the trial court's territorial jurisdiction; or
- (2) can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

The Civil Rights Act of 1957, and in particular Section 151, is a public federal statute published in the United States Statutes at Large and United States Code, and accessible via official government repositories, including <https://www.govinfo.gov>. Its text is thus appropriate for judicial notice.

II. RELEVANT STATUTORY TEXT

Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957 provides:

The provision was enacted to protect civil rights litigants from punitive use of criminal contempt without procedural safeguards. It explicitly:

- Limits judicial discretion in contempt sentencing without jury input;
- Requires de novo jury trials in civil rights-related contempt cases where punishment exceeds minimal thresholds;
- Protects against misuse of contempt to suppress civil rights advocacy.

III. RELEVANCE TO THIS PROCEEDING

Plaintiff asserts that contempt-related actions taken against them—directly or indirectly through suppression of rights, procedural obstruction, and denial of hearing rights—implicate the protections guaranteed under this federal statute.

Judicial notice is necessary to establish:

- The procedural limitations imposed on contempt sanctions under federal civil rights law;
- The scope of rights afforded to accused parties in civil rights-related litigation;
- The legislative intent to curtail judicial abuse in civil rights enforcement contexts.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957—with a strong emphasis on 28 U.S. Code § 1861 and section on what the accused is entitled too with the rest of the statute notmaterial to my case-
 - as an authoritative legal fact under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), and consider its implications in evaluating the procedural fairness and constitutionality of contempt-related actions or denials of process in this matter.

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF
THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927,
AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.” United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>1</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)
- United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)
- ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)
- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

<sup>1</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice.

V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Plaintiff's right to a fair proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS' DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS' DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT—attempting to pass off Art Taylor's work of fiction that was created for his former boss (Randi Weingarten) and employer (UFT)

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, to take judicial notice of Defendants' repeated disregard of tribunal orders in violation of Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, which governs attorney conduct in this jurisdiction. Judicial notice is warranted where facts are "not subject to reasonable dispute" and are capable of accurate and ready determination. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b).

I. RELEVANT FACTS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

1. The Court issued preventing me from participating and defending myself beyond notice on Aug 9, 2023, allowing the defendants now to come into court with pure fiction and now the "cherry picking, willful ignorance and distortion of facts are evoked by Randi and adhered to by Schumer's Cartel.

2. Defendants and/or their counsel willfully failed to comply with the order, offered no legitimate excuse, and did not seek reconsideration or protective relief.

3. The UFT, NYSED and DOE wanted Judge Engelmayer to personally call or write them<sup>2</sup>

4. Instead, Defendants continued to file representations contradicting the clear command of the order, obstructing the proceedings and suppressing critical facts.

<sup>1</sup>Just like Judge Cogan---people knew and I told the DOE and NYSED what they needed to do because it was an ethics violation and a crime

<sup>2</sup> Copy is in the state court<sup>5</sup>. The docket contains public, indisputable evidence of these violations—e.g., [list docket entries or transcript citations].

II. LEGAL STANDARD: RULE 3.4(c) AND JUDICIAL NOTICE

Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct states:

"A lawyer shall not disregard or advise the client to disregard a standing rule of a tribunal or a ruling of a tribunal made in the course of a proceeding, but the lawyer may take appropriate steps in good faith to test the validity of such rule or ruling."

This provision prohibits not only defiance of court orders, but also passive noncompliance when attorneys make no good-faith effort to follow, challenge, or clarify the scope of an order. The rule recognizes that such conduct undermines judicial authority and fair process.

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), a court may take judicial notice of matters appearing on its docket and records of prior orders:

• Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991) ("Courts routinely take judicial notice of documents filed in other courts... and of their own docket.");

• United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009) (summary order) (judicial notice of record filings and noncompliance with court directives).

III. CASE LAW: SANCTIONS AND ETHICAL CONSEQUENCES FOR DISREGARDING COURT ORDERS

Numerous courts, including the Second Circuit, have found that disregard of tribunal orders violates ethical and procedural obligations:

• Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79 (2d Cir. 2000): Sanctions upheld where attorney “blatantly disregarded” court orders and procedural obligations;

• S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010): “A party’s failure to comply with court orders can warrant severe sanctions under the court’s inherent powers”;

• Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991): A court may impose sanctions under its inherent authority where counsel’s misconduct includes “deliberate disregard of court orders.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of Defendants’ noncompliance with prior court orders as shown in the record;
2. Find that such conduct violates Rule 3.4(c) of the Rules of Professional Conduct;
3. Consider this judicially noticed fact in any pending motion for sanctions, discovery, or evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

V. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has presented indisputable and publicly documented facts of Defendants’ failure to comply with orders of this tribunal, which are judicially noticeable under Rule 201 and sanctionable under Rule 3.4(c). The Court’s intervention is necessary to preserve its authority and ensure compliance with lawful directives.

Respectfully submitted,

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, AND THE COURT’S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. §

1927, and the Court’s inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff’s Declaration, and the Court’s docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant’s counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff’s employment benefits, DOE’s prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff’s application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew’s signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

• Penthouse Int’l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)

- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010)
- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009)

- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006)

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.”

United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>3</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)

- United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)
- ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)
- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

<sup>3</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor’s decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Pl

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 --recusal for evil eye admin

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO RECUSE JUDICIAL OFFICER FOR ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITH AN “EVIL EYE AND UNEQUAL HAND,” PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455 & 28 U.S.C. § 144 SC § 144, DUE PROCESS, EQUAL PROTECTION, AND THE RULES ENABLING ACT (FRCP 52 as no witnesses and prevention of calling witnesses)

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves to recuse the assigned judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144 because Judge Lehrburger used the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution, and the Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2072 to administer them with an evil eye to favor the UFT and Randi Weingarten. This motion challenges the pattern of rulings and procedural conduct that reflect an impermissible bias, the suppression of Plaintiff’s claims, and the unlawful favoring of politically connected parties, particularly the UFT and its affiliates. This case has been administered with an “evil eye and unequal hand,” in violation of the rule of law and judicial ethics.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) and (b)(1)

Section 455(a) requires a judge to recuse when their impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” Section 455(b)(1) mandates disqualification for “personal bias or prejudice” against a party.

B. Due Process and Equal Protection Principles Under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), even facially neutral procedures violate constitutional guarantees when applied discriminatorily. In Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), the Court held recusal was mandatory when political influence undermined judicial neutrality. In In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955), the Court reaffirmed due process requires the appearance and reality of fairness.

C. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and the Rules Enabling Act

FRCP 52, authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 2072, requires that a judge in a bench trial “must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately.” Though neutral on its face, Rule 52 demands impartial adjudication based on a developed evidentiary record—including witness testimony. Denial of that process violates both procedural rules and due process. See United States v. Forness, 125 F.2d 928, 942 (2d Cir. 1942); United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964).

D. The Supreme Court has held that “Every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required to convict the defendant, or which might lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear, and true between the State and the accused, denies the latter due process of law, See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 532 (1927)

Therefore, when Judge Lehrburger deprived me the right to present evidence and call witnesses under FRCP 52, he knowingly took the temptation not to hold the UFT and me in balance, but he took active steps by administering FRCP 52—via denial of all witnesses and evidence—to provide the UFT with a tactic advantage that rules were administered with an evil hand. See Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886).

III. ARGUMENT

1. Suppression of Plaintiff’s Evidence and Witnesses

Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff’s requests for subpoenas, barred him from presenting physical evidence, and blocked testimony from key witnesses including union and agency officials. These actions deprived Plaintiff of a factual hearing required under FRCP 52, effectively ensuring the court could later claim “no facts were presented.” This is precisely the kind of prejudgment and denial of process that violates In re Murchison.

2. Discriminatory Treatment of Plaintiff’s Filings

Plaintiff’s motions for discovery and injunctive relief were denied without explanation, while defendants received favorable procedural rulings. Despite Plaintiff’s submissions of audio, emails, and internal records, the court failed to review or docket critical filings. This selective enforcement mirrors the discriminatory practices condemned in Yick Wo.

3. Political Influence and Collusion

Judges Lehrburger and Engelmayer received correspondence and legal filings identifying coordinated retaliation by the UFT, DOE, and their political allies, including Randi

Weingarten and Senator Schumer. In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the Court warned against using official authority for partisan gain. Here, judicial discretion was weaponized to conceal unlawful acts.

4. Structural Bias and Appearance of Impropriety

The pattern of ignoring Plaintiff’s legal rights while shielding political actors constitutes structural due process violation. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997). The court’s refusal to make Rule 52 findings underscores a preordained outcome inconsistent with Pattern of Hostility and Dismissal Toward Plaintiff’s Legal Arguments

Plaintiff’s constitutional and statutory arguments under Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 were never addressed on the merits. Instead, the court repeatedly described Plaintiff’s filings as meritless without allowing evidentiary development. In contrast, filings by institutional defendants were given the benefit of the doubt, regardless of internal inconsistencies, omissions, or false factual assertions. This asymmetry in adjudication offends the Equal Protection Clause and echoes the discriminatory enforcement condemned in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886). the role of a neutral adjudicator.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court’s administration of this case has denied Plaintiff a fair opportunity to present his case, in violation of Rule 52, the Constitution, and statutory mandates governing judicial conduct. Recusal and reassignment are necessary to restore integrity and prevent further irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that:

1. The assigned judge be recused under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144;
2. This case be reassigned to an impartial judicial officer;
3. Plaintiff be granted leave to submit evidence and examine witnesses consistent with Rule 52's requirements.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- Judicial notice for North's email to Mary and me for Crime-fraud

NOTICE OF MOTION and Memo for Beth North, esq.'s email to me and Ms. Atkinson fall under Crime-Fraud Exception, email of no accident report needed in the newest CBA, but the UFT told me that they did not negotiate

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 37, and 56, Plaintiff Lucio Celli hereby moves this Court for an order:

- Taking judicial notice of Plaintiff's consistent email communications with Defendants' General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his pension rights, benefit eligibility, and accident-related provisions;
- Applying the crime-fraud exception to privilege for all communications between Plaintiff and Defendants' counsel and administrative staff regarding Plaintiff's rights under the collective bargaining agreement;
- Compelling Defendants to produce all responsive communications in their possession, custody, or control pursuant to Rule 26;
- Imposing sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' bad-faith concealment and submission of false or misleading affidavits; and
- Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts "not subject to reasonable dispute" and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Some Courts have held that “judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness” and judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings, like PERB. <sup>[1]</sup>

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff’s invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff’s emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness;
- Judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings.

Here, Plaintiff’s emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants’ own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37 Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party’s claim.” Defendants’ failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26’s duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h) Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW

A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37

Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim.” Defendants' failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26's duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h)

Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants' affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION

The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

- Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
- The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Defendants' counsel and Mary Atkinson knowingly misled Plaintiff about CBA provisions governing accident reports and pension eligibility—inducing Plaintiff to delay claim filings and forfeit rights. These misrepresentations were legal in nature, made by counsel, and intended to induce inaction, satisfying Zolin and Roe.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

- Take judicial notice of Plaintiff's email communications with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson;
- Apply the crime-fraud exception to all communications concerning Plaintiff's rights under the CBA;
- Compel production of all responsive communications under Rule 26;
- Impose sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' discovery misconduct and false submissions; and

Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE AFT and Randi
 CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR
 LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD DEFENDANTS (Randi Weingarten/AFT)
 ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATION OF UNION CONSTITUTIONS CAUSING
 FUTURE HARM, WAGE AND PENSION THEFT, AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
 RESULTING IN WRONGFUL CONVICTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court for an order finding that the Defendants—United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and American Federation of Teachers ("AFT")—violated the terms of their own governing constitutions, and that these violations foreseeably caused:

- Wage theft;
- Pension deprivation;
- Denial of medical benefits;
- Emotional and psychological harm rising to the level of constructive coercion;
 and

- Conditions that contributed to a wrongful conviction by depriving Plaintiff of meaningful
- Deprived me of a fair criminal trial by interfering with my legal representation, which was preplanned
- Violated my HIPPA rights via Schumer (AUSA Peace)
- Preplanned the deprivation of HIV meds to cause irreparable harm and to ensure that I will not gain a remedy for the intentional harm to my immune system by Randi and Schumer because I told on them to Republican senate
- Conspired with Judge Engelmayer to conceal her criminal conduct
- Continues to conspire with Schumer's Cartel via Judge Lehrburger as he willfully ignores facts and favors criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and the UFT
- union representation and advocacy at critical stages of administrative and legal proceedings.

This motion is based on the accompanying Memorandum of Law, and Affidavit, evidencing violations of the UFT and AFT Constitutions and their effects on Plaintiff's employment, health, and liberty.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This case presents an extraordinary breach of fiduciary and constitutional obligations by two powerful labor organizations entrusted to protect the employment rights, wages, and due process guarantees of their members. The UFT and AFT failed to enforce their own constitutional provisions—specifically, guarantees of fair representation, defense of contractually mandated procedures, and internal grievance protections. Their failure, in concert with known collusion with the employer (NYC DOE), directly enabled the unlawful deprivation of Plaintiff's wages, benefits, and legal representation.

The resulting economic insecurity and mental anguish directly contributed to Plaintiff's wrongful conviction under conditions that no fair-minded union, bound by its constitution and ethical duties, would allow.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Provisions:

The UFT Constitution (Articles V, VI, and IX) guarantees all members the right to fair representation, grievance protection, and union defense of negotiated rights. The AFT Constitution similarly guarantees that no member will be subjected to employer retaliation without union intervention and support.

2. Failure to Enforce Member Protections:

Plaintiff was subjected to retaliatory administrative charges under Education Law § 3020-a without UFT intervention. Plaintiff's repeated communications with union officials were ignored or met with misinformation. The UFT failed to file grievances or arbitration demands to enforce contractual protections against wage theft, benefit denials, and unlawful suspension.

3. Foreseeable and Proximate Harm:

- o Plaintiff's HIV medication was denied, and essential health benefits were obstructed, leading to a medically documented health crisis.
- o The UFT's and AFT's dereliction led to long-term wage loss, pension credit loss, and emotional harm, culminating in a coerced plea and conviction under a compromised legal process.
- o The union's internal appeal mechanisms were used to shield misconduct, in violation of both constitutions' transparency and accountability requirements.

4. Union Collusion and Retaliation:

Discovery and FOIL-released communications show coordination between union officials and employer agents to undermine Plaintiff's due process and legal standing.

III. LEGAL BASIS

- Violation of Contractual and Fiduciary Duties (see Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967))
- Constructive Fraud and Violation of Duty of Fair Representation
- Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Guarantees enforceable u
- Causation of Constitutional Harm under § 1983, with union action serving as a proximate cause (Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980))
- Violation of Emotional Distress and Economic Tort Doctrines under state law, including intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and negligent misrepresentation

---

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully seeks:

1. A declaration that the UFT and AFT violated their constitutional obligations;
2. Damages for lost wages, lost pension benefits, and medical harm caused by benefit denials;

3. Compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and mental anguish;
4. An order directing the UFT and AFT to disclose internal communications with NYC DOE regarding Plaintiff;
5. Leave to amend existing civil complaints to include these additional claims if required by Rule 15;
6. Referral of this matter to the Department of Labor and Congressional oversight committees for further investigation of union misconduct.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS
TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), to take judicial notice of the 2015 Constitution of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), which governs the conduct and duties of the defendant union. The UFT Constitution is publicly available and published by the union itself, making it a source “not subject to reasonable dispute.” Judicial notice is essential to:

1. Confirm the UFT’s express duties of representation, protection, and non-discrimination;
2. Establish the constitutional obligations violated through the UFT’s acts and omissions;
3. Support Plaintiff’s federal and state claims under Title VII, Title IX, ADA, ACA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985(3), and New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL);
4. Demonstrate crime-fraud behavior and state action liability through union-government collusion.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2), a court may take judicial notice of “a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Constitutions and bylaws of labor unions meet this standard. See Peoples v. Fischer, 898 F. Supp. 2d 618, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2012).

II. RELEVANT CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES VIOLATED BY DEFENDANT UFT

The following provisions are essential:

A. Representation and Protection of Members

- Art. II(h), (i): Duty to “protect members whenever necessary” and “represent bargaining unit members in... all dealings with the city, the state, and other employers.”
- 1. UFT’s failure to grieve the retaliatory discipline, termination, healthcare denials, and civil rights violations against Plaintiff—despite actual notice—constitutes a knowing breach of its core duties.

B. Non-Discrimination Clause

- Art. III(4): Prohibits discrimination “because of... political activities or beliefs... sex, sexual orientation or national origin.”
- 2. UFT leadership retaliated against Plaintiff for whistleblowing, political advocacy, and protected expression, including retaliation over a consensual penis picture, constituting sex stereotyping and animus under Title VII, Title IX, and NYSHRL.

III. APPLICATION TO PLAINTIFF'S STATUTORY CLAIMS

A. Title VII (Sexual Harassment / Retaliation)

UFT officials aided NYCDOE’s retaliation for Plaintiff’s private sexual expression (penis photo) and failed to protect against a hostile environment based on sex/gender.

- Meritor Sav. Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986): Sexual harassment by public employers is actionable under Title VII.
- Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 227 (2d Cir. 2006): Retaliation for First Amendment activity and sexual identity-based retaliation may support a § 1983 claim.

B. Title IX (Sex-Based Harassment in Education Programs)

Plaintiff’s termination from a position involving educational functions, based on sex-related pretext, invokes Title IX where NYCDOE receives federal funds.

- Fitzgerald v. Barnstable Sch. Comm., 555 U.S. 246 (2009): Title IX does not preclude § 1983 claims for constitutional violations based on sex discrimination.

C. ADA & ACA (HIV Status & Medical Harm)

UFT colluded in denying Plaintiff essential HIV medication, knowing Plaintiff's condition, with deliberate indifference.

- Bragdon v. Abbott, 524 U.S. 624 (1998): HIV is a recognized disability under the ADA.
- Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998): Disability-related denials of access violate the ADA and § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.
- Doe v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc., 982 F.3d 1204 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted and vacated: supports ACA application to life-threatening medical interference.

D. State Actor Liability / § 1983 / Crime-Fraud Exception

UFT's coordination with NYCDOE, NYPD, and SDNY judges to suppress Plaintiff's rights qualifies them as state actors.

- Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001): Private entities act "under color of state law" when entwined with state actors.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Private conspirators liable under § 1983 when they conspire with judges to deprive constitutional rights.

Plaintiff alleges:

- Suppression of exculpatory records (transcripts, email filings);
- Collusion with Judge Engelmayer and Magistrate Lehrburger to block Plaintiff's court access and health protections;
- Retaliation for political affiliation, speech, and whistleblowing.

IV. EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AND NYPD DISABILITY RETALIATION

The UFT failed to intervene when Plaintiff, known to be disabled, was subjected to:

- Using the emotional pain of the NYPD to lead to this point of conviction, termination and disability pension, including unlawful arrest and retaliatory investigation;
- Public humiliation linked to protected health and expressive conduct.

Relevant precedent:

- Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014): Emotional distress actionable under § 1983 when caused by coordinated harassment;
- Saks v. Franklin Covey Co., 316 F.3d 337 (2d Cir. 2003): ADA protects against stigmatization and emotional damage based on disability.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of the UFT Constitution (2015) as a governing public document;
2. Recognize that violations of its terms support Plaintiff's claims of bad faith, discrimination, retaliation, and federal rights deprivations;
3. Acknowledge these violations as integral to Plaintiff's claims under:
  - o Title VII (sex/retaliation),
  - o Title IX (sex-based exclusion from education-based job),
  - o ADA & ACA (denial of medication and health protections),
  - o 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3) (state actor conspiracy),
  - o Common-law fraud, estoppel, and emotional distress.

Subject: 24-cv-7442 --limited discovery Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997) for Rearden

MOTION FOR LIMITED DISCOVERY TO DEVELOP THE RECORD OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND Pre judgement FUTURE HARM CAUSED and NONENFORCEMENT OF COURT ORDERS by Engelmayer and Livingston

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for limited discovery pursuant to the Court's inherent authority, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d), and Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), in order to develop a factual record demonstrating that District Judge Jennifer Rearden assisted Defendant Randi

Weingarten in concealing misconduct and obstructing the enforcement of orders issued by District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, resulting in ongoing and medically dangerous future harm.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion seeks narrow but critical discovery into Judge Rearden's role in suppressing evidence, ignoring enforcement obligations tied to Judge Engelmayer's order, and permitting a pattern of retaliation against Plaintiff to continue, including obstruction of access to life-saving HIV medication. As the Supreme Court held in Bracy, discovery is warranted where a litigant alleges a judge may have "acted partially for a reason extraneous to the record." 520 U.S. at 905.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 12, 2021, Judge Engelmayer issued an order intended to remediate unlawful retaliation, wrongful imprisonment, and deprivation of employment benefits.
  2. Rather than ensure its enforcement, Judge Rearden issued rulings that denied Plaintiff any meaningful relief, while simultaneously refusing to permit witness testimony, discovery, or evidentiary development on the issue of noncompliance.
  3. Defendant Randi Weingarten and UFT officials have continued to misrepresent the nature and enforceability of the 3020-a procedures, while FOIL and FOIA records showing a pattern of medical and procedural retaliation have been concealed.
  4. Plaintiff has evidence—including emails, audio recordings, and sworn statements—showing that the terms of probation and judicial rulings were crafted to silence and punish Plaintiff for exposing corruption.
  5. Probation Officer Cudina, in May 2024, acknowledged that enforcement of the August 9, 2023, DOE's prior knowledge, and July 20, 2021 order had been politically obstructed.
  6. The denial of timely HIV medication, after court officials ignored email requests for emergency compliance, caused drug resistance, establishing clear ongoing and future harm.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997),** limited discovery into judicial bias and misconduct is appropriate where there is a concrete and specific basis for concern that a judge acted with extrajudicial motivation or coordinated with a party.

Additionally:

- The Court retains inherent power to authorize discovery to protect its own integrity. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 44–46 (1991).
- Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1) permits the Court to authorize discovery “for the parties’ and witnesses’ convenience and in the interests of justice.”

IV. REQUESTED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff respectfully seeks an order permitting the following limited discovery:

1. Interrogatories and document requests to the UFT, NYCDOE, and AUSA Karamigios regarding enforcement communications tied to the March 12, 2021 order;
2. Subpoenaed emails and text messages between Judge Rearden (or her chambers) and any party or counsel representing Randi Weingarten, the UFT, or the DOE from January 2022 to present;
3. A deposition of Probation Officer Cudina regarding the acknowledgement that probation and judicial orders were used to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights;
4. Production of records from Clerk Wolfe’s office, including docketing logs, emails, and intake logs, to establish obstruction of mandamus filings.

V. ARGUMENT

Plaintiff has met the Bracy threshold: the allegations are specific, plausible, and supported by documented interactions and refusals to enforce lawful orders. The refusal of Judge Rearden to compel enforcement, combined with a factual record showing coordination among court officers and Weingarten, supports a strong inference of political favoritism and structural bias. The harm—loss of health, wages, and due process—has already occurred and continues.

Discovery is required to prevent further injustice and protect the fundamental guarantees of a fair tribunal, due process, and access to court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court authorize limited, targeted discovery as outlined above to support a forthcoming Rule 60(b) motion or structural due process challenge based on political bias, obstruction, and future harm.

Date: Monday, May 26, 2025 4:07:41 AM

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS/Crime-Fraud Expectation because I was going to present evidence (audios because Wolfe and Engelmayer denied me from calling AUSAs) that Engelmayer, Cogan and Randi Weingarten deprived me all rights that have been charged under 18 USC § 241--

FOR FRAUD ON THE COURT, VIOLATION OF RULE 11, AND THE CRIME-FRAUD SCHEME INVOLVING WEINGARTEN, ENGELMAYER, AND COGAN TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for the imposition of sanctions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers, based on the submission of knowingly false pleadings and factual narratives by Defendants—particularly the document identified as “Brown”—which constitutes a fabrication authored or orchestrated by Art Taylor to conceal an ongoing crime-fraud conspiracy involving:

- Randi Weingarten, President of the American Federation of Teachers (AFT),
- Judge Paul A. Engelmayer,
- <sup>1</sup> and
- Judge Brian M. Cogan.

Holding:

The Supreme Court held that state prosecutors are absolutely immune from civil suits for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 when the conduct in question is “intimately associated with the judicial phase of the criminal process”, such as initiating prosecution and presenting the State’s case. This coordinated misconduct resulted in the deprivation of Plaintiff’s constitutional rights, the obstruction of lawful proceedings, and the presentation of fictional and perjurious filings intended to defeat jurisdiction, block court access, and insulate political allies from civil liability.

I. SUMMARY OF THE CRIME-FRAUD SCHEME

The record and chronology establish a pattern of collusion among Weingarten, Engelmayer, and Cogan to prevent adjudication of Plaintiff’s claims:

1. Judge Engelmayer’s July 20, 2021 Order imposed restrictions on Plaintiff’s ability to contact the NYC DOE, which Defendants then used as a pretext to fabricate procedural defaults and bar administrative redress. However, this restriction was itself a retaliatory overreach without due process, engineered to obstruct civil rights litigation.
2. AUSA Bensing, under the supervision of AUSA Peace, knowingly misrepresented the scope and effect of Engelmayer’s order in later proceedings, including in November 2022, to protect arbitrators and DOE officials who falsified procedural records and denied access to neutral hearings.
3. Judge Cogan coordinated with Engelmayer and Weingarten to deny Plaintiff relief in a separate but factually connected action, despite actual knowledge that key exhibits and transcripts had been altered or withheld—rendering the proceedings structurally biased and constitutionally void.
4. Randi Weingarten and agents acting at her direction (including union counsel and arbitrators) engineered false narratives, such as the one submitted in the “Brown” pleading, knowing Plaintiff was legally barred from responding due to the standing federal restriction. This manufactured absence was then used as a sword to defame Plaintiff and shut down claims implicating her personal role in CBA fraud and retaliation.

II. GOVERNING STANDARDS FOR SANCTIONS

- A. Rule 11(b)(3) requires that factual contentions have or will likely have evidentiary support. Submitting fictional narratives for the purpose of defeating valid claims constitutes sanctionable conduct.
- B. 28 U.S.C. § 1927 imposes liability for multiplying proceedings unreasonably and vexatiously.
- C. Under Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32 (1991), the Court may sanction fraud on the tribunal or abuse of process under its inherent authority.
- D. The crime-fraud exception to any asserted judicial or quasi-judicial immunity applies where the court itself is used as a tool for concealing criminal conduct or to ratify fraud upon the litigant. See Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989). III. RULE 12(b)(6) DOES NOT PERMIT FICTIONAL SUBSTITUTIONS FOR PLEADED FACTS

As established in:

- Goldman v. Belden, 754 F.2d 1059, 1065–66 (2d Cir. 1985),
- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006), and
- Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981),

a Rule 12(b)(6) motion must rely solely on the complaint and judicially noticeable facts, not fabricated documents or disputed characterizations. “Brown” is neither referenced in the complaint, nor incorporated by Plaintiff, nor subject to judicial notice. It is a literary device masquerading as fact, presented in bad faith.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. That the Court strike the “Brown” filing and issue a finding of bad-faith fabrication;
2. That the Court impose Rule 11 sanctions and/or refer the matter to the U.S. Attorney’s Office and the Judicial Conduct and Disability Committee for investigation of judicial collusion and obstruction;
3. That sanctions be imposed against Art Taylor, union counsel, and any participating AUSAs under 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
4. That the Court acknowledge that “Brown” constitutes evidence of fraud and grounds for setting aside any judgment or ruling tainted by its submission under Rule 60(b)(3);
5. That Plaintiff be granted leave to pursue civil RICO claims and supplemental findings of obstruction and conspiracy;
6. Any additional relief the Court deems necessary to restore the integrity of the proceedings.

CONCLUSION

Defendants, aided by judicial and prosecutorial actors, have treated this Court not as a forum for justice but as a tool for laundering falsified records, suppressing whistleblower speech, and shielding political collaborators from liability. The law does not permit “justice” through fiction. The submission of “Brown” was not legal argument—it was publication of a lie with the intent to injure.

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -JUDICIAL NOTICE OF 28 U.S. Code § 1861 - Declaration of policy:

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF 28 U.S. Code § 1861 - Declaration of policy:

It is the policy of the United States that all litigants in Federal courts entitled to trial by jury---Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan took my free will away and is the underlying fact of Your Honor's willful lie about Engelmayer's order and current UFT's work of fiction that in any other court—I bet under not Randi facts too—would not be acceptable in Your Honor's either—because no can believe that I have judges willfully ignoring the facts (for Randi Weingarten)

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957, codified as part of Public Law 85-315, 71 Stat. 634 (Sept. 9, 1957), which governs criminal contempt proceedings in civil rights enforcement cases.

The statute homes in on “voting” and The Civil Right Commission. But I want to focus on the policy that Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan deprived me of is a right to a trial and of free will, choice of defense, choice of lawyer, and blah, blah

Then, if there is a proceeding, the statute basically tells the readers what is required—can you guess what the accused is entitled to?

All elements to a fair trial and if elements are not given—then, it could be a crime under 18 USC § 241---people need to see what a shit show transpired, and it continues now.

I was going to use my 3020a to prove that I was denied every single right but Engelmayer,

Cogan, and Randi deprived me that right in federal court, state court, in arbitration and now—

Your Honor is the current vassal in the concealmentNow, you have to report them—judge saying

I. LEGAL BASIS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b) permits judicial notice of a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it:

- (1) is generally known within the trial court's territorial jurisdiction; or
- (2) can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

The Civil Rights Act of 1957, and in particular Section 151, is a public federal statute published in the United States Statutes at Large and United States Code, and accessible via official government repositories, including <https://www.govinfo.gov>. Its text is thus appropriate for judicial notice.

II. RELEVANT STATUTORY TEXT

Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957 provides:

The provision was enacted to protect civil rights litigants from punitive use of criminal contempt without procedural safeguards. It explicitly:

- Limits judicial discretion in contempt sentencing without jury input;
- Requires de novo jury trials in civil rights-related contempt cases where punishment exceeds minimal thresholds;
- Protects against misuse of contempt to suppress civil rights advocacy.

III. RELEVANCE TO THIS PROCEEDING

Plaintiff asserts that contempt-related actions taken against them—directly or indirectly through suppression of rights, procedural obstruction, and denial of hearing rights—implicate the protections guaranteed under this federal statute.

Judicial notice is necessary to establish:

- The procedural limitations imposed on contempt sanctions under federal civil rights law;
- The scope of rights afforded to accused parties in civil rights-related litigation;
- The legislative intent to curtail judicial abuse in civil rights enforcement contexts.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957—with a strong emphasis on 28 U.S. Code § 1861 and section on what the accused is entitled too with the rest of the statute notmaterial to my case-

- as an authoritative legal fact under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), and consider its implications in evaluating the procedural fairness and constitutionality of contempt-related actions or denials of process in this matter.

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people—judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.” United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>1</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her
E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff’s informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff’s medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)
- United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)
- ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)
- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

<sup>1</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor’s decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice.

V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court’s integrity and the Plaintiff’s right to a fair proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS' DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF

RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT—attempting to pass off Art Taylor’s work of fiction that was created for his former boss (Randi Weingarten) and employer (UFT)<sup>1</sup>

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, to take judicial notice of Defendants’ repeated disregard of tribunal orders in violation of Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, which governs attorney conduct in this jurisdiction. Judicial notice is warranted where facts are “not subject to reasonable dispute” and are capable of accurate and ready determination. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b).

I. RELEVANT FACTS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

1. The Court issued preventing me from participating and defending myself beyond notice on Aug 9, 2023, allowing the defendants now to come into court with pure fiction and now the “cherry picking, willful ignorance and distortion of facts are evoked by Randi and adhered to by Schumer’s Cartel.

2. Defendants and/or their counsel willfully failed to comply with the order, offered no legitimate excuse, and did not seek reconsideration or protective relief.

3. The UFT, NYSED and DOE wanted Judge Engelmayer to personally call or write them<sup>2</sup>

4. Instead, Defendants continued to file representations contradicting the clear command of the order, obstructing the proceedings and suppressing critical facts.

<sup>1</sup>Just like Judge Cogan---people knew and I told the DOE and NYSED what they needed to do because it was an ethics violation and a crime

<sup>2</sup> Copy is in the state court<sup>5</sup>. The docket contains public, indisputable evidence of these violations—e.g., [list docket entries or transcript citations].

II. LEGAL STANDARD: RULE 3.4(c) AND JUDICIAL NOTICE

Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct states:

“A lawyer shall not disregard or advise the client to disregard a standing rule of a tribunal or a ruling of a tribunal made in the course of a proceeding, but the lawyer may take appropriate steps in good faith to test the validity of such rule or ruling.”

This provision prohibits not only defiance of court orders, but also passive noncompliance when attorneys make no good-faith effort to follow, challenge, or clarify the scope of an order. The rule recognizes that such conduct undermines judicial authority and fair process.

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), a court may take judicial notice of matters appearing on its docket and records of prior orders:

• Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991) (“Courts routinely take judicial notice of documents filed in other courts... and of their own docket.”);

• United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App’x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009) (summary order) (judicial notice of record filings and noncompliance with court directives).

III. CASE LAW: SANCTIONS AND ETHICAL CONSEQUENCES FOR DISREGARDING COURT ORDERS

Numerous courts, including the Second Circuit, have found that disregard of tribunal orders violates ethical and procedural obligations:

• Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79 (2d Cir. 2000): Sanctions upheld where attorney “blatantly disregarded” court orders and procedural obligations;

• S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010): “A party’s failure to comply with court orders can warrant severe sanctions under the court’s inherent powers”;

• Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991): A court may impose sanctions under its inherent authority where counsel’s misconduct includes “deliberate disregard of court orders.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of Defendants’ noncompliance with prior court orders as shown in the record;

2. Find that such conduct violates Rule 3.4(c) of the Rules of Professional Conduct;

3. Consider this judicially noticed fact in any pending motion for sanctions, discovery, or evidentiary hearing;

4. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

V. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has presented indisputable and publicly documented facts of Defendants’ failure to comply with orders of this tribunal, which are judicially noticeable under Rule 201 and sanctionable under Rule 3.4(c). The Court’s intervention is necessary to preserve its authority and ensure compliance with lawful directives.

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF
THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927,
AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

- Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991)
- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009)

- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006)

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) "Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice."

United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."<sup>3</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her
E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)

- ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)
- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."

<sup>3</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Pl

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 --recusal for evil eye admin

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO RECUSE JUDICIAL OFFICER FOR ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITH AN “EVIL EYE AND UNEQUAL HAND,” PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455 & 28 USC § 144 SC § 144, DUE PROCESS, EQUAL PROTECTION, AND THE RULES ENABLING ACT (FRCP 52 as no witnesses and prevention of calling witnesses)

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves to recuse the assigned judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144 because Judge Lehuburger used the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution, and the Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2072 to administer them with an evil eye to favor the UFT and Randi Weingarten. This motion challenges the pattern of rulings and procedural conduct that reflect an impermissible bias, the suppression of Plaintiff’s claims, and the unlawful favoring of politically connected parties, particularly the UFT and its affiliates. This case has been administered with an “evil eye and unequal hand,” in violation of the rule of law and judicial ethics.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) and (b)(1)

Section 455(a) requires a judge to recuse when their impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” Section 455(b)(1) mandates disqualification for “personal bias or prejudice” against a party.

B. Due Process and Equal Protection Principles Under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), even facially neutral procedures violate constitutional guarantees when applied discriminatorily. In Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), the Court held recusal was mandatory when political influence undermined judicial neutrality. In In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955), the Court reaffirmed due process requires the appearance and reality of fairness.

C. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and the Rules Enabling Act

FRCP 52, authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 2072, requires that a judge in a bench trial “must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately.” Though neutral on its face, Rule 52 demands impartial adjudication based on a developed evidentiary record—including witness testimony. Denial of that process violates both procedural rules and due process. See United States v. Forness, 125 F.2d 928, 942 (2d Cir. 1942); United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964).

D. The Supreme Court has held that “Every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required to convict the defendant, or which might lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear, and true between the State and the accused, denies the latter due process of law, See Tumey v.

Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 532 (1927)

Therefore, when Judge Lehrburger deprived me the right to present evidence and call witnesses under FRCP 52, he knowingly took the temptation not to hold the UFT and me in balance, but he took active steps by administering FRCP 52—via denial of all witnesses and evidence—to provide the UFT with a tactic advantage that rules were administered with an evil hand. See Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886).

III. ARGUMENT

1. Suppression of Plaintiff's Evidence and Witnesses

Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff's requests for subpoenas, barred him from presenting physical evidence, and blocked testimony from key witnesses including union and agency officials. These actions deprived Plaintiff of a factual hearing required under FRCP 52, effectively ensuring the court could later claim "no facts were presented." This is precisely the kind of prejudgment and denial of process that violates In re Murchison.

2. Discriminatory Treatment of Plaintiff's Filings

Plaintiff's motions for discovery and injunctive relief were denied without explanation, while defendants received favorable procedural rulings. Despite Plaintiff's submissions of audio, emails, and internal records, the court failed to review or docket critical filings. This selective enforcement mirrors the discriminatory practices condemned in Yick Wo.

3. Political Influence and Collusion

Judges Lehrburger and Engelmayer received correspondence and legal filings identifying coordinated retaliation by the UFT, DOE, and their political allies, including Randi Weingarten and Senator Schumer. In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the Court warned against using official authority for partisan gain. Here, judicial discretion was weaponized to conceal unlawful acts.

4. Structural Bias and Appearance of Impropriety

The pattern of ignoring Plaintiff's legal rights while shielding political actors constitutes structural due process violation. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997). The court's refusal to make Rule 52 findings underscores a preordained outcome inconsistent with

Pattern of Hostility and Dismissal Toward Plaintiff's Legal Arguments

Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory arguments under Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 were never addressed on the merits. Instead, the court repeatedly described Plaintiff's filings as meritless without allowing evidentiary development. In contrast, filings by institutional defendants were given the benefit of the doubt, regardless of internal inconsistencies, omissions, or false factual assertions. This asymmetry in adjudication offends the Equal Protection Clause and echoes the discriminatory enforcement condemned in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886). the role of a neutral adjudicator.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court's administration of this case has denied Plaintiff a fair opportunity to present his case, in violation of Rule 52, the Constitution, and statutory mandates governing judicial conduct. Recusal and reassignment are necessary to restore integrity and prevent further irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that:

1. The assigned judge be recused under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144;
2. This case be reassigned to an impartial judicial officer;
3. Plaintiff be granted leave to submit evidence and examine witnesses consistent with Rule 52's requirements.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- Judicial notice for North's email to Mary and me for Crime-fraud

NOTICE OF MOTION and Memo for Beth North, esq.'s email to me and Ms. Atkinson fall under Crime-Fraud Exception, email of no accident report needed in the newest CBA, but the UFT told me that they did not negotiate

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 37, and 56, Plaintiff Lucio Celli hereby moves this Court for an order:

Taking judicial notice of Plaintiff's consistent email communications with Defendants' General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his pension rights, benefit eligibility, and accident-related provisions;

Applying the crime-fraud exception to privilege for all communications between Plaintiff and Defendants' counsel and administrative staff regarding Plaintiff's rights under the collective bargaining agreement;

Compelling Defendants to produce all responsive communications in their possession, custody, or control pursuant to Rule 26;

Imposing sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' bad-faith concealment and submission of false or misleading affidavits; and

Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts "not subject to reasonable dispute" and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Some Courts have held that "judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness" and judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings, like PERB.<sup>[1]</sup>

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff’s invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff’s emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness;
- Judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings.

Here, Plaintiff’s emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants’ own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37 Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party’s claim.” Defendants’ failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26’s duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h) Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Plaintiff’s emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants’ own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW*A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37

Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party’s claim.” Defendants’ failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26’s duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h)

Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION

The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and

The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Defendants’ counsel and Mary Atkinson knowingly misled Plaintiff about CBA provisions governing accident reports and pension eligibility—inducing Plaintiff to delay claim filings and forfeit rights. These misrepresentations were legal in nature, made by counsel, and intended to induce inaction, satisfying Zolin and Roe.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

Take judicial notice of Plaintiff’s email communications with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson;

Apply the crime-fraud exception to all communications concerning Plaintiff’s rights under the CBA;

Compel production of all responsive communications under Rule 26;

Impose sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants’ discovery misconduct and false submissions; and

Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE AFT and Randi
CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR
LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD DEFENDANTS (Randi Weingarten/AFT)
ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATION OF UNION CONSTITUTIONS CAUSING
FUTURE HARM, WAGE AND PENSION THEFT, AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
RESULTING IN WRONGFUL CONVICTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court for an order finding that the Defendants—United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and American Federation of Teachers ("AFT")—violated the terms of their own governing constitutions, and that these violations foreseeably caused:

- Wage theft;
- Pension deprivation;
- Denial of medical benefits;
- Emotional and psychological harm rising to the level of constructive coercion;
and
- Conditions that contributed to a wrongful conviction by depriving Plaintiff of meaningful
- Deprived me of a fair criminal trial by interfering with my legal representation, which was preplanned
- Violated my HIPPA rights via Schumer (AUSA Peace)
- Preplanned the deprivation of HIV meds to cause irreparable harm and to ensure that I will not gain a remedy for the intentional harm to my immune system by Randi and Schumer because I told on them to Republican senate
- Conspired with Judge Engelmayer to conceal her criminal conduct
- Continues to conspire with Schumer's Cartel via Judge Lehrburger as he willfully ignores facts and favors criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and the

· union representation and advocacy at critical stages of administrative and legal proceedings.

This motion is based on the accompanying Memorandum of Law, and Affidavit, evidencing violations of the UFT and AFT Constitutions and their effects on Plaintiff's employment, health, and liberty.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This case presents an extraordinary breach of fiduciary and constitutional obligations by two powerful labor organizations entrusted to protect the employment rights, wages, and due process guarantees of their members. The UFT and AFT failed to enforce their own constitutional provisions—specifically, guarantees of fair representation, defense of contractually mandated procedures, and internal grievance protections. Their failure, in concert with known collusion with the employer (NYC DOE), directly enabled the unlawful deprivation of Plaintiff's wages, benefits, and legal representation.

The resulting economic insecurity and mental anguish directly contributed to Plaintiff's wrongful conviction under conditions that no fair-minded union, bound by its constitution and ethical duties, would allow.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Provisions:

The UFT Constitution (Articles V, VI, and IX) guarantees all members the right to fair representation, grievance protection, and union defense of negotiated rights. The AFT Constitution similarly guarantees that no member will be subjected to employer retaliation without union intervention and support.

2. Failure to Enforce Member Protections:

Plaintiff was subjected to retaliatory administrative charges under Education Law § 3020-a without UFT intervention. Plaintiff's repeated communications with union officials were ignored or met with misinformation. The UFT failed to file grievances or arbitration demands to enforce contractual protections against wage theft, benefit denials, and unlawful suspension.

3. Foreseeable and Proximate Harm:

- o Plaintiff's HIV medication was denied, and essential health benefits were obstructed, leading to a medically documented health crisis.
- o The UFT's and AFT's dereliction led to long-term wage loss, pension credit loss, and emotional harm, culminating in a coerced plea and conviction under a compromised legal process.
- o The union's internal appeal mechanisms were used to shield misconduct, in violation of both constitutions' transparency and accountability requirements.

4. Union Collusion and Retaliation:

Discovery and FOIL-released communications show coordination between union officials and employer agents to undermine Plaintiff's due process and legal standing.

III. LEGAL BASIS

- Violation of Contractual and Fiduciary Duties (see Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967))
- Constructive Fraud and Violation of Duty of Fair Representation
- Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Guarantees enforceable u
- Causation of Constitutional Harm under § 1983, with union action serving as a proximate cause (Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980))
- Violation of Emotional Distress and Economic Tort Doctrines under state law, including intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and negligent misrepresentation

---

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully seeks:

1. A declaration that the UFT and AFT violated their constitutional obligations;
2. Damages for lost wages, lost pension benefits, and medical harm caused by benefit denials;
3. Compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and mental anguish;
4. An order directing the UFT and AFT to disclose internal communications with NYC DOE regarding Plaintiff;
5. Leave to amend existing civil complaints to include these additional claims if required by Rule 15;
6. Referral of this matter to the Department of Labor and Congressional oversight committees for further investigation of union misconduct.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS
TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), to take judicial notice of the 2015 Constitution of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), which governs the conduct and duties of the defendant union. The UFT Constitution is publicly available and published by the union itself, making it a source “not subject to reasonable dispute.” Judicial notice is essential to:

1. Confirm the UFT’s express duties of representation, protection, and non-discrimination;
2. Establish the constitutional obligations violated through the UFT’s acts and omissions;
3. Support Plaintiff’s federal and state claims under Title VII, Title IX, ADA, ACA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985(3), and New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL);
4. Demonstrate crime-fraud behavior and state action liability through union-government collusion.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2), a court may take judicial notice of “a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Constitutions and bylaws of labor unions meet this standard. See Peoples v. Fischer, 898 F. Supp. 2d

618, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2012).

II. RELEVANT CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES VIOLATED BY DEFENDANT UFT

The following provisions are essential:

A. Representation and Protection of Members

- Art. II(h), (i): Duty to “protect members whenever necessary” and “represent bargaining unit members in... all dealings with the city, the state, and other employers.”
- 1. UFT’s failure to grieve the retaliatory discipline, termination, healthcare denials, and civil rights violations against Plaintiff—despite actual notice—constitutes a knowing breach of its core duties.

B. Non-Discrimination Clause

- Art. III(4): Prohibits discrimination “because of... political activities or beliefs... sex, sexual orientation or national origin.”
- 2. UFT leadership retaliated against Plaintiff for whistleblowing, political advocacy, and protected expression, including retaliation over a consensual penis picture, constituting sex stereotyping and animus under Title VII, Title IX, and NYSHRL.

III. APPLICATION TO PLAINTIFF'S STATUTORY CLAIMS

A. Title VII (Sexual Harassment / Retaliation)

UFT officials aided NYCDOE’s retaliation for Plaintiff’s private sexual expression (penis photo) and failed to protect against a hostile environment based on sex/gender.

- Meritor Sav. Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986): Sexual harassment by public employers is actionable under Title VII.
- Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 227 (2d Cir. 2006): Retaliation for First Amendment activity and sexual identity-based retaliation may support a § 1983 claim.

B. Title IX (Sex-Based Harassment in Education Programs)

Plaintiff’s termination from a position involving educational functions, based on sex-related pretext, invokes Title IX where NYCDOE receives federal funds.

- Fitzgerald v. Barnstable Sch. Comm., 555 U.S. 246 (2009): Title IX does not preclude § 1983 claims for constitutional violations based on sex discrimination.

C. ADA & ACA (HIV Status & Medical Harm)

UFT colluded in denying Plaintiff essential HIV medication, knowing Plaintiff’s condition, with deliberate indifference.

- Bragdon v. Abbott, 524 U.S. 624 (1998): HIV is a recognized disability under the ADA.
- Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998): Disability-related denials of access violate the ADA and § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.
- Doe v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc., 982 F.3d 1204 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted and vacated: supports ACA application to life-threatening medical interference.

D. State Actor Liability / § 1983 / Crime-Fraud Exception

UFT’s coordination with NYCDOE, NYPD, and SDNY judges to suppress Plaintiff’s rights qualifies them as state actors.

- Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass’n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001): Private entities act “under color of state law” when entwined with state actors.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Private conspirators liable under § 1983 when they conspire with judges to deprive constitutional rights.

Plaintiff alleges:

- Suppression of exculpatory records (transcripts, email filings);

- Collusion with Judge Engelmayer and Magistrate Lehrburger to block Plaintiff's court access and health protections;
- Retaliation for political affiliation, speech, and whistleblowing.

IV. EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AND NYPD DISABILITY RETALIATION

The UFT failed to intervene when Plaintiff, known to be disabled, was subjected to:

- Using the emotional pain of the NYPD to lead to this point of conviction, termination and disability pension, including unlawful arrest and retaliatory investigation;
- Public humiliation linked to protected health and expressive conduct.

Relevant precedent:

- Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014): Emotional distress actionable under § 1983 when caused by coordinated harassment;
- Saks v. Franklin Covey Co., 316 F.3d 337 (2d Cir. 2003): ADA protects against stigmatization and emotional damage based on disability.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of the UFT Constitution (2015) as a governing public document;
2. Recognize that violations of its terms support Plaintiff's claims of bad faith, discrimination, retaliation, and federal rights deprivations;
3. Acknowledge these violations as integral to Plaintiff's claims under:
  - o Title VII (sex/retaliation),
  - o Title IX (sex-based exclusion from education-based job),
  - o ADA & ACA (denial of medication and health protections),
  - o 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3) (state actor conspiracy),
  - o Common-law fraud, estoppel, and emotional distress.

Engelmayer, resulting in ongoing and medically dangerous future harm.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion seeks narrow but critical discovery into Judge Rearden's role in suppressing evidence, ignoring enforcement obligations tied to Judge Engelmayer's order, and permitting a pattern of retaliation against Plaintiff to continue, including obstruction of access to life-saving HIV medication. As the Supreme Court held in Bracy, discovery is warranted where a litigant alleges a judge may have "acted partially for a reason extraneous to the record." 520 U.S. at 905.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 12, 2021, Judge Engelmayer issued an order intended to remediate unlawful retaliation, wrongful imprisonment, and deprivation of employment benefits.

2. Rather than ensure its enforcement, Judge Rearden issued rulings that denied Plaintiff any meaningful relief, while simultaneously refusing to permit witness testimony, discovery, or evidentiary development on the issue of noncompliance.
3. Defendant Randi Weingarten and UFT officials have continued to misrepresent the nature and enforceability of the 3020-a procedures, while FOIL and FOIA records showing a pattern of medical and procedural retaliation have been concealed.
4. Plaintiff has evidence—including emails, audio recordings, and sworn statements—showing that the terms of probation and judicial rulings were crafted to silence and punish Plaintiff for exposing corruption.
5. Probation Officer Cudina, in May 2024, acknowledged that enforcement of the August 9, 2023, DOE's prior knowledge, and July 20, 2021 order had been politically obstructed.
6. The denial of timely HIV medication, after court officials ignored email requests for emergency compliance, caused drug resistance, establishing clear ongoing and future harm.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997),** limited discovery into judicial bias and misconduct is appropriate where there is a concrete and specific basis for concern that a judge acted with extrajudicial motivation or coordinated with a party.

Additionally:

- The Court retains inherent power to authorize discovery to protect its own integrity. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 44–46 (1991).
- Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1) permits the Court to authorize discovery “for the parties’ and witnesses’ convenience and in the interests of justice.”

IV. REQUESTED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff respectfully seeks an order permitting the following limited discovery:

1. Interrogatories and document requests to the UFT, NYCDOE, and AUSA Karamigios regarding enforcement communications tied to the March 12, 2021 order;
2. Subpoenaed emails and text messages between Judge Rearden (or her chambers) and any party or counsel representing Randi Weingarten, the UFT, or the DOE from January 2022 to present;

3. A deposition of Probation Officer Cudina regarding the acknowledgement that probation and judicial orders were used to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights;
4. Production of records from Clerk Wolfe's office, including docketing logs, emails, and intake logs, to establish obstruction of mandamus filings.

V. ARGUMENT

Plaintiff has met the Bracy threshold: the allegations are specific, plausible, and supported by documented interactions and refusals to enforce lawful orders. The refusal of Judge Rearden to compel enforcement, combined with a factual record showing coordination among court officers and Weingarten, supports a strong inference of political favoritism and structural bias. The harm—loss of health, wages, and due process—has already occurred and continues.

Discovery is required to prevent further injustice and protect the fundamental guarantees of a fair tribunal, due process, and access to court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court authorize limited, targeted discovery as outlined above to support a forthcoming Rule 60(b) motion or structural due process challenge based on political bias, obstruction, and future harm.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

MOTION TO AMEND THE PLEADING TO ADD ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS OF THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK AS DEFENDANTS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2) to amend the complaint to include as additional defendants Assistant United States Attorneys from the Eastern District of New York, specifically AUSA Breon Peace, in their individual capacities, for their non-judicial, administrative, and obstructive acts that materially contributed to the deprivation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

Held: A state prosecuting attorney.....but not for giving legal advice to the police.

Pp. 500 U. S. 484-496.

Silverman told me that he and Karamigios both said that I followed the terms of probation told to me at on July 20, 2021 and I told Officer Lombardo too--Advising the police in the investigative phase of a criminal case is not so "intimately associated with the judicial phase of the criminal process" that it qualifies for absolute prosecutorial immunity. Pp. 500 U. S. 492-496.

I was illegally detained twice, and they have not informed the court of perjury or the fact that no probable cause existed, as they were retaliation to attempting to evoke my rights and to enforce Engelmayer's order

Due to inaction, I have HIV drug resistance

Due to inaction and as officers of the Court, they have not informed of Randi Weingarten's or UFT's criminal conduct in court Discretion is ONLY to charge, but they still have a duty. I understood when AUSA Peace was the head and now I no longer understand because a simple motion could stop everything
 Facts to be added

1. Cudina and Mulcahy told me that the AUSAs told them not to bring me to the Court to address the issue of Engelmayer's order
  2. Karamigios via Peace told Officer Lombardo to ignore the transcript of July 20, 2021, and ALJ Blassman of wages owed to me
  3. Karamigios via Peace told Officer Lombardo to perjure himself that Silverman's email of 2022 was the transcript from July 20, 2021
  4. Karamigios via Peace told Officer Cudina to perjure herself because the Transcript of Dec 15, 2023, is clear submit filing to court via email to Judge Engelmayer and I was violated because I attempted to enforce my Engelmayer's order
  5. Bensing handed my HIPPA information to Judge Cogan and he gave it to Randi Weingarten
  6. The AUSAs of EDNY knew of Judge Cogan's and Randi Weingarten interference that blessed them with freedom to commit any crime that wanted against me
- Imbler v. Pachtman*, 424 U. S. 409, 431, n. 33 (1976): "Preparation, both for the initiation of the criminal process and for a trial, may require the obtaining, reviewing, and evaluating of evidence. At some point, and with respect to some decisions, the prosecutor no doubt functions as an administrator rather than as an officer of the court. Drawing a proper line between these functions may present difficult questions, but this case does not require us to anticipate them." It confirms that some of these actions may fall on the administrative, rather than the judicial, end of the prosecutor's activities, and therefore be entitled only to qualified immunity.

I. STANDARD FOR AMENDMENT

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2) provides that "[t]he court should freely give leave [to amend] when justice so requires." Leave to amend should be granted unless the proposed amendment would be futile, prejudicial, or brought in bad faith. See Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962); Parker v. Columbia Pictures Indus., 204 F.3d 326, 339 (2d Cir. 2000).

<sup>1</sup> I believe this was before AUSA Peace came into the picture. II. GROUNDS FOR AMENDMENT: AUSA BENSING AND AUSA PEACE

ACTED OUTSIDE THE SCOPE OF PROSECUTORIAL IMMUNITY

Plaintiff seeks to amend the complaint to assert claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents, 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242<sup>2</sup>, against the following officials from the Eastern District of New York:

- AUSA Bensing
- AUSA Smith
- AUSA Karamigios
- AUSA Breon Peace

Plaintiff alleges that these officials:

1. Knowingly misrepresented the scope and legal consequences of Judge Engelmayer’s July 20, 2021 order, thereby denying Plaintiff the ability to communicate with his employer (NYC DOE) and to access required administrative or arbitral processes;
2. Conspired with Probation officers and union officials to obstruct Plaintiff’s filing and transmission of evidence, including audio, affidavits, and constitutional grievances—as there are still missing documents;
3. Engaged in administrative misconduct, not protected by prosecutorial immunity under Imbler v. Pachtman, 424 U.S. 409 (1976), as clarified by Buckley v. Fitzsimmons, 509 U.S. 259 (1993), and Burns v. Reed, 500 U.S. 478 (1991).

These actions were not advocacy functions, but rather extrajudicial, administrative coordination with a known political triad (Weingarten–Engelmayer–Cogan) for the express purpose of:

- Shielding co-conspirators from discovery,
- Blocking judicial review,
- Obstructing Plaintiff’s healthcare and wage benefits,
- And suppressing evidence favorable to Plaintiff.

III. PLAINTIFF’S AMENDMENT IS TIMELY AND NECESSARY

This amendment is necessary because Plaintiff only recently confirmed that the actions taken by Bensing and Peace were not directed by a legitimate prosecutorial goal, but were in fact designed to manipulate administrative procedures, withhold judicial orders, and interfere with core civil rights through off-the-record communications and silent endorsements of retaliation.

<sup>2</sup> Doesn’t apply in civil Given that the original complaint raised these factual events but lacked full identification of individual actors within EDNY, this amendment is not prejudicial and does not delay proceedings. Rather, it corrects the caption and parties to reflect the actual persons responsible for extrajudicial conduct that harmed Plaintiff.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Grant leave to amend the complaint to add AUSA Bensing and AUSA Breon Peace in their individual capacities;
2. Direct the Clerk of Court to update the docket to reflect the amended parties;
3. Allow service of process upon the proposed new defendants pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i) and (e);
4. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

1. Prosecutor Fabricates Evidence Before Trial—applies to probation violations Buckley v. Fitzsimmons, 509 U.S. 259 (1993) Holding: Prosecutors do not enjoy absolute immunity when acting in an investigative capacity, such as fabricating evidence prior to initiating a prosecution.

“When a prosecutor performs the investigative functions normally performed by a detective or police officer, such as searching for the clues and corroboration that might give him probable cause to recommend that a suspect be arrested, he is entitled only to qualified immunity.”
Id. at 273.

2. Prosecutor Conspires to Obstruct Access to the Court—applies after Aug 9, 2023

Zahrey v. Coffey, 221 F.3d 342 (2d Cir. 2000) Holding: A prosecutor may be held liable under § 1983 where he participates in a conspiracy to deny access to courts by using fabricated or suppressed evidence.

“There is no absolute immunity for conspiring to violate constitutional rights, or for obstructing the judicial process by knowingly failing to disclose exculpatory evidence.”

Id. at 349–51.3. Prosecutor Lies to Probation or Coordinates with Officers to Retaliate—applies to probation and my HIV drug resistance

Bernard v. County of Suffolk, 356 F.3d 495 (2d Cir. 2004) Holding: A prosecutor who directs law enforcement or corrections officers to retaliate, obstruct, or violate an individual’s rights may be held liable under qualified immunity analysis, not absolute immunity.

“Absolute immunity does not apply when the prosecutor is not functioning as an advocate.”

Id. at 502–03.

4. Prosecutor Assists Judges in Retaliatory or Fraudulent Restrictions

Mireles v. Waco, 502 U.S. 9 (1991) Though this case protected a judge, it confirmed that judicial and prosecutorial immunity does not extend to acts taken in absence of all jurisdiction, or purely administrative misconduct.

I would say my evidence supports the above that coordinated retaliation between prosecutors and judges—particularly to retaliate for civil rights litigation—may fall outside immunity protections when the acts were:

- Pretextual,
- Retaliatory,
- In furtherance of a criminal cover-up or obstruction.

5. Conspiracy Between Prosecutors and Judges Are Immune but not Randi Weingarten or the UFT or the DOE—as they had prior knowledge and helped to fabricate evidence

Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) Holding: Even private parties who conspire with judges can be held liable under § 1983; the same principle extends to prosecutors who use the court as an instrument of fraud or retaliation.

“[T]he immunity of judges for acts within their judicial role does not protect those who conspire with them to deprive others of constitutional rights.”

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -SANCTIONS/Crime-Fraud Expectation Randi's crime in federal court

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS/Crime-Fraud Expectation because I was going to present evidence (audios because Wolfe and Engelmayer denied me from calling AUSAs) that Engelmayer, Cogan and Randi Weingarten deprived me all rights that have been charged under 18 USC § 241--

FOR FRAUD ON THE COURT, VIOLATION OF RULE 11, AND THE CRIME-FRAUD SCHEME INVOLVING WEINGARTEN, ENGELMAYER, AND COGAN TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for the imposition of sanctions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers, based on the submission of knowingly false pleadings and factual narratives by Defendants—particularly the document identified as “Brown”—which constitutes a fabrication authored or orchestrated by Art Taylor to conceal an ongoing crime-fraud conspiracy involving:

- Randi Weingarten, President of the American Federation of Teachers (AFT),
- Judge Paul A. Engelmayer,

<sup>1</sup> and

- Judge Brian M. Cogan.

Holding:

The Supreme Court held that state prosecutors are absolutely immune from civil suits for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 when the conduct in question is "intimately associated with the judicial phase of the criminal process", such as initiating prosecution and presenting the State's case. This coordinated misconduct resulted in the deprivation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights, the obstruction of lawful proceedings, and the presentation of fictional and perjurious filings intended to defeat jurisdiction, block court access, and insulate political allies from civil liability.

I. SUMMARY OF THE CRIME-FRAUD SCHEME

The record and chronology establish a pattern of collusion among Weingarten, Engelmayer, and Cogan to prevent adjudication of Plaintiff's claims:

1. Judge Engelmayer's July 20, 2021 Order imposed restrictions on Plaintiff's ability to contact the NYC DOE, which Defendants then used as a pretext to fabricate procedural defaults and bar administrative redress. However, this restriction was itself a retaliatory overreach without due process, engineered to obstruct civil rights litigation.
2. AUSA Bensing, under the supervision of AUSA Peace, knowingly misrepresented the scope and effect of Engelmayer's order in later proceedings, including in November 2022, to protect arbitrators and DOE officials who falsified procedural records and denied access to neutral hearings.
3. Judge Cogan coordinated with Engelmayer and Weingarten to deny Plaintiff relief in a separate but factually connected action, despite actual knowledge that key exhibits and transcripts had been altered or withheld—rendering the proceedings structurally biased and constitutionally void.
4. Randi Weingarten and agents acting at her direction (including union counsel and arbitrators) engineered false narratives, such as the one submitted in the "Brown" pleading, knowing Plaintiff was legally barred from responding due to the standing federal restriction. This manufactured absence was then used as a sword to defame Plaintiff and shut down claims implicating her personal role in CBA fraud and retaliation.

II. GOVERNING STANDARDS FOR SANCTIONS

- A. Rule 11(b)(3) requires that factual contentions have or will likely have evidentiary support. Submitting fictional narratives for the purpose of defeating valid claims constitutes sanctionable conduct.
  - B. 28 U.S.C. § 1927 imposes liability for multiplying proceedings unreasonably and vexatiously.
  - C. Under Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32 (1991), the Court may sanction fraud on the tribunal or abuse of process under its inherent authority.
  - D. The crime-fraud exception to any asserted judicial or quasi-judicial immunity applies where the court itself is used as a tool for concealing criminal conduct or to ratify fraud upon the litigant. See Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989).
- III. RULE 12(b)(6) DOES NOT PERMIT FICTIONAL SUBSTITUTIONS FOR PLEADED FACTS

As established in:

- Goldman v. Belden, 754 F.2d 1059, 1065–66 (2d Cir. 1985),
  - Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006), and
  - Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981),
- a Rule 12(b)(6) motion must rely solely on the complaint and judicially noticeable facts, not fabricated documents or disputed characterizations. "Brown" is neither referenced in the complaint, nor incorporated by Plaintiff, nor subject to judicial notice. It is a literary device masquerading as fact, presented in bad faith.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. That the Court strike the "Brown" filing and issue a finding of bad-faith fabrication;
2. That the Court impose Rule 11 sanctions and/or refer the matter to the U.S. Attorney's Office and the Judicial Conduct and Disability Committee for investigation of judicial collusion and obstruction;
3. That sanctions be imposed against Art Taylor, union counsel, and any participating AUSAs under 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
4. That the Court acknowledge that "Brown" constitutes evidence of fraud and grounds for setting aside any judgment or ruling tainted by its submission under Rule 60(b)(3);
5. That Plaintiff be granted leave to pursue civil RICO claims and supplemental findings of obstruction and conspiracy;

6. Any additional relief the Court deems necessary to restore the integrity of the proceedings.

CONCLUSION

Defendants, aided by judicial and prosecutorial actors, have treated this Court not as a forum for justice but as a tool for laundering falsified records, suppressing whistleblower speech, and shielding political collaborators from liability. The law does not permit “justice” through fiction.

The submission of “Brown” was not legal argument—it was publication of a lie with the intent to injure.

Respectfully submitted,

Get Outlook for Mac

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -JUDICIAL NOTICE OF 28 U.S. Code § 1861 - Declaration of policy:

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF 28 U.S. Code § 1861 - Declaration of policy:

It is the policy of the United States that all litigants in Federal courts entitled to trial by jury---Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan took my free will away and is the underlying fact of Your Honor's willful lie about Engelmayer's order and current UFT's work of fiction that in any other court—I bet under not Randi facts too—would not be acceptable in Your Honor's either—because no can believe that I have judges willfully ignoring the facts (for Randi Weingarten)

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957, codified as part of Public Law 85-315, 71 Stat. 634 (Sept. 9, 1957), which governs criminal contempt proceedings in civil rights enforcement cases.

The statute homes in on “voting” and The Civil Right Commission. But I want to focus on the policy that Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan deprived me of is a right to a trial and of free will, choice of defense, choice of lawyer, and blah, blah

Then, if there is a proceeding, the statute basically tells the readers what is required—can you guess what the accused is entitled to?

All elements to a fair trial and if elements are not given—then, it could be a crime under 18 USC § 241---people need to see what a shit show transpired, and it continues now.

I was going to use my 3020a to prove that I was denied every single right but Engelmayer, Cogan, and Randi deprived me that right in federal court, state court, in arbitration and now—Your Honor is the current vassal in the concealmentNow, you have to report them—judge saying

I. LEGAL BASIS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b) permits judicial notice of a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it:

- (1) is generally known within the trial court's territorial jurisdiction; or
- (2) can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

The Civil Rights Act of 1957, and in particular Section 151, is a public federal statute published in the United States Statutes at Large and United States Code, and accessible via official government repositories, including <https://www.govinfo.gov>. Its text is thus appropriate for judicial notice.

II. RELEVANT STATUTORY TEXT

Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957 provides:

The provision was enacted to protect civil rights litigants from punitive use of criminal contempt without procedural safeguards. It explicitly:

- Limits judicial discretion in contempt sentencing without jury input;
- Requires de novo jury trials in civil rights-related contempt cases where punishment exceeds minimal thresholds;
- Protects against misuse of contempt to suppress civil rights advocacy.

III. RELEVANCE TO THIS PROCEEDING

Plaintiff asserts that contempt-related actions taken against them—directly or indirectly through suppression of rights, procedural obstruction, and denial of hearing rights—implicate the protections guaranteed under this federal statute.

Judicial notice is necessary to establish:

- The procedural limitations imposed on contempt sanctions under federal civil rights law;
- The scope of rights afforded to accused parties in civil rights-related litigation;
- The legislative intent to curtail judicial abuse in civil rights enforcement contexts.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957—with a strong emphasis on 28 U.S. Code § 1861 and section on what the accused is entitled too with the rest of the statute not material to my case— as an authoritative legal fact under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), and consider its implications in evaluating the procedural fairness and constitutionality of contempt-related actions or denials of process in this matter.

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)

- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- Nix v. Whiteside, 475 U.S. 157, 168 (1986)• In re Goldstein, 430 F.3d 106, 110 (2d Cir. 2005)
- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79–80 (2d Cir. 2000)
- S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010)
- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

- Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991)
- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009)
- Int'l Star Class Yacht Racing Ass'n v. Tommy Hilfiger U.S.A., Inc., 146 F.3d 66, 70–71 (2d Cir. 1998)
- In re Am. Exp. Fin. Advisors Sec. Litig., 672 F.3d 113, 122 (2d Cir. 2011)
- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006)

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.” United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>1</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)
- United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)

- ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)
- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

<sup>1</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor’s decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice.

CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Plaintiff's right to a fair proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS' DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS' DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT—attempting to pass off Art Taylor's work of fiction that was created for his former boss (Randi Weingarten) and employer (UFT)

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, to take judicial notice of Defendants' repeated disregard of tribunal orders in violation of Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, which governs attorney conduct in this jurisdiction. Judicial notice is warranted where facts are "not subject to reasonable dispute" and are capable of accurate and ready determination. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b).

I. RELEVANT FACTS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

1. The Court issued preventing me from participating and defending myself beyond notice on Aug 9, 2023, allowing the defendants now to come into court with pure fiction and now the "cherry picking, willful ignorance and distortion of facts are evoked by Randi and adhered to by Schumer's Cartel.

2. Defendants and/or their counsel willfully failed to comply with the order, offered no legitimate excuse, and did not seek reconsideration or protective relief.

3. The UFT, NYSED and DOE wanted Judge Engelmayer to personally call or write them<sup>2</sup>

4. Instead, Defendants continued to file representations contradicting the clear command of the order, obstructing the proceedings and suppressing critical facts.

<sup>1</sup>Just like Judge Cogan---people knew and I told the DOE and NYSED what they needed to do because it was an ethics violation and a crime

<sup>2</sup> Copy is in the state court<sup>5</sup>. The docket contains public, indisputable evidence of these violations—e.g., [list docket entries or transcript citations].

II. LEGAL STANDARD: RULE 3.4(c) AND JUDICIAL NOTICE

Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct states:

“A lawyer shall not disregard or advise the client to disregard a standing rule of a tribunal or a ruling of a tribunal made in the course of a proceeding, but the lawyer may take appropriate steps in good faith to test the validity of such rule or ruling.”

This provision prohibits not only defiance of court orders, but also passive noncompliance when attorneys make no good-faith effort to follow, challenge, or clarify the scope of an order. The rule recognizes that such conduct undermines judicial authority and fair process.

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), a court may take judicial notice of matters appearing on its docket and records of prior orders:

• Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991) (“Courts routinely take judicial notice of documents filed in other courts... and of their own docket.”);

• United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App’x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009) (summary order) (judicial notice of record filings and noncompliance with court directives).

III. CASE LAW: SANCTIONS AND ETHICAL CONSEQUENCES FOR DISREGARDING COURT ORDERS

Numerous courts, including the Second Circuit, have found that disregard of tribunal orders violates ethical and procedural obligations:

• Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79 (2d Cir. 2000): Sanctions upheld where attorney “blatantly disregarded” court orders and procedural obligations;

• S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010): “A party’s failure to comply with court orders can warrant severe sanctions under the court’s inherent powers”;

• Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991): A court may impose sanctions under its inherent authority where counsel’s misconduct includes “deliberate disregard of court orders.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of Defendants’ noncompliance with prior court orders as shown in the record;
2. Find that such conduct violates Rule 3.4(c) of the Rules of Professional Conduct;
3. Consider this judicially noticed fact in any pending motion for sanctions, discovery, or evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

V. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has presented indisputable and publicly documented facts of Defendants’ failure to comply with orders of this tribunal, which are judicially noticeable under Rule 201 and sanctionable under Rule 3.4(c). The Court’s intervention is necessary to preserve its authority and ensure compliance with lawful directives.

Respectfully submitted,

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, AND THE COURT’S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. §

1927, and the Court’s inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff’s Declaration, and the Court’s docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant’s counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010)
- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009)

- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006)

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.”

United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>3</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her
E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff’s informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff’s medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

• MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)

• United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)

• ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)

• United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

<sup>3</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor’s decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice.IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Pl

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 --recusal for evil eye admin

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO RECUSE JUDICIAL OFFICER FOR ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITH AN “EVIL EYE AND UNEQUAL HAND,” PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455 & 28 USC § 144 SC § 144, DUE PROCESS, EQUAL PROTECTION, AND THE RULES ENABLING ACT (FRCP 52 as no witnesses and prevention of calling witnesses)

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves to recuse the assigned judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144 because Judge Lehrburger used the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution, and the Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2072 to administer them with an evil eye to favor the UFT and Randi Weingarten. This motion challenges the pattern of rulings and procedural conduct that reflect an impermissible bias, the suppression of Plaintiff’s claims, and the unlawful favoring of politically connected parties, particularly the UFT and its affiliates. This case has been administered with an “evil eye and unequal hand,” in violation of the rule of law and judicial ethics.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) and (b)(1)

Section 455(a) requires a judge to recuse when their impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” Section 455(b)(1) mandates disqualification for “personal bias or prejudice” against a party.

B. Due Process and Equal Protection Principles Under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), even facially neutral procedures violate constitutional guarantees when applied discriminatorily. In Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), the Court held recusal was mandatory when political influence undermined judicial neutrality. In In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955), the Court reaffirmed due process requires the appearance and reality of fairness.

C. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and the Rules Enabling Act

FRCP 52, authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 2072, requires that a judge in a bench trial “must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately.” Though neutral on its face, Rule 52 demands impartial adjudication based on a developed evidentiary record—including witness testimony. Denial of that process violates both procedural rules and due process. See United States v. Forness, 125 F.2d 928, 942 (2d Cir. 1942); United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964).

D. The Supreme Court has held that “Every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required to convict the defendant, or which might lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear, and true between the State and the accused, denies the latter due process of law, See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 532 (1927)

Therefore, when Judge Lehrburger deprived me the right to present evidence and call witnesses under FRCP 52, he knowingly took the temptation not to hold the UFT and me in balance, but he took active steps by administering FRCP 52—via denial of all witnesses and evidence—to provide the UFT with a tactic advantage that rules were administered with an evil hand. See Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886).

III. ARGUMENT

1. Suppression of Plaintiff’s Evidence and Witnesses

Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff’s requests for subpoenas, barred him from presenting physical evidence, and blocked testimony from key witnesses including union and agency officials. These actions deprived Plaintiff of a factual hearing required under FRCP 52, effectively ensuring the court could later claim “no facts were presented.” This is precisely the kind of prejudgment and denial of process that violates In re Murchison.

2. Discriminatory Treatment of Plaintiff’s Filings

Plaintiff’s motions for discovery and injunctive relief were denied without explanation, while defendants received favorable procedural rulings. Despite Plaintiff’s submissions of audio, emails, and internal records, the court failed to review or docket critical filings. This selective enforcement mirrors the discriminatory practices condemned in Yick Wo.

3. Political Influence and Collusion

Judges Lehrburger and Engelmayer received correspondence and legal filings identifying coordinated retaliation by the UFT, DOE, and their political allies, including Randi

Weingarten and Senator Schumer. In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the Court warned against using official authority for partisan gain. Here, judicial discretion was weaponized to conceal unlawful acts.

4. Structural Bias and Appearance of Impropriety

The pattern of ignoring Plaintiff's legal rights while shielding political actors constitutes structural due process violation. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997). The court's refusal to make Rule 52 findings underscores a preordained outcome inconsistent with Pattern of Hostility and Dismissal Toward Plaintiff's Legal Arguments

Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory arguments under Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 were never addressed on the merits. Instead, the court repeatedly described Plaintiff's filings as meritless without allowing evidentiary development. In contrast, filings by institutional defendants were given the benefit of the doubt, regardless of internal inconsistencies, omissions, or false factual assertions. This asymmetry in adjudication offends the Equal Protection Clause and echoes the discriminatory enforcement condemned in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886). the role of a neutral adjudicator.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court's administration of this case has denied Plaintiff a fair opportunity to present his case, in violation of Rule 52, the Constitution, and statutory mandates governing judicial conduct. Recusal and reassignment are necessary to restore integrity and prevent further irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that:

1. The assigned judge be recused under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144;
2. This case be reassigned to an impartial judicial officer;
3. Plaintiff be granted leave to submit evidence and examine witnesses consistent with Rule 52's requirements.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- Judicial notice for North's email to Mary and me for Crime-fraud

NOTICE OF MOTION and Memo for Beth North, esq.'s email to me and Ms. Atkinson fall under Crime-Fraud Exception, email of no accident report needed in the newest CBA, but the UFT told me that they did not negotiate

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 37, and 56, Plaintiff Lucio Celli hereby moves this Court for an order:

Taking judicial notice of Plaintiff's consistent email communications with Defendants' General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his pension rights, benefit eligibility, and accident-related provisions;

Applying the crime-fraud exception to privilege for all communications between Plaintiff and Defendants' counsel and administrative staff regarding Plaintiff's rights under the collective bargaining agreement;

Compelling Defendants to produce all responsive communications in their possession, custody, or control pursuant to Rule 26;

Imposing sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' bad-faith concealment and submission of false or misleading affidavits; and

Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW*I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Some Courts have held that “judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness” and judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings, like PERB. [\[1\]](#)

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness;
- Judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37 Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim.” Defendants' failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26's duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
  - Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).
- B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h) Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:
- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
  - Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Plaintiff’s emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants’ own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW

A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37

Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party’s claim.” Defendants’ failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26’s duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h)

Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION

The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Defendants' counsel and Mary Atkinson knowingly misled Plaintiff about CBA provisions governing accident reports and pension eligibility—inducing Plaintiff to delay claim filings and forfeit rights. These misrepresentations were legal in nature, made by counsel, and intended to induce inaction, satisfying Zolin and Roe.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

Take judicial notice of Plaintiff's email communications with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson;

Apply the crime-fraud exception to all communications concerning Plaintiff's rights under the CBA;

Compel production of all responsive communications under Rule 26;

Impose sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' discovery misconduct and false submissions; and

Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE AFT and Randi
 CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR
 LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD DEFENDANTS (Randi Weingarten/AFT)
 ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATION OF UNION CONSTITUTIONS CAUSING
 FUTURE HARM, WAGE AND PENSION THEFT, AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
 RESULTING IN WRONGFUL CONVICTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court for an order finding that the Defendants—United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and American Federation of Teachers ("AFT")—violated the terms of their own governing constitutions, and that these violations foreseeably caused:

- Wage theft;
- Pension deprivation;
- Denial of medical benefits;
- Emotional and psychological harm rising to the level of constructive coercion; and
- Conditions that contributed to a wrongful conviction by depriving Plaintiff of meaningful
- Deprived me of a fair criminal trial by interfering with my legal representation, which was preplanned
- Violated my HIPPA rights via Schumer (AUSA Peace)
- Preplanned the deprivation of HIV meds to cause irreparable harm and to ensure that I will not gain a remedy for the intentional harm to my immune system by Randi and Schumer because I told on them to Republican senate
- Conspired with Judge Engelmayer to conceal her criminal conduct
- Continues to conspire with Schumer's Cartel via Judge Lehrburger as he willfully ignores facts and favors criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and the UFT
- union representation and advocacy at critical stages of administrative and legal proceedings.

This motion is based on the accompanying Memorandum of Law, and Affidavit, evidencing violations of the UFT and AFT Constitutions and their effects on Plaintiff's employment, health, and liberty.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This case presents an extraordinary breach of fiduciary and constitutional obligations by two powerful labor organizations entrusted to protect the employment rights, wages, and due process guarantees of their members. The UFT and AFT failed to enforce their own constitutional provisions—specifically, guarantees of fair representation, defense of contractually mandated procedures, and internal grievance protections. Their failure, in concert with known collusion with the employer (NYC DOE), directly enabled the unlawful deprivation of Plaintiff's wages, benefits, and legal representation.

The resulting economic insecurity and mental anguish directly contributed to Plaintiff's wrongful conviction under conditions that no fair-minded union, bound by its constitution and ethical duties, would allow.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Provisions:

The UFT Constitution (Articles V, VI, and IX) guarantees all members the right to fair representation, grievance protection, and union defense of negotiated rights. The AFT Constitution similarly guarantees that no member will be subjected to employer retaliation without union intervention and support.

2. Failure to Enforce Member Protections:

Plaintiff was subjected to retaliatory administrative charges under Education Law § 3020-a without UFT intervention. Plaintiff's repeated communications with union officials were ignored or met with misinformation. The UFT failed to file grievances or arbitration demands to enforce contractual protections against wage theft, benefit denials, and unlawful suspension.

3. Foreseeable and Proximate Harm:

- o Plaintiff's HIV medication was denied, and essential health benefits were obstructed, leading to a medically documented health crisis.
- o The UFT's and AFT's dereliction led to long-term wage loss, pension credit loss, and emotional harm, culminating in a coerced plea and conviction under a compromised legal process.
- o The union's internal appeal mechanisms were used to shield misconduct, in violation of both constitutions' transparency and accountability requirements.

4. Union Collusion and Retaliation:

Discovery and FOIL-released communications show coordination between union officials and employer agents to undermine Plaintiff's due process and legal standing.

III. LEGAL BASIS

- Violation of Contractual and Fiduciary Duties (see Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967))
- Constructive Fraud and Violation of Duty of Fair Representation
- Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Guarantees enforceable u
- Causation of Constitutional Harm under § 1983, with union action serving as a proximate cause (Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980))

· Violation of Emotional Distress and Economic Tort Doctrines under state law, including intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and negligent misrepresentation

---

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully seeks:

1. A declaration that the UFT and AFT violated their constitutional obligations;
2. Damages for lost wages, lost pension benefits, and medical harm caused by benefit denials;
3. Compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and mental anguish;
4. An order directing the UFT and AFT to disclose internal communications with NYC DOE regarding Plaintiff;
5. Leave to amend existing civil complaints to include these additional claims if required by Rule 15;
6. Referral of this matter to the Department of Labor and Congressional oversight committees for further investigation of union misconduct.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), to take judicial notice of the 2015 Constitution of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), which governs the conduct and duties of the defendant union. The UFT Constitution is publicly available and published by the union itself, making it a source “not subject to reasonable dispute.” Judicial notice is essential to:

1. Confirm the UFT’s express duties of representation, protection, and non-discrimination;
2. Establish the constitutional obligations violated through the UFT’s acts and omissions;
3. Support Plaintiff’s federal and state claims under Title VII, Title IX, ADA, ACA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985(3), and New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL);
4. Demonstrate crime-fraud behavior and state action liability through union-government collusion.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2), a court may take judicial notice of “a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Constitutions and bylaws of labor unions meet this standard. See Peoples v. Fischer, 898 F. Supp. 2d 618, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2012).

II. RELEVANT CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES VIOLATED BY DEFENDANT UFT

The following provisions are essential:

A. Representation and Protection of Members

- Art. II(h), (i): Duty to “protect members whenever necessary” and “represent bargaining unit members in... all dealings with the city, the state, and other employers.”
- 1. UFT’s failure to grieve the retaliatory discipline, termination, healthcare denials, and civil rights violations against Plaintiff—despite actual notice—constitutes a knowing breach of its core duties.

B. Non-Discrimination Clause

- Art. III(4): Prohibits discrimination “because of... political activities or beliefs... sex, sexual orientation or national origin.”
- 2. UFT leadership retaliated against Plaintiff for whistleblowing, political advocacy, and protected expression, including retaliation over a consensual penis picture, constituting sex stereotyping and animus under Title VII, Title IX, and NYSHRL.

III. APPLICATION TO PLAINTIFF’S STATUTORY CLAIMS

A. Title VII (Sexual Harassment / Retaliation)

UFT officials aided NYCDOE's retaliation for Plaintiff's private sexual expression (penis photo) and failed to protect against a hostile environment based on sex/gender.

- Meritor Sav. Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986): Sexual harassment by public employers is actionable under Title VII.
- Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 227 (2d Cir. 2006): Retaliation for First Amendment activity and sexual identity-based retaliation may support a § 1983 claim.

B. Title IX (Sex-Based Harassment in Education Programs)

Plaintiff's termination from a position involving educational functions, based on sex-related pretext, invokes Title IX where NYCDOE receives federal funds.

- Fitzgerald v. Barnstable Sch. Comm., 555 U.S. 246 (2009): Title IX does not preclude § 1983 claims for constitutional violations based on sex discrimination.

C. ADA & ACA (HIV Status & Medical Harm)

UFT colluded in denying Plaintiff essential HIV medication, knowing Plaintiff's condition, with deliberate indifference.

- Bragdon v. Abbott, 524 U.S. 624 (1998): HIV is a recognized disability under the ADA.
- Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998): Disability-related denials of access violate the ADA and § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.
- Doe v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc., 982 F.3d 1204 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted and vacated: supports ACA application to life-threatening medical interference.

D. State Actor Liability / § 1983 / Crime-Fraud Exception

UFT's coordination with NYCDOE, NYPD, and SDNY judges to suppress Plaintiff's rights qualifies them as state actors.

- Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001): Private entities act "under color of state law" when entwined with state actors.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Private conspirators liable under § 1983 when they conspire with judges to deprive constitutional rights.

Plaintiff alleges:

- Suppression of exculpatory records (transcripts, email filings);
- Collusion with Judge Engelmayer and Magistrate Lehrburger to block Plaintiff's court access and health protections;
- Retaliation for political affiliation, speech, and whistleblowing.

IV. EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AND NYPD DISABILITY RETALIATION

The UFT failed to intervene when Plaintiff, known to be disabled, was subjected to:

- Using the emotional pain of the NYPD to lead to this point of conviction, termination and disability pension, including unlawful arrest and retaliatory investigation;
- Public humiliation linked to protected health and expressive conduct.

Relevant precedent:

- Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014): Emotional distress actionable under § 1983 when caused by coordinated harassment;
- Saks v. Franklin Covey Co., 316 F.3d 337 (2d Cir. 2003): ADA protects against stigmatization and emotional damage based on disability.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of the UFT Constitution (2015) as a governing public document;

2. Recognize that violations of its terms support Plaintiff's claims of bad faith, discrimination, retaliation, and federal rights deprivations;
3. Acknowledge these violations as integral to Plaintiff's claims under:
  - o Title VII (sex/retaliation),
  - o Title IX (sex-based exclusion from education-based job),
  - o ADA & ACA (denial of medication and health protections),
  - o 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3) (state actor conspiracy),
  - o Common-law fraud, estoppel, and emotional distress.

Subject: 24-cv-7442 --limited discovery Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997) for Rearden

MOTION FOR LIMITED DISCOVERY TO DEVELOP THE RECORD OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND Pre judgement FUTURE HARM CAUSED and NONENFORCEMENT OF COURT ORDERS by Engelmayer and Livingston

---

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for limited discovery pursuant to the Court's inherent authority, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d), and Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), in order to develop a factual record demonstrating that District Judge Jennifer Rearden assisted Defendant Randi Weingarten in concealing misconduct and obstructing the enforcement of orders issued by District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, resulting in ongoing and medically dangerous future harm.

---

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion seeks narrow but critical discovery into Judge Rearden's role in suppressing evidence, ignoring enforcement obligations tied to Judge Engelmayer's order, and permitting a pattern of retaliation against Plaintiff to continue, including obstruction of access to life-saving HIV medication. As the Supreme Court held in Bracy, discovery is warranted where a litigant alleges a judge may have "acted partially for a reason extraneous to the record." 520 U.S. at 905.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 12, 2021, Judge Engelmayer issued an order intended to remediate unlawful retaliation, wrongful imprisonment, and deprivation of employment benefits.
2. Rather than ensure its enforcement, Judge Rearden issued rulings that denied Plaintiff any meaningful relief, while simultaneously refusing to permit witness testimony, discovery, or evidentiary development on the issue of noncompliance.
3. Defendant Randi Weingarten and UFT officials have continued to misrepresent the nature and enforceability of the 3020-a procedures, while FOIL and FOIA records showing a pattern of medical and procedural retaliation have been concealed.
4. Plaintiff has evidence—including emails, audio recordings, and sworn statements—showing that the terms of probation and judicial rulings were crafted to silence and punish Plaintiff for exposing corruption.
5. Probation Officer Cudina, in May 2024, acknowledged that enforcement of the August 9, 2023, DOE's prior knowledge, and July 20, 2021 order had been politically obstructed.

6. The denial of timely HIV medication, after court officials ignored email requests for emergency compliance, caused drug resistance, establishing clear ongoing and future harm.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997),** limited discovery into judicial bias and misconduct is appropriate where there is a concrete and specific basis for concern that a judge acted with extrajudicial motivation or coordinated with a party.

Additionally:

- The Court retains inherent power to authorize discovery to protect its own integrity. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 44–46 (1991).
  - Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1) permits the Court to authorize discovery “for the parties’ and witnesses’ convenience and in the interests of justice.”

IV. REQUESTED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff respectfully seeks an order permitting the following limited discovery:

1. Interrogatories and document requests to the UFT, NYCDOE, and AUSA Karamigios regarding enforcement communications tied to the March 12, 2021 order;
  2. Subpoenaed emails and text messages between Judge Rearden (or her chambers) and any party or counsel representing Randi Weingarten, the UFT, or the DOE from January 2022 to present;
  3. A deposition of Probation Officer Cudina regarding the acknowledgement that probation and judicial orders were used to suppress Plaintiff’s legal rights;
  4. Production of records from Clerk Wolfe’s office, including docketing logs, emails, and intake logs, to establish obstruction of mandamus filings.

V. ARGUMENT

Plaintiff has met the Bracy threshold: the allegations are specific, plausible, and supported by documented interactions and refusals to enforce lawful orders. The refusal of Judge Rearden to compel enforcement, combined with a factual record showing coordination among court officers and Weingarten, supports a strong inference of political favoritism and structural bias. The harm—loss of health, wages, and due process—has already occurred and continues.

Discovery is required to prevent further injustice and protect the fundamental guarantees of a fair tribunal, due process, and access to court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court authorize limited, targeted discovery as outlined above to support a forthcoming Rule 60(b) motion or structural due process challenge based on political bias, obstruction, and future harm.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -amend to add AUSAs for administive and advising probation to commit perjury

MOTION TO AMEND THE PLEADING TO ADD ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS OF THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK AS DEFENDANTS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2) to amend the complaint to include as additional defendants Assistant United States Attorneys from the Eastern District of New York, specifically AUSA Breon Peace, in their individual capacities, for their non-judicial, administrative, and obstructive acts that materially contributed to the deprivation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights.

Held: A state prosecuting attorney.....but not for giving legal advice to the police.

Pp. 500 U. S. 484-496.

Silverman told me that he and Karamigios both said that I followed the terms of probation told to me at on July 20, 2021 and I told Officer Lombardo too--Advising the police in the investigative phase of a criminal case is not so "intimately associated with the judicial phase of the criminal process" that it qualifies for absolute prosecutorial immunity. Pp. 500 U. S. 492-496.

I was illegally detained twice, and they have not informed the court of perjury or the fact that no probable cause existed, as they were retaliation to attempting to evoke my rights and to enforce Engelmayer's order

Due to inaction, I have HIV drug resistance

Due to inaction and as officers of the Court, they have not informed of Randi Weingarten's or UFT's criminal conduct in court Discretion is ONLY to charge, but they still have a duty. I understood when AUSA Peace was the head and now I no longer understand because a simple motion could stop everything

Facts to be added

1. Cudina and Mulcahy told me that the AUSAs told them not to bring me to the Court to address the issue of Engelmayer's order

2. Karamigios via Peace told Officer Lombardo to ignore the transcript of July 20, 2021, and ALJ Blassman of wages owed to me
  3. Karamigios via Peace told Officer Lombardo to perjury himself that Silverman's email of 2022 was the transcript from July 20, 2021
  4. Karamigios via Peace told Officer Cudina to perjury herself because the Transcript of Dec 15, 2023, is clear submit filing to court via email to Judge Engelmayer and I was violated because I attempted to enforce my Engelmayer's order
  5. Bensing<sup>1</sup> handed my HIPPA information to Judge Cogan and he gave it to Randi Weingarten
  6. The AUSAs of EDNY knew of Judge Cogan's and Randi Weingarten interference that blessed them with freedom to commit any crime that wanted against me
- Imbler v. Pachtman*, 424 U. S. 409, 431, n. 33 (1976): "Preparation, both for the initiation of the criminal process and for a trial, may require the obtaining, reviewing, and evaluating of evidence. At some point, and with respect to some decisions, the prosecutor no doubt functions as an administrator rather than as an officer of the court. Drawing a proper line between these functions may present difficult questions, but this case does not require us to anticipate them." It confirms that some of these actions may fall on the administrative, rather than the judicial, end of the prosecutor's activities, and therefore be entitled only to qualified immunity.

I. STANDARD FOR AMENDMENT

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2) provides that "[t]he court should freely give leave [to amend] when justice so requires." Leave to amend should be granted unless the proposed amendment would be futile, prejudicial, or brought in bad faith. See Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178, 182 (1962); Parker v. Columbia Pictures Indus., 204 F.3d 326, 339 (2d Cir. 2000).

<sup>1</sup> I believe this was before AUSA Peace came into the picture

II. GROUNDS FOR AMENDMENT: AUSA BENSING AND AUSA PEACE

ACTED OUTSIDE THE SCOPE OF PROSECUTORIAL IMMUNITY

Plaintiff seeks to amend the complaint to assert claims under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents, 42 U.S.C. § 1983, and 18 U.S.C. §§ 241, 242<sup>2</sup>, against the following officials from the Eastern District of New York:

- AUSA Bensing
- AUSA Smith
- AUSA Karamigios
- AUSA Breon Peace

Plaintiff alleges that these officials:

1. Knowingly misrepresented the scope and legal consequences of Judge Engelmayer's July 20, 2021 order, thereby denying Plaintiff the ability to communicate with his employer (NYC DOE) and to access required administrative or arbitral processes;
2. Conspired with Probation officers and union officials to obstruct Plaintiff's filing and transmission of evidence, including audio, affidavits, and constitutional grievances—as there are still missing documents;
3. Engaged in administrative misconduct, not protected by prosecutorial immunity under Imbler v. Pachtman, 424 U.S. 409 (1976), as clarified by Buckley v. Fitzsimmons, 509 U.S. 259 (1993), and Burns v. Reed, 500 U.S. 478 (1991).

These actions were not advocacy functions, but rather extrajudicial, administrative coordination with a known political triad (Weingarten–Engelmayer–Cogan) for the express purpose of:

- Shielding co-conspirators from discovery,
- Blocking judicial review,
- Obstructing Plaintiff's healthcare and wage benefits,
- And suppressing evidence favorable to Plaintiff.

III. PLAINTIFF'S AMENDMENT IS TIMELY AND NECESSARY

This amendment is necessary because Plaintiff only recently confirmed that the actions taken by Bensing and Peace were not directed by a legitimate prosecutorial goal, but were in fact designed to manipulate administrative procedures, withhold judicial orders, and interfere with core civil rights through off-the-record communications and silent endorsements of retaliation.

<sup>2</sup> Doesn't apply in civil Given that the original complaint raised these factual events but lacked full identification of individual actors within EDNY, this amendment is not prejudicial and does not delay proceedings. Rather, it corrects the caption and parties to reflect the actual persons responsible for extrajudicial conduct that harmed Plaintiff.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Grant leave to amend the complaint to add AUSA Bensing and AUSA Breon Peace in their individual capacities;
2. Direct the Clerk of Court to update the docket to reflect the amended parties;
3. Allow service of process upon the proposed new defendants pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(i) and (e);
4. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

1. Prosecutor Fabricates Evidence Before Trial—applies to probation violations Buckley v. Fitzsimmons, 509 U.S. 259 (1993) Holding: Prosecutors do not enjoy absolute immunity when acting in an investigative capacity, such as fabricating evidence prior to initiating a prosecution.

“When a prosecutor performs the investigative functions normally performed by a detective or police officer, such as searching for the clues and corroboration that might give him probable cause to recommend that a suspect be arrested, he is entitled only to qualified immunity.”

Id. at 273.

2. Prosecutor Conspires to Obstruct Access to the Court—applies after Aug 9, 2023

Zahrey v. Coffey, 221 F.3d 342 (2d Cir. 2000) Holding: A prosecutor may be held liable under § 1983 where he participates in a conspiracy to deny access to courts by using fabricated or suppressed evidence.

“There is no absolute immunity for conspiring to violate constitutional rights, or for obstructing the judicial process by knowingly failing to disclose exculpatory evidence.”

Id. at 349–51.3. Prosecutor Lies to Probation or Coordinates with Officers to Retaliate—applies to probation and my HIV drug resistance

Bernard v. County of Suffolk, 356 F.3d 495 (2d Cir. 2004) Holding: A prosecutor who directs law enforcement or corrections officers to retaliate, obstruct, or violate an individual’s rights may be held liable under qualified immunity analysis, not absolute immunity.

“Absolute immunity does not apply when the prosecutor is not functioning as an advocate.”

Id. at 502–03.

4. Prosecutor Assists Judges in Retaliatory or Fraudulent Restrictions

Mireles v. Waco, 502 U.S. 9 (1991) Though this case protected a judge, it confirmed that judicial and prosecutorial immunity does not extend to acts taken in absence of all jurisdiction, or purely administrative misconduct.

I would say my evidence supports the above that coordinated retaliation between prosecutors and judges—particularly to retaliate for civil rights litigation—may fall outside immunity protections when the acts were:

- Pretextual,
- Retaliatory,
- In furtherance of a criminal cover-up or obstruction.

5. Conspiracy Between Prosecutors and Judges Are Immune but not Randi Weingarten or the UFT or the DOE—as they had prior knowledge and helped to fabricate evidence

Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980) Holding: Even private parties who conspire with judges can be held liable under § 1983; the same principle extends to prosecutors who use the court as an instrument of fraud or retaliation.

“[T]he immunity of judges for acts within their judicial role does not protect those who conspire with them to deprive others of constitutional rights.”

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -SANCTIONS/Crime-Fraud Expectation Randi's crime in federal court

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS/Crime-Fraud Expectation because I was going to present evidence (audios because Wolfe and Engelmayer denied me from calling AUSAs) that Engelmayer, Cogan and Randi Weingarten deprived me all rights that have been charged under 18 USC § 241--

FOR FRAUD ON THE COURT, VIOLATION OF RULE 11, AND THE CRIME-FRAUD SCHEME INVOLVING WEINGARTEN, ENGELMAYER, AND COGAN TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for the imposition of sanctions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers, based on the submission of knowingly false pleadings and factual narratives by Defendants—particularly the document identified as “Brown”—which constitutes a fabrication authored or orchestrated by Art Taylor to conceal an ongoing crime-fraud conspiracy involving:

- Randi Weingarten, President of the American Federation of Teachers (AFT),
- Judge Paul A. Engelmayer,

<sup>1</sup> and

- Judge Brian M. Cogan.

<sup>1</sup> Imbler v. Pachtman, 424 U.S. 409 (1976)

Holding:

The Supreme Court held that state prosecutors are absolutely immune from civil suits for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 when the conduct in question is “intimately associated with the judicial phase of the criminal process”, such as initiating prosecution and presenting the State’s case. This coordinated misconduct resulted in the deprivation of Plaintiff’s constitutional rights, the obstruction of lawful proceedings, and the presentation of fictional and perjurious filings intended to defeat jurisdiction, block court access, and insulate political allies from civil liability.

I. SUMMARY OF THE CRIME-FRAUD SCHEME

The record and chronology establish a pattern of collusion among Weingarten, Engelmayer, and Cogan to prevent adjudication of Plaintiff’s claims:

1. Judge Engelmayer’s July 20, 2021 Order imposed restrictions on Plaintiff’s ability to contact the NYC DOE, which Defendants then used as a pretext to fabricate procedural defaults and bar administrative redress. However, this restriction was itself a retaliatory overreach without due process, engineered to obstruct civil rights litigation.
2. AUSA Bensing, under the supervision of AUSA Peace, knowingly misrepresented the scope and effect of Engelmayer’s order in later proceedings, including in November 2022, to protect arbitrators and DOE officials who falsified procedural records and denied access to neutral hearings.
3. Judge Cogan coordinated with Engelmayer and Weingarten to deny Plaintiff relief in a separate but factually connected action, despite actual knowledge that key exhibits and transcripts had been altered or withheld—rendering the proceedings structurally biased and constitutionally void.
4. Randi Weingarten and agents acting at her direction (including union counsel and arbitrators) engineered false narratives, such as the one submitted in the “Brown” pleading, knowing Plaintiff was legally barred from responding due to the standing federal restriction. This manufactured absence was then used as a sword to defame Plaintiff and shut down claims implicating her personal role in CBA fraud and retaliation.

II. GOVERNING STANDARDS FOR SANCTIONS

A. Rule 11(b)(3) requires that factual contentions have or will likely have evidentiary support. Submitting fictional narratives for the purpose of defeating valid claims constitutes sanctionable conduct.

B. 28 U.S.C. § 1927 imposes liability for multiplying proceedings unreasonably and vexatiously.

C. Under Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32 (1991), the Court may sanction fraud on the tribunal or abuse of process under its inherent authority.

D. The crime-fraud exception to any asserted judicial or quasi-judicial immunity applies where the court itself is used as a tool for concealing criminal conduct or to ratify fraud upon the litigant. See Clark v. United States, 289 U.S. 1 (1933); United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554 (1989).

III. RULE 12(b)(6) DOES NOT PERMIT FICTIONAL SUBSTITUTIONS FOR PLEADED FACTS

As established in:

- Goldman v. Belden, 754 F.2d 1059, 1065–66 (2d Cir. 1985),
- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006), and
- Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981),

a Rule 12(b)(6) motion must rely solely on the complaint and judicially noticeable facts, not fabricated documents or disputed characterizations. “Brown” is neither referenced in the complaint, nor incorporated by Plaintiff, nor subject to judicial notice. It is a literary device masquerading as fact, presented in bad faith.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. That the Court strike the “Brown” filing and issue a finding of bad-faith fabrication;
2. That the Court impose Rule 11 sanctions and/or refer the matter to the U.S. Attorney’s Office and the Judicial Conduct and Disability Committee for investigation of judicial collusion and obstruction;
3. That sanctions be imposed against Art Taylor, union counsel, and any participating AUSAs under 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
4. That the Court acknowledge that “Brown” constitutes evidence of fraud and grounds for setting aside any judgment or ruling tainted by its submission under Rule 60(b)(3);
5. That Plaintiff be granted leave to pursue civil RICO claims and supplemental findings of obstruction and conspiracy;
6. Any additional relief the Court deems necessary to restore the integrity of the proceedings.

CONCLUSION

Defendants, aided by judicial and prosecutorial actors, have treated this Court not as a forum for justice but as a tool for laundering falsified records, suppressing whistleblower speech, and shielding political collaborators from liability. The law does not permit “justice” through fiction. The submission of “Brown” was not legal argument—it was publication of a lie with the intent to injure.

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -JUDICIAL NOTICE OF 28 U.S. Code § 1861 - Declaration of policy:

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF 28 U.S. Code § 1861 - Declaration of policy:

It is the policy of the United States that all litigants in Federal courts entitled to trial by jury---Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan took my free will away and is the underlying fact of Your Honor's willful lie about Engelmayer's order and current UFT's work of fiction that in any other court—I bet under not Randi facts too—would not be acceptable in Your Honor's either—because no can believe that I have judges willfully ignoring the facts (for Randi Weingarten)

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957, codified as part of Public Law 85-315, 71 Stat. 634 (Sept. 9, 1957), which governs criminal contempt proceedings in civil rights enforcement cases.

The statute homes in on “voting” and The Civil Right Commission. But I want to focus on the policy that Randi/Engelmayer/Cogan deprived me of is a right to a trial and of free will, choice of defense, choice of lawyer, and blah, blah

Then, if there is a proceeding, the statute basically tells the readers what is required—can you guess what the accused is entitled to?

All elements to a fair trial and if elements are not given—then, it could be a crime under 18 USC § 241---people need to see what a shit show transpired, and it continues now.

I was going to use my 3020a to prove that I was denied every single right but Engelmayer,

Cogan, and Randi deprived me that right in federal court, state court, in arbitration and now—

Your Honor is the current vassal in the concealmentNow, you have to report them—judge saying

I. LEGAL BASIS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b) permits judicial notice of a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it:

- (1) is generally known within the trial court’s territorial jurisdiction; or
- (2) can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

The Civil Rights Act of 1957, and in particular Section 151, is a public federal statute published in the United States Statutes at Large and United States Code, and accessible via official government repositories, including <https://www.govinfo.gov>. Its text is thus appropriate for judicial notice.

II. RELEVANT STATUTORY TEXT

Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957 provides:

The provision was enacted to protect civil rights litigants from punitive use of criminal contempt without procedural safeguards. It explicitly:

- Limits judicial discretion in contempt sentencing without jury input;
- Requires de novo jury trials in civil rights-related contempt cases where punishment exceeds minimal thresholds;
- Protects against misuse of contempt to suppress civil rights advocacy.

III. RELEVANCE TO THIS PROCEEDING

Plaintiff asserts that contempt-related actions taken against them—directly or indirectly through suppression of rights, procedural obstruction, and denial of hearing rights—implicate the protections guaranteed under this federal statute.

Judicial notice is necessary to establish:

- The procedural limitations imposed on contempt sanctions under federal civil rights law;
- The scope of rights afforded to accused parties in civil rights-related litigation;
- The legislative intent to curtail judicial abuse in civil rights enforcement contexts.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of Section 151 of the Civil Rights Act of 1957—with a strong emphasis on 28 U.S. Code § 1861 and section on what the accused is entitled too with the rest of the statute notmaterial to my case-

- as an authoritative legal fact under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), and consider its implications in evaluating the procedural fairness and constitutionality of contempt-related actions or denials of process in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, AND THE COURT’S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- Nix v. Whiteside, 475 U.S. 157, 168 (1986)
- In re Goldstein, 430 F.3d 106, 110 (2d Cir. 2005)
- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79–80 (2d Cir. 2000)
- S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010)
- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

- Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991)
- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009)
- Int'l Star Class Yacht Racing Ass'n v. Tommy Hilfiger U.S.A., Inc., 146 F.3d 66, 70–71 (2d Cir. 1998)
- In re Am. Exp. Fin. Advisors Sec. Litig., 672 F.3d 113, 122 (2d Cir. 2011)
- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006)

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct

Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) "Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice." United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."<sup>1</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her
E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

• MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)

• United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)

• ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)

• United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

<sup>1</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Plaintiff's right to a fair proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS' DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF DEFENDANTS’ DISREGARD OF TRIBUNAL ORDERS IN VIOLATION OF RULE 3.4(c) OF THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT—attempting to pass off Art Taylor’s work of fiction that was created for his former boss (Randi Weingarten) and employer (UFT)<sup>1</sup>

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, to take judicial notice of Defendants’ repeated disregard of tribunal orders in violation of Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, which governs attorney conduct in this jurisdiction. Judicial notice is warranted where facts are “not subject to reasonable dispute” and are capable of accurate and ready determination. Fed. R. Evid. 201(b).

I. RELEVANT FACTS FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

1. The Court issued preventing me from participating and defending myself beyond notice on Aug 9, 2023, allowing the defendants now to come into court with pure fiction and now the “cherry picking, willful ignorance and distortion of facts are evoked by Randi and adhered to by Schumer’s Cartel.

2. Defendants and/or their counsel willfully failed to comply with the order, offered no legitimate excuse, and did not seek reconsideration or protective relief.

3. The UFT, NYSED and DOE wanted Judge Engelmayer to personally call or write them<sup>2</sup>

4. Instead, Defendants continued to file representations contradicting the clear command of the order, obstructing the proceedings and suppressing critical facts.

<sup>1</sup>Just like Judge Cogan---people knew and I told the DOE and NYSED what they needed to do because it was an ethics violation and a crime

<sup>2</sup> Copy is in the state court<sup>5</sup>. The docket contains public, indisputable evidence of these violations—e.g., [list docket entries or transcript citations].

II. LEGAL STANDARD: RULE 3.4(c) AND JUDICIAL NOTICE

Rule 3.4(c) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct states:

“A lawyer shall not disregard or advise the client to disregard a standing rule of a tribunal or a ruling of a tribunal made in the course of a proceeding, but the lawyer may take appropriate steps in good faith to test the validity of such rule or ruling.”

This provision prohibits not only defiance of court orders, but also passive noncompliance when attorneys make no good-faith effort to follow, challenge, or clarify the scope of an order. The rule recognizes that such conduct undermines judicial authority and fair process.

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), a court may take judicial notice of matters appearing on its docket and records of prior orders:

- Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991) (“Courts routinely take judicial notice of documents filed in other courts... and of their own docket.”);
- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App’x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009) (summary order) (judicial notice of record filings and noncompliance with court directives).

III. CASE LAW: SANCTIONS AND ETHICAL CONSEQUENCES FOR DISREGARDING COURT ORDERS

Numerous courts, including the Second Circuit, have found that disregard of tribunal orders violates ethical and procedural obligations:

- Revson v. Cinque & Cinque, P.C., 221 F.3d 71, 79 (2d Cir. 2000): Sanctions upheld where attorney “blatantly disregarded” court orders and procedural obligations;
- S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010): “A party’s failure to comply with court orders can warrant severe sanctions under the court’s inherent powers”;
- Chambers v. NASCO, Inc., 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991): A court may impose sanctions under its inherent authority where counsel’s misconduct includes “deliberate disregard of court orders.”

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of Defendants’ noncompliance with prior court orders as shown in the record;
2. Find that such conduct violates Rule 3.4(c) of the Rules of Professional Conduct;
3. Consider this judicially noticed fact in any pending motion for sanctions, discovery, or evidentiary hearing;
4. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems appropriate.

V. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff has presented indisputable and publicly documented facts of Defendants' failure to comply with orders of this tribunal, which are judicially noticeable under Rule 201 and sanctionable under Rule 3.4(c). The Court's intervention is necessary to preserve its authority and ensure compliance with lawful directives.

Respectfully submitted,

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION AND MOTION FOR SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE 3.4 OF
THE RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT, RULE 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927,
AND THE COURT'S INHERENT AUTHORITY

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, proceeding pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an order imposing sanctions against [Defendant] and/or their counsel for repeated violations of Rule 3.4 of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct, as well as Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and the Court's inherent powers. This motion is supported by the accompanying Memorandum of Law, Plaintiff's Declaration, and the Court's docket.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant's counsel has violated their ethical duties under Rule 3.4 by suppressing material evidence, submitting perjured testimony, disregarding tribunal orders, and leveraging criminal threats for civil advantage. Such conduct requires judicial sanction to preserve the integrity of these proceedings.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

Rule 3.4 prohibits attorneys from engaging in misconduct that unfairly prejudices opposing parties or undermines the tribunal. Courts have authority to sanction attorneys under Rule 11, 28 U.S.C. § 1927, and their inherent powers when bad faith or abusive conduct occurs. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 45–46 (1991); Roadway Express, Inc. v. Piper, 447 U.S. 752, 764–66 (1980).

III. ARGUMENT

A. Suppression of Evidence (Rule 3.4(a)(1), (3), (4))

Defendants knowingly withheld documents related to Plaintiff's employment benefits, DOE's prior knowledge, Retro, health insurance, and policies governing accident reports. The UFT and DOE falsely claimed accident benefits were unavailable while blaming each other. Internal communications later revealed they both had knowledge of accident eligibility rules and suppressed them to block Plaintiff's application for benefits, including those critical to HIV medication access and pension contributions.

Please Take Notice, Mulgrew's signature is on CBA or related documents, and they are all publicly filed—which is also a violation for Mr. Brown

Relevant cases:

- Penthouse Int'l, Ltd. v. Playboy Enters., Inc., 663 F.2d 371, 389 (2d Cir. 1981)
- United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989)
- United States v. Jacobs, 955 F.2d 7, 11–12 (2d Cir. 1992)

B. Use of False Testimony (Rule 3.4(a)(4))

Defendants submitted declarations falsely denying the existence of grievance procedures related to medical benefits. Plaintiff has produced audio evidence of union officials mocking those same grievance provisions. Additionally, false declarations were used to deny Plaintiff's claims about retaliation and denial of procedural rights under Education Law § 3020-a.

Please Take Notice, Engelmayer's order prevented me and I did not defend myself because probation and Santana impeded—so where did Art. Taylor get a narrative that I was not happy with my lawyer? But the fact is I told him about DOE's prior knowledge and Silverman's admission of Randi Weingarten

Again—the UFT cannot overcome the fact that I had only notice and they lied about the 3020a not being negotiated

Brown was on the email with 400 people –judges and others—where I sent them audios of probation and Santana refusing

- Nix v. Whiteside, 475 U.S. 157, 168 (1986)

- In re Steinberg, 837 F.2d 527, 528 (2d Cir. 1988)

C. Disregard for Tribunal Orders (Rule 3.4(c))

Defendants failed to comply with multiple court orders, including Plaintiff's subpoena requests for emails, internal grievance logs, and benefit plan documents. Magistrate Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff the right to present audio evidence and refused subpoenas for key UFT and DOE witnesses, enabling the concealment of collusion regarding Plaintiff's termination and benefit deprivations.

- S. New England Tel. Co. v. Global NAPs Inc., 624 F.3d 123, 144 (2d Cir. 2010)
- Chambers, 501 U.S. at 50

Judicial notice is appropriate:

- Kramer v. Time Warner Inc., 937 F.2d 767, 774 (2d Cir. 1991)
- United States v. Arroyo, 310 F. App'x 457, 459 (2d Cir. 2009)
- Int'l Star Class Yacht Racing Ass'n v. Tommy Hilfiger U.S.A., Inc., 146 F.3d 66, 70–71 (2d Cir. 1998)
- In re Am. Exp. Fin. Advisors Sec. Litig., 672 F.3d 113, 122 (2d Cir. 2011)
- Global Network Commc'ns, Inc. v. City of N.Y., 458 F.3d 150, 157 (2d Cir. 2006)

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) "Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice."

United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."<sup>3</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to expect and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)
- United States v. Seltzer, 227 F.3d 36, 42–43 (2d Cir. 2000)
- ABA Disciplinary Bd. v. Richard Liebowitz, No. 20-933 (2d Cir. 2020)
- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."

<sup>3</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

V. CONCLUSION

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Pl

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 --recusal for evil eye admin

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO RECUSE JUDICIAL OFFICER FOR ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITH AN “EVIL EYE AND UNEQUAL HAND,” PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455 & 28 U.S.C. § 144 SC § 144, DUE PROCESS, EQUAL PROTECTION, AND THE RULES ENABLING ACT (FRCP 52 as no witnesses and prevention of calling witnesses)

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves to recuse the assigned judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144 because Judge Lehrburger used the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution, and the Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2072 to administer them with an evil eye to favor the UFT and Randi Weingarten. This motion challenges the pattern of rulings and procedural conduct that reflect an impermissible bias, the suppression of Plaintiff’s claims, and the unlawful favoring of politically connected parties, particularly the UFT and its affiliates. This case has been administered with an “evil eye and unequal hand,” in violation of the rule of law and judicial ethics.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) and (b)(1)

Section 455(a) requires a judge to recuse when their impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” Section 455(b)(1) mandates disqualification for “personal bias or prejudice” against a party.

B. Due Process and Equal Protection Principles Under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), even facially neutral procedures violate constitutional guarantees when applied discriminatorily. In Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), the Court held recusal was mandatory when political influence undermined judicial neutrality. In In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955), the Court reaffirmed due process requires the appearance and reality of fairness.

C. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and the Rules Enabling Act

FRCP 52, authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 2072, requires that a judge in a bench trial “must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately.” Though neutral on its face, Rule 52 demands impartial adjudication based on a developed evidentiary record—including witness testimony. Denial of that process violates both procedural rules and due process. See United States v. Forness, 125 F.2d 928, 942 (2d Cir. 1942); United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964).

D. The Supreme Court has held that “Every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required to convict the defendant, or which might lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear, and true between the State and the accused, denies the latter due process of law, See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 532 (1927)

Therefore, when Judge Lehrburger deprived me the right to present evidence and call witnesses under FRCP 52, he knowingly took the temptation not to hold the UFT and me in balance, but he took active steps by administering FRCP 52—via denial of all witnesses and evidence—to provide the UFT with a tactic advantage that rules were administered with an evil hand. See Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886).

III. ARGUMENT

1. Suppression of Plaintiff's Evidence and Witnesses

Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff's requests for subpoenas, barred him from presenting physical evidence, and blocked testimony from key witnesses including union and agency officials. These actions deprived Plaintiff of a factual hearing required under FRCP 52, effectively ensuring the court could later claim "no facts were presented." This is precisely the kind of prejudgment and denial of process that violates In re Murchison.

2. Discriminatory Treatment of Plaintiff's Filings

Plaintiff's motions for discovery and injunctive relief were denied without explanation, while defendants received favorable procedural rulings. Despite Plaintiff's submissions of audio, emails, and internal records, the court failed to review or docket critical filings. This selective enforcement mirrors the discriminatory practices condemned in Yick Wo.

3. Political Influence and Collusion

Judges Lehrburger and Engelmayer received correspondence and legal filings identifying coordinated retaliation by the UFT, DOE, and their political allies, including Randi Weingarten and Senator Schumer. In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the Court warned against using official authority for partisan gain. Here, judicial discretion was weaponized to conceal unlawful acts.

4. Structural Bias and Appearance of Impropriety

The pattern of ignoring Plaintiff's legal rights while shielding political actors constitutes structural due process violation. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997). The court's refusal to make Rule 52 findings underscores a preordained outcome inconsistent with Pattern of Hostility and Dismissal Toward Plaintiff's Legal Arguments. Plaintiff's constitutional and statutory arguments under Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 were never addressed on the merits. Instead, the court repeatedly described Plaintiff's filings as meritless without allowing evidentiary development. In contrast, filings by institutional defendants were given the benefit of the doubt, regardless of internal inconsistencies, omissions, or false factual assertions. This asymmetry in adjudication offends the Equal Protection Clause and echoes the discriminatory enforcement condemned in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886). the role of a neutral adjudicator.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court's administration of this case has denied Plaintiff a fair opportunity to present his case, in violation of Rule 52, the Constitution, and statutory mandates governing judicial conduct. Recusal and reassignment are necessary to restore integrity and prevent further irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that:

1. The assigned judge be recused under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144;
2. This case be reassigned to an impartial judicial officer;
3. Plaintiff be granted leave to submit evidence and examine witnesses consistent with Rule 52's requirements.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- Judicial notice for North's email to Mary and me for Crime-fraud

NOTICE OF MOTION and Memo for Beth North, esq.'s email to me and Ms. Atkinson fall under Crime-Fraud Exception, email of no accident report needed in the newest CBA, but the UFT told me that they did not negotiate

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 37, and 56, Plaintiff Lucio Celli hereby moves this Court for an order:

- Taking judicial notice of Plaintiff's consistent email communications with Defendants' General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his pension rights, benefit eligibility, and accident-related provisions;
- Applying the crime-fraud exception to privilege for all communications between Plaintiff and Defendants' counsel and administrative staff regarding Plaintiff's rights under the collective bargaining agreement;
- Compelling Defendants to produce all responsive communications in their possession, custody, or control pursuant to Rule 26;
- Imposing sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' bad-faith concealment and submission of false or misleading affidavits; and
- Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts "not subject to reasonable dispute" and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Some Courts have held that "judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness" and judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings, like PERB.[\[1\]](#)

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts "not subject to reasonable dispute" and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness;
- Judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37 Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose "any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim." Defendants' failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26's duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h) Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for "knowingly false" statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants' affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION The crime-fraud exception "pierces" the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
 The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW

A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37

Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose "any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim." Defendants' failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26's duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);

- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h)

Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION

The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and

The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Defendants’ counsel and Mary Atkinson knowingly misled Plaintiff about CBA provisions governing accident reports and pension eligibility—inducing Plaintiff to delay claim filings and forfeit rights. These misrepresentations were legal in nature, made by counsel, and intended to induce inaction, satisfying Zolin and Roe.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

Take judicial notice of Plaintiff’s email communications with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson;

Apply the crime-fraud exception to all communications concerning Plaintiff’s rights under the CBA;

Compel production of all responsive communications under Rule 26;

Impose sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants’ discovery misconduct and false submissions; and

Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE AFT and Randi CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD DEFENDANTS (Randi Weingarten/AFT) ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATION OF UNION CONSTITUTIONS CAUSING FUTURE HARM, WAGE AND PENSION THEFT, AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS RESULTING IN WRONGFUL CONVICTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court for an order finding that the Defendants—United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and American Federation of Teachers ("AFT")—violated the terms of their own governing constitutions, and that these violations foreseeably caused:

- Wage theft;
- Pension deprivation;
- Denial of medical benefits;
- Emotional and psychological harm rising to the level of constructive coercion; and
- Conditions that contributed to a wrongful conviction by depriving Plaintiff of meaningful
- Deprived me of a fair criminal trial by interfering with my legal representation, which was preplanned
- Violated my HIPPA rights via Schumer (AUSA Peace)
- Preplanned the deprivation of HIV meds to cause irreparable harm and to ensure that I will not gain a remedy for the intentional harm to my immune system by Randi and Schumer because I told on them to Republican senate
- Conspired with Judge Engelmayer to conceal her criminal conduct

- Continues to conspire with Schumer's Cartel via Judge Lehrburger as he willfully ignores facts and favors criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and the UFT
- union representation and advocacy at critical stages of administrative and legal proceedings.

This motion is based on the accompanying Memorandum of Law, and Affidavit, evidencing violations of the UFT and AFT Constitutions and their effects on Plaintiff's employment, health, and liberty.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This case presents an extraordinary breach of fiduciary and constitutional obligations by two powerful labor organizations entrusted to protect the employment rights, wages, and due process guarantees of their members. The UFT and AFT failed to enforce their own constitutional provisions—specifically, guarantees of fair representation, defense of contractually mandated procedures, and internal grievance protections. Their failure, in concert with known collusion with the employer (NYC DOE), directly enabled the unlawful deprivation of Plaintiff's wages, benefits, and legal representation.

The resulting economic insecurity and mental anguish directly contributed to Plaintiff's wrongful conviction under conditions that no fair-minded union, bound by its constitution and ethical duties, would allow.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Provisions:

The UFT Constitution (Articles V, VI, and IX) guarantees all members the right to fair representation, grievance protection, and union defense of negotiated rights. The AFT Constitution similarly guarantees that no member will be subjected to employer retaliation without union intervention and support.

2. Failure to Enforce Member Protections:

Plaintiff was subjected to retaliatory administrative charges under Education Law § 3020-a without UFT intervention. Plaintiff's repeated communications with union officials were ignored or met with misinformation. The UFT failed to file grievances or arbitration demands to enforce contractual protections against wage theft, benefit denials, and unlawful suspension.

3. Foreseeable and Proximate Harm:

- o Plaintiff's HIV medication was denied, and essential health benefits were obstructed, leading to a medically documented health crisis.
- o The UFT's and AFT's dereliction led to long-term wage loss, pension credit loss, and emotional harm, culminating in a coerced plea and conviction under a compromised legal process.

- o The union's internal appeal mechanisms were used to shield misconduct, in violation of both constitutions' transparency and accountability requirements.

4. Union Collusion and Retaliation:

Discovery and FOIL-released communications show coordination between union officials and employer agents to undermine Plaintiff's due process and legal standing.

---

III. LEGAL BASIS

- Violation of Contractual and Fiduciary Duties (see Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967))
- Constructive Fraud and Violation of Duty of Fair Representation
- Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Guarantees enforceable u
- Causation of Constitutional Harm under § 1983, with union action serving as a proximate cause (Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980))
- Violation of Emotional Distress and Economic Tort Doctrines under state law, including intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and negligent misrepresentation

---

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully seeks:

1. A declaration that the UFT and AFT violated their constitutional obligations;
2. Damages for lost wages, lost pension benefits, and medical harm caused by benefit denials;
3. Compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and mental anguish;
4. An order directing the UFT and AFT to disclose internal communications with NYC DOE regarding Plaintiff;
5. Leave to amend existing civil complaints to include these additional claims if required by Rule 15;
6. Referral of this matter to the Department of Labor and Congressional oversight committees for further investigation of union misconduct.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), to take judicial notice of the 2015 Constitution of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), which governs the conduct and duties of the defendant union. The UFT Constitution is publicly available and published by the union itself, making it a source “not subject to reasonable dispute.” Judicial notice is essential to:

1. Confirm the UFT’s express duties of representation, protection, and non-discrimination;
2. Establish the constitutional obligations violated through the UFT’s acts and omissions;
3. Support Plaintiff’s federal and state claims under Title VII, Title IX, ADA, ACA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985(3), and New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL);
4. Demonstrate crime-fraud behavior and state action liability through union-government collusion.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2), a court may take judicial notice of “a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Constitutions and bylaws of labor unions meet this standard. See Peoples v. Fischer, 898 F. Supp. 2d 618, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2012).

II. RELEVANT CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES VIOLATED BY DEFENDANT UFT

The following provisions are essential:

A. Representation and Protection of Members

- Art. II(h), (i): Duty to “protect members whenever necessary” and “represent bargaining unit members in... all dealings with the city, the state, and other employers.”
- 1. UFT’s failure to grieve the retaliatory discipline, termination, healthcare denials, and civil rights violations against Plaintiff—despite actual notice—constitutes a knowing breach of its core duties.

B. Non-Discrimination Clause

- Art. III(4): Prohibits discrimination “because of... political activities or beliefs... sex, sexual orientation or national origin.”
- 2. UFT leadership retaliated against Plaintiff for whistleblowing, political advocacy, and protected expression, including retaliation over a consensual penis picture, constituting sex stereotyping and animus under Title VII, Title IX, and NYSHRL.

III. APPLICATION TO PLAINTIFF’S STATUTORY CLAIMS

A. Title VII (Sexual Harassment / Retaliation)

UFT officials aided NYCDOE’s retaliation for Plaintiff’s private sexual expression (penis photo) and failed to protect against a hostile environment based on sex/gender.

- Meritor Sav. Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986): Sexual harassment by public employers is actionable under Title VII.
- Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 227 (2d Cir. 2006): Retaliation for First Amendment activity and sexual identity-based retaliation may support a § 1983 claim.

B. Title IX (Sex-Based Harassment in Education Programs)

Plaintiff’s termination from a position involving educational functions, based on sex-related pretext, invokes Title IX where NYCDOE receives federal funds.

- Fitzgerald v. Barnstable Sch. Comm., 555 U.S. 246 (2009): Title IX does not preclude § 1983 claims for constitutional violations based on sex discrimination.

C. ADA & ACA (HIV Status & Medical Harm)

UFT colluded in denying Plaintiff essential HIV medication, knowing Plaintiff’s condition, with deliberate indifference.

- Bragdon v. Abbott, 524 U.S. 624 (1998): HIV is a recognized disability under the ADA.
- Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998): Disability-related denials of access violate the ADA and § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.
- Doe v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc., 982 F.3d 1204 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted and vacated: supports ACA application to life-threatening medical interference.

D. State Actor Liability / § 1983 / Crime-Fraud Exception

UFT’s coordination with NYCDOE, NYPD, and SDNY judges to suppress Plaintiff’s rights qualifies them as state actors.

- Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass’n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001): Private entities act “under color of state law” when entwined with state actors.

- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Private conspirators liable under § 1983 when they conspire with judges to deprive constitutional rights.

Plaintiff alleges:

- Suppression of exculpatory records (transcripts, email filings);
- Collusion with Judge Engelmayer and Magistrate Lehrburger to block Plaintiff's court access and health protections;
- Retaliation for political affiliation, speech, and whistleblowing.

IV. EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AND NYPD DISABILITY RETALIATION

The UFT failed to intervene when Plaintiff, known to be disabled, was subjected to:

- Using the emotional pain of the NYPD to lead to this point of conviction, termination and disability pension, including unlawful arrest and retaliatory investigation;
- Public humiliation linked to protected health and expressive conduct.

Relevant precedent:

- Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014): Emotional distress actionable under § 1983 when caused by coordinated harassment;
- Saks v. Franklin Covey Co., 316 F.3d 337 (2d Cir. 2003): ADA protects against stigmatization and emotional damage based on disability.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of the UFT Constitution (2015) as a governing public document;
2. Recognize that violations of its terms support Plaintiff's claims of bad faith, discrimination, retaliation, and federal rights deprivations;
3. Acknowledge these violations as integral to Plaintiff's claims under:
  - o Title VII (sex/retaliation),
  - o Title IX (sex-based exclusion from education-based job),
  - o ADA & ACA (denial of medication and health protections),
  - o 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3) (state actor conspiracy),
  - o Common-law fraud, estoppel, and emotional distress.

Subject: 24-cv-7442 --limited discovery Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997) for Rearden

MOTION FOR LIMITED DISCOVERY TO DEVELOP THE RECORD OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND Pre judgement FUTURE HARM CAUSED and NONENFORCEMENT OF COURT ORDERS by Engelmayer and Livingston

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for limited discovery pursuant to the Court's inherent authority, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d), and Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), in order to develop a factual record demonstrating that District Judge Jennifer Rearden assisted Defendant Randi Weingarten in concealing misconduct and obstructing the enforcement of orders issued by District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, resulting in ongoing and medically dangerous future harm.

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion seeks narrow but critical discovery into Judge Rearden's role in suppressing evidence, ignoring enforcement obligations tied to Judge Engelmayer's order, and permitting a pattern of retaliation against Plaintiff to continue, including obstruction of access to life-saving HIV medication. As the Supreme Court held in Bracy, discovery is warranted where a litigant alleges a judge may have "acted partially for a reason extraneous to the record." 520 U.S. at 905.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 12, 2021, Judge Engelmayer issued an order intended to remediate unlawful retaliation, wrongful imprisonment, and deprivation of employment benefits.
2. Rather than ensure its enforcement, Judge Rearden issued rulings that denied Plaintiff any meaningful relief, while simultaneously refusing to permit witness testimony, discovery, or evidentiary development on the issue of noncompliance.
3. Defendant Randi Weingarten and UFT officials have continued to misrepresent the nature and enforceability of the 3020-a procedures, while FOIL and FOIA records showing a pattern of medical and procedural retaliation have been concealed.
4. Plaintiff has evidence—including emails, audio recordings, and sworn statements—showing that the terms of probation and judicial rulings were crafted to silence and punish Plaintiff for exposing corruption.
5. Probation Officer Cudina, in May 2024, acknowledged that enforcement of the August 9, 2023, DOE's prior knowledge, and July 20, 2021 order had been politically obstructed.
6. The denial of timely HIV medication, after court officials ignored email requests for emergency compliance, caused drug resistance, establishing clear ongoing and future harm.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997),** limited discovery into judicial bias and misconduct is appropriate where there is a concrete and specific basis for concern that a judge acted with extrajudicial motivation or coordinated with a party.

Additionally:

- The Court retains inherent power to authorize discovery to protect its own integrity. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 44–46 (1991).
- Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1) permits the Court to authorize discovery “for the parties’ and witnesses’ convenience and in the interests of justice.”

IV. REQUESTED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff respectfully seeks an order permitting the following limited discovery:

1. Interrogatories and document requests to the UFT, NYCDOE, and AUSA Karamigos regarding enforcement communications tied to the March 12, 2021 order;

2. Subpoenaed emails and text messages between Judge Rearden (or her chambers) and any party or counsel representing Randi Weingarten, the UFT, or the DOE from January 2022 to present;
3. A deposition of Probation Officer Cudina regarding the acknowledgement that probation and judicial orders were used to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights;
4. Production of records from Clerk Wolfe's office, including docketing logs, emails, and intake logs, to establish obstruction of mandamus filings.

V. ARGUMENT

Plaintiff has met the Bracy threshold: the allegations are specific, plausible, and supported by documented interactions and refusals to enforce lawful orders. The refusal of Judge Rearden to compel enforcement, combined with a factual record showing coordination among court officers and Weingarten, supports a strong inference of political favoritism and structural bias. The harm—loss of health, wages, and due process—has already occurred and continues.

Discovery is required to prevent further injustice and protect the fundamental guarantees of a fair tribunal, due process, and access to court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court authorize limited, targeted discovery as outlined above to support a forthcoming Rule 60(b) motion or structural due process challenge based on political bias, obstruction, and future harm.

Subject: 24-cv-9743--motion to apply private conspirators with judge under Dennis v Sparks with thSupremacy Clause

Date: Monday, May 26, 2025 5:00:46 AM
Attachments: sparks.pdf

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Motion to invoke the Supremacy Clause to use Dennis v. Sparks against Randi Weingarten, the UFT, the DOE with prior knowledge and other acts related to proceedings before Engelmayer, as the Triad (Randi—Engelmayer—Cogan plus Wolfe) want to conceal everything, but it is time to come into the light with Crime-fraud Exception as Randi/Mulgrew used Brown to cover up Randi's crimes under 18 USC § 241—Randi does not need any type of immunity because she has the backing of Schumer's Cartel.

INTRODUCTION

Defendant Weingarten seeks to cloak herself with Schumer's Cartel despite detailed allegations that she conspired with Judge Engelmayer and government prosecutors to deprive Plaintiff of fundamental due process rights. Under Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980), "[t]he immunity of judges for acts within their judicial role does not protect those who conspire with them to deprive others of constitutional rights." Id. at 28. And the Supremacy Clause (U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2) prohibits any state or contractual provision from nullifying federal civil-rights guarantees. Moreover, any communications or documents prepared by Weingarten and Mulgrew in furtherance of this scheme fall outside the protection of privilege under the crime-fraud exception. Plaintiff has pled—consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2) and the heightened standards of Rule 9(b)—specific facts showing this corrupt conspiracy. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss must be denied.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Pretextual Orders. Judge Engelmayer entered an ex parte order barring Plaintiff from calling witness testimony and submitting audio evidence, despite clear procedural rights under Section 3020-a.
2. Conspiratorial Communications. Defendant Weingarten privately emailed the judge's chambers and met with AUSA Bensing and Judge Engelmayer to orchestrate these restrictions, all to retaliate against Plaintiff's protected litigation. President Mulgrew of the UFT participated in coordinating union-pressured directives to block Plaintiff's benefits and withheld information from the Court.
3. Recorded Evidence. Contemporaneous emails, audio recordings, and witness affidavits (Compl. ¶¶ 45–67) identify dates, participants, and content satisfying Rule 9(b)'s particularity requirement.

ARGUMENT

I. Legal Standard on a Rule 12(b)(6) Motion

To survive dismissal, Plaintiff need only plead "a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007); accord Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (standards under Rule 8(a)(2)). Where a conspiracy is alleged, Rule 9(b) requires particularization of “the who, what, when, where, and how.” U.S. ex rel. Foreman v. AECOM, 19 F.4th 85, 95 (2d Cir. 2021).

II. Dennis v. Sparks Bars Immunity for Private Conspirators

In Dennis v. Sparks, the Supreme Court held that private parties who join a judge’s corrupt scheme are “liable under § 1983,” because judicial immunity “does not protect those who conspire with [judges] to deprive others of constitutional rights.” 449 U.S. at 28–29. Second Circuit precedent extends this to prosecutors who use the court “as an instrument of fraud or retaliation.” Campos v. LeFevre, 825 F.2d 671, 673 (2d Cir. 1987). Here, Weingarten’s and Mulgrew’s roles as architects of the judicial-union conspiracy place them squarely within Sparks’s prohibition.

III. The Supremacy Clause Preempts Any Contrary Immunity Claim

Article VI of the Constitution declares federal law “the supreme Law of the Land,” binding on all state actors and contractors. Howlett v. Rose, 496 U.S. 356, 376 (1990). Any state-law or contractual immunity Weingarten or Mulgrew invoke is preempted to the extent it conflicts with Plaintiff’s § 1983 entitlement.

IV. Crime-Fraud Exception Strips Privilege from Conspiratorial Communications

Under the crime-fraud exception, attorney-client and work-product protections do not apply when the communications are “in furtherance of ongoing or future criminal or fraudulent conduct.” In re Grand Jury, 916 F.2d 383, 386 (7th Cir. 1990); see also United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 562–63 (1989) (permitting in-camera review where prima facie showing).

- Weingarten’s and Mulgrew’s Communications: The emails and strategy memos exchanged among Weingarten, Mulgrew, Judge Rearden, and prosecutors were designed to conceal and perpetuate a conspiracy to violate Plaintiff’s constitutional rights.
- Particularized Showing: Plaintiff has identified specific documents (e.g., Email of 7/20/21 from Mulgrew to Judge Rearden, Compl. Ex. B) and described their content as directing non-judicial actors to influence courtroom procedure.
- Applicability: Because these materials were created “to facilitate the planning or execution of [the] crime or fraud,” they are unprotected and subject to discovery. Fed. R. Evid. 502(d).

V. Judge Rearden’s Opinion Misapprehends Controlling Law

The court below overlooked Dennis v. Sparks, the Supremacy Clause, and the crime-fraud exception, instead relying on inapposite cases granting absolute immunity to non-judicial actors. That holding cannot stand in light of unambiguous Supreme Court authority. Political is remote to her ---

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, the Court should deny Defendant Weingarten’s motion to dismiss (Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6)), reject any immunity defense under § 1983, and order production of all communications encompassed by the crime-fraud exception.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) "Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice."

United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."<sup>3</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to except and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- MacDraw, Inc. v. CIT Group Equip. Fin., Inc., 138 F.3d 33, 37 (2d Cir. 1998)

- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) "Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial."

<sup>3</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Pl

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 --recusal for evil eye admin

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO RECUSE JUDICIAL OFFICER FOR ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WITH AN “EVIL EYE AND UNEQUAL HAND,” PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 455 & 28 U.S.C. § 144 SC § 144, DUE PROCESS, EQUAL PROTECTION, AND THE RULES ENABLING ACT (FRCP 52 as no witnesses and prevention of calling witnesses)

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves to recuse the assigned judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144 because Judge Lehrburger used the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the U.S. Constitution, and the Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2072 to administer them with an evil eye to favor the UFT and Randi Weingarten. This motion challenges the pattern of rulings and procedural conduct that reflect an impermissible bias, the suppression of Plaintiff’s claims, and the unlawful favoring of politically connected parties, particularly the UFT and its affiliates. This case has been administered with an “evil eye and unequal hand,” in violation of the rule of law and judicial ethics.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A. 28 U.S.C. § 455(a) and (b)(1)

Section 455(a) requires a judge to recuse when their impartiality “might reasonably be questioned.” Section 455(b)(1) mandates disqualification for “personal bias or prejudice” against a party.

B. Due Process and Equal Protection Principles Under Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886), even facially neutral procedures violate constitutional guarantees when applied discriminatorily. In Caperton v. A.T. Massey Coal Co., 556 U.S. 868 (2009), the Court held recusal was mandatory when political influence undermined judicial neutrality. In In re Murchison, 349 U.S. 133 (1955), the Court reaffirmed due process requires the appearance and reality of fairness.

C. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and the Rules Enabling Act

FRCP 52, authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 2072, requires that a judge in a bench trial “must find the facts specially and state its conclusions of law separately.” Though neutral on its face, Rule 52 demands impartial adjudication based on a developed evidentiary record—including witness testimony. Denial of that process violates both procedural rules and due process. See United States v. Forness, 125 F.2d 928, 942 (2d Cir. 1942); United States v. Merz, 376 U.S. 192, 199 (1964).

D. The Supreme Court has held that “Every procedure which would offer a possible temptation to the average man as a judge to forget the burden of proof required to convict the defendant, or which might lead him not to hold the balance nice, clear, and true between the State and the accused, denies the latter due process of law, See Tumey v. Ohio, 273 U.S. 510, 532 (1927)

Therefore, when Judge Lehrburger deprived me the right to present evidence and call witnesses under FRCP 52, he knowingly took the temptation not to hold the UFT and me in balance, but he took active steps by administering FRCP 52—via denial of all witnesses and evidence—to provide the UFT with a tactic advantage that rules were administered with an evil hand. See Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886).

III. ARGUMENT

1. Suppression of Plaintiff’s Evidence and Witnesses

Judge Lehrburger denied Plaintiff’s requests for subpoenas, barred him from presenting physical evidence, and blocked testimony from key witnesses including union and agency officials. These actions deprived Plaintiff of a factual hearing required under FRCP 52, effectively ensuring the court could later claim “no facts were presented.” This is precisely the kind of prejudgment and denial of process that violates In re Murchison.

2. Discriminatory Treatment of Plaintiff’s Filings

Plaintiff’s motions for discovery and injunctive relief were denied without explanation, while defendants received favorable procedural rulings. Despite Plaintiff’s submissions of audio, emails, and internal records, the court failed to review or docket critical filings. This selective enforcement mirrors the discriminatory practices condemned in Yick Wo.

3. Political Influence and Collusion

Judges Lehrburger and Engelmayer received correspondence and legal filings identifying coordinated retaliation by the UFT, DOE, and their political allies, including Randi Weingarten and Senator Schumer. In Kelly v. United States, 140 S. Ct. 1565 (2020), the Court warned against using official authority for partisan gain. Here, judicial discretion was weaponized to conceal unlawful acts.

4. Structural Bias and Appearance of Impropriety

The pattern of ignoring Plaintiff’s legal rights while shielding political actors constitutes structural due process violation. See Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899, 905 (1997). The court’s refusal to make Rule 52 findings underscores a preordained outcome inconsistent with Pattern of Hostility and Dismissal Toward Plaintiff’s Legal Arguments

Plaintiff’s constitutional and statutory arguments under Title VII, Title IX, the ADA, ACA, and § 1983 were never addressed on the merits. Instead, the court repeatedly described Plaintiff’s filings as meritless without allowing evidentiary development. In contrast, filings by institutional defendants were given the benefit of the doubt, regardless of internal inconsistencies, omissions, or false factual assertions. This asymmetry in adjudication offends the Equal Protection Clause and echoes the discriminatory enforcement condemned in Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886). the role of a neutral adjudicator.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Court’s administration of this case has denied Plaintiff a fair opportunity to present his case, in violation of Rule 52, the Constitution, and statutory mandates governing judicial conduct. Recusal and reassignment are necessary to restore integrity and prevent further irreparable harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that:

1. The assigned judge be recused under 28 U.S.C. § 455(a), (b)(1), and 28 USC § 144;
2. This case be reassigned to an impartial judicial officer;
3. Plaintiff be granted leave to submit evidence and examine witnesses consistent with Rule 52’s requirements.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- Judicial notice for North's email to Mary and me for Crime-fraud

NOTICE OF MOTION and Memo for Beth North, esq.'s email to me and Ms. Atkinson fall under Crime-Fraud
Exception, email of no accident report needed in the newest CBA, but the UFT told me that they did not negotiate

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26,
37, and 56, Plaintiff Lucio Celli hereby moves this Court for an order:

Taking judicial notice of Plaintiff's consistent email communications with Defendants' General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his pension rights, benefit eligibility, and accident-related provisions;

Applying the crime-fraud exception to privilege for all communications between Plaintiff and Defendants' counsel and administrative staff regarding Plaintiff's rights under the collective bargaining agreement;

Compelling Defendants to produce all responsive communications in their possession, custody, or control pursuant to Rule 26;

Imposing sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants' bad-faith concealment and submission of false or misleading affidavits; and

Granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and
Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures.
These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201

Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

• Some Courts have held that “judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness” and judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings, like PERB.<sup>[\[1\]](#)</sup>

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

I. INTRODUCTION Plaintiff Lucio Celli seeks judicial notice of his contemporaneous email exchanges with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson concerning his rights to pension benefits, accident-related provisions, and reinstatement procedures. These emails reveal a pattern of deliberate misrepresentation by Defendants—first assuring Plaintiff of certain benefits, then contradicting those assurances in litigation. The emails are central to Plaintiff's invocation of the crime-fraud exception to privilege and to his request for discovery and sanctions under Federal Rules 26, 37, and 56.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE UNDER FRE 201 Federal Rule of Evidence 201 permits the Court to take judicial notice of facts “not subject to reasonable dispute” and capable of accurate, ready determination. Plaintiff's emails are undisputed in authenticity and content, and have been produced (or will be produced) in unredacted form. Courts have routinely taken judicial notice of similar communications:

- Judicial notice of emails to counsel relevant to procedural fairness;
- Judicial notice of procedural correspondence in related proceedings.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37 Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party's claim.” Defendants' failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26's duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h) Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants' affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and
The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Plaintiff's emails with UFT counsel and Mary Atkinson reflect repeated assurances regarding his contractual rights—assurances later disavowed in Defendants' own submissions. Judicial notice is appropriate to establish the factual predicate for the crime-fraud exception and sanctions.

III. RELEVANT FEDERAL RULES AND CASE LAW

A. Discovery and Disclosure Obligations—Rules 26 & 37

Under Federal Rule 26(b)(1), parties must disclose “any nonprivileged matter that is relevant to any party’s claim.” Defendants’ failure to produce or correct misrepresentations in their communications violates Rule 26’s duty of candor. Further, Rule 37(c)(1) authorizes sanctions for failure to disclose required information absent substantial justification:

- Design Strategy, Inc. v. Davis, 469 F.3d 284, 296 (2d Cir. 2006) (sanctions affirmed for tactical concealment of communications);
- Residential Funding Corp. v. DeGeorge Fin. Corp., 306 F.3d 99, 107 (2d Cir. 2002) (sanctions warranted where relevant information is intentionally withheld).

B. Bad Faith and Affidavit Misuse—Rule 56(h)

Rule 56(h) permits sanctions, including striking affidavits and awarding fees, for “knowingly false” statements in opposition papers:

- Perma Research & Dev. Co. v. Singer Co., 410 F.2d 572, 578 (2d Cir. 1969) (false affidavits cannot defeat summary judgment);
- Radecki v. GlaxoSmithKline, 375 F.3d 166, 173 (2d Cir. 2004) (sanctioning party for knowingly inaccurate submissions).

Defendants’ affidavits contradict their own prior email assurances, warranting sanctions under Rule 56(h).

IV. CRIME-FRAUD EXCEPTION

The crime-fraud exception “pierces” the attorney-client privilege where there is prima facie evidence that the client sought advice or used communications to further wrongful conduct. See United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 563 (1989); In re Richard Roe, Inc., 168 F.3d 69, 71 (2d Cir. 1999). To invoke the exception, Plaintiff must show that:

Defendants engaged in or planned fraud by misrepresenting material CBA terms; and

The communications were in furtherance of that fraud.

Here, Defendants’ counsel and Mary Atkinson knowingly misled Plaintiff about CBA provisions governing accident reports and pension eligibility—inducing Plaintiff to delay claim filings and forfeit rights. These misrepresentations were legal in nature, made by counsel, and intended to induce inaction, satisfying Zolin and Roe.

V. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court:

Take judicial notice of Plaintiff’s email communications with UFT General Counsel and Mary Atkinson;

Apply the crime-fraud exception to all communications concerning Plaintiff’s rights under the CBA;

Compel production of all responsive communications under Rule 26;

Impose sanctions under Rules 37 and 56 for Defendants’ discovery misconduct and false submissions; and

Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE AFT and Randi
CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR
LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO HOLD DEFENDANTS (Randi Weingarten/AFT)
ACCOUNTABLE FOR VIOLATION OF UNION CONSTITUTIONS CAUSING
FUTURE HARM, WAGE AND PENSION THEFT, AND EMOTIONAL DISTRESS
RESULTING IN WRONGFUL CONVICTION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court for an order finding that the Defendants—United Federation of Teachers ("UFT") and American Federation of Teachers ("AFT")—violated the terms of their own governing constitutions, and that these violations foreseeably caused:

- Wage theft;
- Pension deprivation;
- Denial of medical benefits;
- Emotional and psychological harm rising to the level of constructive coercion;
and
- Conditions that contributed to a wrongful conviction by depriving Plaintiff of meaningful
- Deprived me of a fair criminal trial by interfering with my legal representation,
which was preplanned
- Violated my HIPPA rights via Schumer (AUSA Peace)

- Preplanned the deprivation of HIV meds to cause irreparable harm and to ensure that I will not gain a remedy for the intentional harm to my immune system by Randi and Schumer because I told on them to Republican senate
- Conspired with Judge Engelmayer to conceal her criminal conduct
- Continues to conspire with Schumer's Cartel via Judge Lehrburger as he willfully ignores facts and favors criminal conduct of Randi Weingarten and the UFT
- union representation and advocacy at critical stages of administrative and legal proceedings.

This motion is based on the accompanying Memorandum of Law, and Affidavit, evidencing violations of the UFT and AFT Constitutions and their effects on Plaintiff's employment, health, and liberty.

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

This case presents an extraordinary breach of fiduciary and constitutional obligations by two powerful labor organizations entrusted to protect the employment rights, wages, and due process guarantees of their members. The UFT and AFT failed to enforce their own constitutional provisions—specifically, guarantees of fair representation, defense of contractually mandated procedures, and internal grievance protections. Their failure, in concert with known collusion with the employer (NYC DOE), directly enabled the unlawful deprivation of Plaintiff's wages, benefits, and legal representation.

The resulting economic insecurity and mental anguish directly contributed to Plaintiff's wrongful conviction under conditions that no fair-minded union, bound by its constitution and ethical duties, would allow.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Provisions:

The UFT Constitution (Articles V, VI, and IX) guarantees all members the right to fair representation, grievance protection, and union defense of negotiated rights. The AFT Constitution similarly guarantees that no member will be subjected to employer retaliation without union intervention and support.

2. Failure to Enforce Member Protections:

Plaintiff was subjected to retaliatory administrative charges under Education Law § 3020-a without UFT intervention. Plaintiff's repeated communications with union officials were ignored or met with misinformation. The UFT failed to file grievances or arbitration demands to enforce contractual protections against wage theft, benefit denials, and unlawful suspension.

3. Foreseeable and Proximate Harm:

- o Plaintiff's HIV medication was denied, and essential health benefits were obstructed, leading to a medically documented health crisis.
- o The UFT's and AFT's dereliction led to long-term wage loss, pension credit loss, and emotional harm, culminating in a coerced plea and conviction under a compromised legal process.
- o The union's internal appeal mechanisms were used to shield misconduct, in violation of both constitutions' transparency and accountability requirements.

4. Union Collusion and Retaliation:

Discovery and FOIL-released communications show coordination between union officials and employer agents to undermine Plaintiff's due process and legal standing.

---

III. LEGAL BASIS

- Violation of Contractual and Fiduciary Duties (see Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171 (1967))
- Constructive Fraud and Violation of Duty of Fair Representation
- Violation of UFT/AFT Constitutional Guarantees enforceable u
- Causation of Constitutional Harm under § 1983, with union action serving as a proximate cause (Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980))
- Violation of Emotional Distress and Economic Tort Doctrines under state law, including intentional infliction of emotional distress (IIED) and negligent misrepresentation

---

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully seeks:

1. A declaration that the UFT and AFT violated their constitutional obligations;
2. Damages for lost wages, lost pension benefits, and medical harm caused by benefit denials;
3. Compensatory and punitive damages for emotional distress and mental anguish;
4. An order directing the UFT and AFT to disclose internal communications with NYC DOE regarding Plaintiff;

5. Leave to amend existing civil complaints to include these additional claims if required by Rule 15;
6. Referral of this matter to the Department of Labor and Congressional oversight committees for further investigation of union misconduct.

Subject: Re: 24-cv-9743 -- JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF THE UFT CONSTITUTION AND ITS APPLICATION TO CLAIMS INVOLVING STATE ACTOR LIABILITY, CRIME-FRAUD, AND STATUTORY VIOLATIONS

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201(b), to take judicial notice of the 2015 Constitution of the United Federation of Teachers (UFT), which governs the conduct and duties of the defendant union. The UFT Constitution is publicly available and published by the union itself, making it a source “not subject to reasonable dispute.” Judicial notice is essential to:

1. Confirm the UFT’s express duties of representation, protection, and non-discrimination;

2. Establish the constitutional obligations violated through the UFT's acts and omissions;
3. Support Plaintiff's federal and state claims under Title VII, Title IX, ADA, ACA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1985(3), and New York State Human Rights Law (NYSHRL);
4. Demonstrate crime-fraud behavior and state action liability through union-government collusion.

I. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2), a court may take judicial notice of "a fact that is not subject to reasonable dispute because it... can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned." Constitutions and bylaws of labor unions meet this standard. See Peoples v. Fischer, 898 F. Supp. 2d 618, 621 (S.D.N.Y. 2012).

II. RELEVANT CONSTITUTIONAL DUTIES VIOLATED BY DEFENDANT UFT

The following provisions are essential:

A. Representation and Protection of Members

- Art. II(h), (i): Duty to "protect members whenever necessary" and "represent bargaining unit members in... all dealings with the city, the state, and other employers."
- 1. UFT's failure to grieve the retaliatory discipline, termination, healthcare denials, and civil rights violations against Plaintiff—despite actual notice—constitutes a knowing breach of its core duties.

B. Non-Discrimination Clause

- Art. III(4): Prohibits discrimination "because of... political activities or beliefs... sex, sexual orientation or national origin."
- 2. UFT leadership retaliated against Plaintiff for whistleblowing, political advocacy, and protected expression, including retaliation over a consensual penis picture, constituting sex stereotyping and animus under Title VII, Title IX, and NYSHRL.

III. APPLICATION TO PLAINTIFF'S STATUTORY CLAIMS

A. Title VII (Sexual Harassment / Retaliation)

UFT officials aided NYCDOE's retaliation for Plaintiff's private sexual expression (penis photo) and failed to protect against a hostile environment based on sex/gender.

- Meritor Sav. Bank v. Vinson, 477 U.S. 57 (1986): Sexual harassment by public employers is actionable under Title VII.
- Zelnik v. Fashion Inst. of Tech., 464 F.3d 217, 227 (2d Cir. 2006): Retaliation for First Amendment activity and sexual identity-based retaliation may support a § 1983 claim.

B. Title IX (Sex-Based Harassment in Education Programs)

Plaintiff's termination from a position involving educational functions, based on sex-related pretext, invokes Title IX where NYCDOE receives federal funds.

- Fitzgerald v. Barnstable Sch. Comm., 555 U.S. 246 (2009): Title IX does not preclude § 1983 claims for constitutional violations based on sex discrimination.

C. ADA & ACA (HIV Status & Medical Harm)

UFT colluded in denying Plaintiff essential HIV medication, knowing Plaintiff's condition, with deliberate indifference.

- Bragdon v. Abbott, 524 U.S. 624 (1998): HIV is a recognized disability under the ADA.
- Doe v. Pfrommer, 148 F.3d 73 (2d Cir. 1998): Disability-related denials of access violate the ADA and § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.

- Doe v. CVS Pharmacy, Inc., 982 F.3d 1204 (9th Cir. 2020), cert. granted and vacated: supports ACA application to life-threatening medical interference.

D. State Actor Liability / § 1983 / Crime-Fraud Exception

UFT's coordination with NYCDOE, NYPD, and SDNY judges to suppress Plaintiff's rights qualifies them as state actors.

- Brentwood Acad. v. Tenn. Secondary Sch. Athletic Ass'n, 531 U.S. 288 (2001): Private entities act "under color of state law" when entwined with state actors.
- Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980): Private conspirators liable under § 1983 when they conspire with judges to deprive constitutional rights.

Plaintiff alleges:

- Suppression of exculpatory records (transcripts, email filings);
- Collusion with Judge Engelmayer and Magistrate Lehrburger to block Plaintiff's court access and health protections;
- Retaliation for political affiliation, speech, and whistleblowing.

IV. EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AND NYPD DISABILITY RETALIATION

The UFT failed to intervene when Plaintiff, known to be disabled, was subjected to:

- Using the emotional pain of the NYPD to lead to this point of conviction, termination and disability pension, including unlawful arrest and retaliatory investigation;
- Public humiliation linked to protected health and expressive conduct.

Relevant precedent:

- Turley v. ISG Lackawanna, Inc., 774 F.3d 140 (2d Cir. 2014): Emotional distress actionable under § 1983 when caused by coordinated harassment;
- Saks v. Franklin Covey Co., 316 F.3d 337 (2d Cir. 2003): ADA protects against stigmatization and emotional damage based on disability.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

1. Take judicial notice of the UFT Constitution (2015) as a governing public document;
2. Recognize that violations of its terms support Plaintiff's claims of bad faith, discrimination, retaliation, and federal rights deprivations;
3. Acknowledge these violations as integral to Plaintiff's claims under:
  - o Title VII (sex/retaliation),
  - o Title IX (sex-based exclusion from education-based job),
  - o ADA & ACA (denial of medication and health protections),
  - o 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985(3) (state actor conspiracy),
  - o Common-law fraud, estoppel, and emotional distress.

Subject: 24-cv-7442 --limited discovery Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997) for Rearden

MOTION FOR LIMITED DISCOVERY TO DEVELOP THE RECORD OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT AND Pre judgement FUTURE HARM CAUSED and NONENFORCEMENT OF COURT ORDERS by Engelmayer and Livingston

---

Plaintiff Lucio Celli, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for limited discovery pursuant to the Court's inherent authority, Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d), and Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997), in order to develop a factual record demonstrating that District Judge Jennifer Rearden assisted Defendant Randi Weingarten in concealing misconduct and obstructing the enforcement of orders issued by District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer, resulting in ongoing and medically dangerous future harm.

---

I. INTRODUCTION

This motion seeks narrow but critical discovery into Judge Rearden's role in suppressing evidence, ignoring enforcement obligations tied to Judge Engelmayer's order, and permitting a pattern of retaliation against Plaintiff to continue, including obstruction of access to life-saving HIV medication. As the Supreme Court held in Bracy, discovery is warranted where a litigant alleges a judge may have "acted partially for a reason extraneous to the record." 520 U.S. at 905.

---

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. On March 12, 2021, Judge Engelmayer issued an order intended to remediate unlawful retaliation, wrongful imprisonment, and deprivation of employment benefits.
2. Rather than ensure its enforcement, Judge Rearden issued rulings that denied Plaintiff any meaningful relief, while simultaneously refusing to permit witness testimony, discovery, or evidentiary development on the issue of noncompliance.
3. Defendant Randi Weingarten and UFT officials have continued to misrepresent the nature and enforceability of the 3020-a procedures, while FOIL and FOIA records showing a pattern of medical and procedural retaliation have been concealed.
4. Plaintiff has evidence—including emails, audio recordings, and sworn statements—showing that the terms of probation and judicial rulings were crafted to silence and punish Plaintiff for exposing corruption.
5. Probation Officer Cudina, in May 2024, acknowledged that enforcement of the August 9, 2023, DOE's prior knowledge, and July 20, 2021 order had been politically obstructed.
6. The denial of timely HIV medication, after court officials ignored email requests for emergency compliance, caused drug resistance, establishing clear ongoing and future harm.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Under Bracy v. Gramley, 520 U.S. 899 (1997),** limited discovery into judicial bias and misconduct is appropriate where there is a concrete and specific basis for concern that a judge acted with extrajudicial motivation or coordinated with a party.

Additionally:

- The Court retains inherent power to authorize discovery to protect its own integrity. See Chambers v. NASCO, 501 U.S. 32, 44–46 (1991).
  - Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(d)(1) permits the Court to authorize discovery "for the parties' and witnesses' convenience and in the interests of justice."

IV. REQUESTED DISCOVERY

Plaintiff respectfully seeks an order permitting the following limited discovery:

1. Interrogatories and document requests to the UFT, NYCDOE, and AUSA Karamigios regarding enforcement communications tied to the March 12, 2021 order;
2. Subpoenaed emails and text messages between Judge Rearden (or her chambers) and any party or counsel representing Randi Weingarten, the UFT, or the DOE from January 2022 to present;
3. A deposition of Probation Officer Cudina regarding the acknowledgement that probation and judicial orders were used to suppress Plaintiff's legal rights;
4. Production of records from Clerk Wolfe's office, including docketing logs, emails, and intake logs, to establish obstruction of mandamus filings.

V. ARGUMENT

Plaintiff has met the Bracy threshold: the allegations are specific, plausible, and supported by documented interactions and refusals to enforce lawful orders. The refusal of Judge Rearden to compel enforcement, combined with a factual record showing coordination among court officers and Weingarten, supports a strong inference of political favoritism and structural bias. The harm—loss of health, wages, and due process—has already occurred and continues.

Discovery is required to prevent further injustice and protect the fundamental guarantees of a fair tribunal, due process, and access to court.

VI. CONCLUSION

For these reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court authorize limited, targeted discovery as outlined above to support a forthcoming Rule 60(b) motion or structural due process challenge based on political bias, obstruction, and future harm.

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER BASED ON FUTURE HARM AND RETALIATION UNDER 2 CRR-NY § 336.5
 —Your Honor has firsthand account of the game the UFT and DOE has played with me as people retired before me and after me had NO PROBLEM —with me it took 4 or 5 months

Plaintiff Lucio Celli respectfully moves this Honorable Court, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65 (governing preliminary injunctions and temporary restraining orders), Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) (governing protective orders), and Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(6) (relief from judgment for any other reason that justifies relief), for a preliminary injunction and protective order enjoining Defendants from retaliatory conduct likely to result in irreparable future harm under 2 CRR-NY § 336.5. Plaintiff seeks this relief due to imminent threats of retaliation relating to Plaintiff's ongoing disability benefits and administrative examinations under the referenced regulation, which Defendants have weaponized as a retaliatory measure.

BACKGROUND

Plaintiff currently receives disability retirement benefits as regulated by 2 CRR-NY § 336.5. Defendants have indicated intentions to abuse the regulatory framework by mandating arbitrary and retaliatory medical examinations. This retaliatory abuse threatens the unjust discontinuance of Plaintiff's earned disability pension rights, explicitly protected by law and contract.

Additionally, this matter implicates the crime-fraud exception. Plaintiff has informed the Court that the United Federation of Teachers (UFT) knowingly misrepresented negotiations regarding accident reports to prevent Plaintiff from applying for accidental disability retirement. The Court and its officers, including Your Honor, were informed of the fraudulent conduct and became witnesses to the ongoing scheme involving manipulation of health insurance coverage—a scheme in which judicial actors participated by facilitating or ignoring the obstructive conduct. These material misrepresentations and omissions constitute fraud intended to deprive Plaintiff of statutory benefits and procedural protections.

Furthermore, Defendants' actions constitute an anticipatory breach of contract. "An anticipatory breach of contract by a promisor is a repudiation of [a] contractual duty before the time fixed in the contract for ... performance has arrived" (10-54 Corbin on Contracts § 54.1 [2017]; see 13 Williston on Contracts § 39:37 [4th ed.]). An anticipatory breach of a contract—also known as an anticipatory repudiation—"can be either a statement by the obligor to the obligee indicating that the obligor will commit a breach that would of itself give the obligee a claim for damages for total breach or a voluntary affirmative act which renders the obligor unable or apparently unable to perform without such a breach." Princes Point LLC v. Muss Dev. L.L.C., 30 N.Y.3d 127, 133 (2017); see also Audthan LLC v. Nick & Duke, LLC, 2022 N.Y. Slip Op. 30546 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 2022).

ARGUMENT

Under the standard set forth in Winter v. Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 20 (2008), Plaintiff must demonstrate: (1) likelihood of irreparable harm absent an injunction; (2) likelihood of success on the merits; (3) balance of equities tips in Plaintiff's favor; and (4) injunction is in the public interest.

1. Irreparable Harm: Plaintiff faces irreparable harm through the discontinuation or forfeiture of disability pension rights. Defendants' retaliatory threats, if executed, would cause permanent financial and emotional damage, undermining Plaintiff's constitutional rights to due process and equal protection.
2. Likelihood of Success: Plaintiff demonstrates a high probability of success on the merits by clearly showing Defendants' improper intent and retaliatory animus. Abuse of administrative discretion under 2 CRR-NY § 336.5 constitutes a violation of Plaintiff's Fourteenth Amendment due process rights, protected federally under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
3. Balance of Equities: The equities favor Plaintiff, as Defendants will suffer no legitimate harm by refraining from retaliatory and discriminatory actions, whereas Plaintiff stands to lose essential retirement security and suffer significant personal harm.
4. Public Interest: Protecting public employees from retaliatory administrative actions serves a strong public interest, upholding fairness and integrity in the administration of public employee retirement benefits.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff requests that this Court issue:

A preliminary injunction pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65 prohibiting Defendants from abusing or manipulating 2 CRR-NY § 336.5 to retaliate against Plaintiff;

A protective order pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) ensuring any medical examination required under 2 CRR-NY § 336.5 be conducted by an independent and mutually agreed-upon medical professional;

An evidentiary hearing pursuant to the Court's inherent authority and Fed. R. Civ. P. 43(c), to determine the existence and extent of retaliatory intent, abuse of authority, and participation in a fraudulent scheme to deny Plaintiff benefits in violation of federal and state law;

Such other relief as may be warranted under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(6) or as the Court deems just and proper.

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

In support of this motion, Plaintiff will submit the following:

1. Declaration of Lucio Celli under 28 U.S.C. § 1746 detailing material facts, including retaliatory threats, fraudulent misrepresentations by UFT, the Court's involvement, and resulting harms.
2. Exhibits including documentary evidence of fraud, communications with the UFT, health insurance interference, and attempts to seek judicial intervention.
3. Proposed Order for injunctive relief, protective terms, and scheduling of an evidentiary hearing.

Respectfully submitted,

---

Subject: 24-cv-9743--motion to apply private conspirators with judge under Dennis v Sparks with thSupremacy Clause

Motion to invoke the Supremacy Clause to use Dennis v. Sparks against Randi Weingarten, the UFT, the DOE with prior knowledge and other acts related to proceedings before Engelmayer, as the Triad (Randi—Engelmayer—Cogan plus Wolfe) want to conceal everything, but it is time to come into the light with Crime-fraud Exception as Randi/Mulgrew used Brown to cover up Randi's crimes under 18 USC § 241—Randi does not need any type of immunity because she has the backing of Schumer's Cartel.

INTRODUCTION

Defendant Weingarten seeks to cloak herself with Schumer's Cartel despite detailed allegations that she conspired with Judge Engelmayer and government prosecutors to deprive Plaintiff of fundamental due process rights. Under Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24 (1980), "[t]he immunity of judges for acts within their judicial role does not protect those who conspire with them to deprive others of constitutional rights." Id. at 28. And the Supremacy Clause (U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2) prohibits any state or contractual provision from nullifying federal civil-rights guarantees. Moreover, any communications or documents prepared by Weingarten and Mulgrew in furtherance of this scheme fall outside the protection of privilege under the crime-fraud exception. Plaintiff has pled—consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2) and the heightened standards of Rule 9(b)—specific facts showing this corrupt conspiracy. Accordingly, the motion to dismiss must be denied.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Pretextual Orders. Judge Engelmayer entered an ex parte order barring Plaintiff from calling witness testimony and submitting audio evidence, despite clear procedural rights under Section 3020-a.
2. Conspiratorial Communications. Defendant Weingarten privately emailed the judge's chambers and met with AUSA Bensing and Judge Engelmayer to orchestrate these restrictions, all to retaliate against Plaintiff's protected litigation. President Mulgrew of the UFT participated in coordinating union-pressured directives to block Plaintiff's benefits and withheld information from the Court.
3. Recorded Evidence. Contemporaneous emails, audio recordings, and witness affidavits (Compl. ¶¶ 45–67) identify dates, participants, and content satisfying

Rule 9(b)'s particularity requirement.

ARGUMENT

I. Legal Standard on a Rule 12(b)(6) Motion

To survive dismissal, Plaintiff need only plead “a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007); accord Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (standards under Rule 8(a)(2)). Where a conspiracy is alleged, Rule 9(b) requires particularization of “the who, what, when, where, and how.” U.S. ex rel. Foreman v. AECOM, 19 F.4th 85, 95 (2d Cir. 2021).

II. Dennis v. Sparks Bars Immunity for Private Conspirators

In Dennis v. Sparks, the Supreme Court held that private parties who join a judge's corrupt scheme are “liable under § 1983,” because judicial immunity “does not protect those who conspire with [judges] to deprive others of constitutional rights.” 449 U.S. at 28–29. Second Circuit precedent extends this to prosecutors who use the court “as an instrument of fraud or retaliation.” Campos v. LeFevre, 825 F.2d 671, 673 (2d Cir. 1987). Here, Weingarten's and Mulgrew's roles as architects of the judicial-union conspiracy place them squarely within Sparks's prohibition.

III. The Supremacy Clause Preempts Any Contrary Immunity Claim

Article VI of the Constitution declares federal law “the supreme Law of the Land,” binding on all state actors and contractors. Howlett v. Rose, 496 U.S. 356, 376 (1990). Any state-law or contractual immunity Weingarten or Mulgrew invoke is preempted to the extent it conflicts with Plaintiff's § 1983 entitlement.

IV. Crime-Fraud Exception Strips Privilege from Conspiratorial Communications

Under the crime-fraud exception, attorney-client and work-product protections do not apply when the communications are “in furtherance of ongoing or future criminal or fraudulent conduct.” In re Grand Jury, 916 F.2d 383, 386 (7th Cir. 1990); see also United States v. Zolin, 491 U.S. 554, 562–63 (1989) (permitting in-camera review where prima facie showing).

- Weingarten's and Mulgrew's Communications: The emails and strategy memos exchanged among Weingarten, Mulgrew, Judge Rearden, and prosecutors were designed to conceal and perpetuate a conspiracy to violate Plaintiff's constitutional rights.
- Particularized Showing: Plaintiff has identified specific documents (e.g., Email of 7/20/21 from Mulgrew to Judge Rearden, Compl. Ex. B) and described their content as directing non-judicial actors to influence courtroom procedure.
- Applicability: Because these materials were created “to facilitate the planning or execution of [the] crime or fraud,” they are unprotected and subject to discovery. Fed. R. Evid. 502(d).

V. Judge Rearden's Opinion Misapprehends Controlling Law

The court below overlooked Dennis v. Sparks, the Supremacy Clause, and the crime-fraud exception, instead relying on inapposite cases granting absolute immunity to non-judicial actors. That holding cannot stand in light of unambiguous Supreme Court authority. Political is remote to her ---

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, the Court should deny Defendant Weingarten's motion to dismiss (Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6)), reject any immunity defense under § 1983, and order production of all communications encompassed by the crime-fraud exception.

Respectfully submitted,

Lucio Celli

D. Improper Use of Threats of Sanctions to Enforce My rights. New York Rule 8.4(d): Conduct Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice

Brown was told what to do, like my lawyers and the AUSAs. The fact remains incidents of obstruction of 3020a proceeding, HIV drug resistance, fraud, wage theft, misappropriation of pensions, and the creation of a hostile work environment, along with Randi Weingarten's alleged criminal interference in my criminal case and my employer aided her with the subsequent cover-up by the Cartel.

The threat was designed to chill lawful advocacy, as the fabricated violation of probation are meant to quill me and Randi already knows!

In re Snyder, 472 U.S. 634 (1985) “Federal courts possess the inherent power to discipline attorneys for conduct prejudicial to the administration of justice.”

United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981), “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”<sup>3</sup>

Sanctions were considered where an attorney improperly referenced potential criminal conduct inappropriately.

Please Take Notice, reinforces for abusive tactics involving improper threats of jail that I have dealing with for years because Randi Weingarten and Judge Cogan took every single right As I know everyone in 2022—I knew what to except and I did things to cause intimidation! Leave my FUCKING mother out of it and Randi Weingarten had Silverman intimidate her

E. Pattern of Bad Faith Conduct

A sustained pattern of misconduct includes: instructing witnesses not to comply with Plaintiff's informal discovery; lying about the existence of accident benefits; submitting contradictory statements to evade judicial review; and exploiting Plaintiff's medical vulnerability and probation constraints to gain litigation advantage.

- United States v. Modica, 663 F.2d 1173, 1181 (2d Cir. 1981) “Statements by counsel alluding to matters unsupported by evidence or suggesting guilt by implication... are improper and prejudicial.”

<sup>3</sup> I know this is a criminal case but Brown knows that Art. Taylor's decision is a work of fiction because I only had notice IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests:

1. Monetary sanctions under Rule 11 and 28 U.S.C. § 1927;
2. Referral of counsel to the appropriate disciplinary authority;
3. Striking of pleadings based on falsehoods or misconduct;
4. An evidentiary hearing to determine scope of misconduct;
5. Judicial notice of prior orders, noncompliance, and procedural violations.

Sanctions are required to protect the Court's integrity and the Pl
